Here it is said that that her reign is of 1260 years duration. These 'kings' or civil powers rise in consecutive order during this period, and in their turn support the woman.'—See verses 9, 10. After the seventh and last king had eigned 'a shert space' and the the sever,' over which she had reigned becomes an 'eighth,' and this one is said to be the beast out of the bottomless pil. -See Rev. xvii. 8, 11. The apostate city reigns over but seven kings; and, as the 'eighth' had been negmed over as one of 'the seven,' it must of necessity he a RE VOLTED POWER in Es new form. We now see the meaning of the weres 'ascendeth out of the bottomics pit." This 'eighth power, which had been chained in the bottomless pit' of Catholicism, revolts from the reign of mystical Bahylon at the end of the 1260 years, and comes out or this 'pit' by casting off its allagiance to that church. Again, it must be a revolt ed power that abrogates the Justinian Code' of persecution and decrees toleration, which the prophecy demands; for a decree of tolerrtion to the Protestants by a once bigoted Catholic power is in itself an act of hostility to the church of Rome. This power also kills the "wo witnesses" of Christ-regardless of J. K. M's. quotation to the contrary. What is necessary to effect their death? We have seen that the establishment of the Catholic creed by law, clothed them 'in sackcloth.' This partially obsured their meaning, but at the end of the period they are to be rendered null and void-a dead letter. Their testi mony is to be destroyed wholly by this 'eighth' power. This proves this revolted or eighth power to be an enemy to the word of God, or a infidel beast govornment. Nothing but the establishment of infidelity by law will render the Scriptures 'null; and void' or put an end to their testimo ny Every system of worship, be it ever so erroneous, is professedly founded on the Scriptures, except that of the heathen or infidel, to whom they give no ray of Having ascertained these facts, we have only to inquire if one of the great Catholic powers of Europe revolted from the church of Rome, secreed toleration to the saints of God and established infidelity by law, at the end of the 1260 years, and the page of history answers YES! Is it possible for us to mistake the power? No! There is but one beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit' in the prophecy; and there has been but one power of modern times that has done the work; namely. France in the 'reign of terror.' France had been one of the most bigoted, itolerant Catholic powers of the 'dark ages, in whose territory 70,000 Protestants perished in one night at the St. Bartholomew massacre." But in 1789 it had revolution-The long sound of A is represented not ized its principles to sich an extent as to only by that character, but it is repre-sented also by E in heir, henious, there, church. God will accept the intention; and he may, perhaps, do more by his death than you think. With him we hope may come to pass. 1260 years began in 582; consequently, they must end in 1792. We will now, therefore, enter that year and see if the events which enter that year and see if the events which mark their end then took place—namely, the decree of toleration and the establishment of infidelity by law. Thus the atheistical beast from the bathomics.

Thus the atheistical 'beast' from 'the bottomless' pit' made war on the 'two witnesses' of Christ, overcame and 'killed them' in 1792. It is impossible to conceive of a more positive and perfect fulfillment. We have proved in our foregoing article, that
