ORGANIZED 1851, BHKKKKKK afe insurance company.

Home office, Pittsfield, Mass. Matnal protection is secured to the Policy Hold ers of this company by a Special Law of the State. For example: Suppose you are thirty-five years of age, and take an ordinary Life Policy. If you should make ONE payment, and should fail to make the SECOND payment, and should fail to make the SECOND payment when due, you still remain insured during the second year and three days of the third year. It you die during the owo years and three days, your family will receive the full amount of the Pollcy, less only the overdue premlum and interest.

One Annual Payment will keep you insured 2 years and three days. Two Annual Payments will keep your insured 4 years and 27 days. Three Annual Payments will keep you insured 6 years and 26 days. Five Annual Payments will keep you insured 8 years and 46 days. Five Annual Payments will keep you insured 12 years and 44 days. This protection applies to any age, and is expressed in every Policy.

The Advantages of such Protection.

The Advantages of such Protection. New York, March 11, 1871. W. H. Gueene, late of New York, lasured a few years since in the Barkshire Life insurance Company for $3,500; but, owing to instortine in business, was unable to make any payment to the Company during one year and ten months prior to his decease, which occurred January 12, 1870. to his decease, which occurred January 12, 1840.

I have this day received (at the New York biffee of the Company, 271 Brondway corner of Chambers street). Three thousand two hundred and minety-nine dollars, this being the full amount due to his widow, after deducting the overdue payments and interest.
