In a Deserted Mine. The Nevada Enterprise relates the thrilling experience of a man who went alone to explore an old and abandoned mine. The following is A ghastly place he found the level. The timbers were hung with great festoons of a peculiar fungus, resembling the moss of the live oak, but white as snow. Upon those festoons rested globlues of moisture which were transparent as distilled water, and which sparkled like myriads of diamonds. All these growths, however, were not of the form described. Some resembled exaggerated mushrooms; had stems a yard long that twisted about like rams' horns, and wore crowns of the size of a broad bat rim. They mingled with the mossy formation, grew pendant from the roof of the drifts, hung

New Your, March 11, 1871. W. H. GREENE, late of New York, meured a few years since in the lick-life first insurance Company for $3.500; but, owing to misfortune in baseness, was unable to make any payment to the Company during one year and ten in-nitles prior to his decease, which occurred January 12, 1870. to his decease, which occurred bandary 12, 1840.

I have this day received, at the New York office of the Company, 271 Broadway corner of Chambers street. Three thousand two hundered and ninety-nine dollars, this being the fail amount due to his widow, after deducting the overdue payments and interest.

W. B. HARRISON, 167 Broadway. A Special Law of the State of Massa--chusetts Provides that if you should lall to make your pay-

Provides that if you should not to make your pay-ment when due, and still preserve the conditions of the Policy, you will remain insured for a cer-tain number of years, and days thereafter, and if death occurs during that time the Policy will be death occurs during that time the Policy will be paid as above.

The ratio of expenses to recelpts in this Company is smaller than the average of all the Companies during business in the United States.

The True Benefits of Life Insurance.

It is time that those who seek the true benefits of Late I insurance should understand that Companies which strive to do the largest business (and persistently ignore inture liabilities), are by no means the best companies in which to insure It is the nim of the Officers and Directors of the Berkshire to do a safe, progressive business, which shall each year and to the strength and stability of the Company, and at the same time for blity of the Company, and at the same time furnish its members with more hourance, large Dividends, and greater advantages than can be realiidends, and greater advantages than can be realized to any other Company.

Annual Cash Dividends.—This Company is Strictly Matual and divides all the profits among the Policy Holders, in the Contribution 19 an. As your Cash Dividends increase, the uture payments which you make will gradually decrease. Dividends may be added to the Pohey, and are never torfeited by the non-payment of permitting, but may at any time be converted into
