An Exciting Scene.—Narrow E mpe from Drowning.-Last Wednesday afternoon a Mr. George Day, of Rochester, caught a couple of logs as they were floating down the Ohio at or near the wharf-boat at that place. The river was high and the wind blew a perfeet gale at the time. Having cought the logs, he thought to float them down stream a few rods to an eddy where they could be securely fastened. While in the act of doing this, and while on the logs bimself, a hoge wave struck the timbers and floated them out into the him, and he went down the stream very same made to the clerk of the court of ter going down a considerable distance, the Rochester ferry-boat put out after bim, and it was not until the mouth of first meeting of the said court after the miles down) was reached that he was overtaken. When taken from his perilous situation, and put en board the ferry-boat, he had already become so chilled that he was neither able to speak nor stand on his feet. Restoratives, however, were applied and he was soon "himself again." He will, no doubt, remember that trip down the Ohio for mahy years to come.

Liver Complaint.—In this disease there is a peculiar cachectic condition of the blood which gives rise to a long train of diversified symptoms.
The countenance becomes sallow, the oyes have a yellowish tinge, the whole skin becomes changed in color and appearances, and not unfrequently terminate in a jaundiced condition of all the excretions, but especially the urine.
