A High Moral Entertainment—A Bull Fight in New Mexico.

The following is from the Santa Fe New Mexican:

Santa Fe amuses itself with cock fighting, but our sister city, Los Vegas, goes us a few better, and makes a bully entertainment for the sporting citizens. We are reliably informed that the bull fighter stands with a huge, sharp, cheese knife directly in front of the flaming eyes of the maddened, charging bull (he is previously made mad by a visit to several of the saloons there) and waltzes a few steps of "La Sentinela" to give a graceful effect, raises his murderous weapon straight up in the air above his head, ahems, mentions a few saints names, cries "carajo!" and for a few seconds disappears from view in the lightning rapidity of his movements. He is next seen superbly bowing and sweetly smiling, while the infuriate beast is observed to have a bloody collar about his neck—the skillful hero has entirely severed his connection between the skin on the head and the rest of the body! The animal turns, and with a speed doubled by his increased rage, charges upon his would-be victim again. The dauntless gladiator, with distended nostrils, flashing eyes and compressed lips, kicks out first one leg and then the other. He is making preparations for a desperate effort. He hurls his knife from him. He sees no one now but his dreadful antagonist. As the contestants rapidly approach each other the vast audience is breathless with interest and excitement, and just at the fearful moment when the spectators, beholding the horns of the incarnate bull fiend at the breast of the gladiator, hide their faces from the horrible vision, the gladiator sickes both thighs, blows his muscle, snorts, springs above the bull, turns a double summersault, greaps the uplifted tail as he passes, strikes fair on his feet, gives the bull a swing, a short, whip-like jerk, and sends him out of his hide with a loud pop, like the sudden bursting of eleven hundred bladders. He crawls into the empty hide of his vanquished antagonist and lopes out amid the cheers and applause of the people.

Swopping for a Testament.—"Say, Mister, will you swop a Testament for some sugar?" said a little lad to a missionary of the Sunday School Union. "I ain't got no money, but here's some cakes of maple sugar. It's all I've got to give. They are mighty nice. Will you swop, sir? Mother wants the book, and I'd like awful well to get it for her."

The swop was made, and turned to so good an account, by the interest which the story excited, that 200 little ones in those backwoods were each made richer by the possession of a copy of that same book. Even a boy's two cakes of maple sugar are not to be despised.

Judges—Mrs. James Greatsenour, South Beaver township; Miss Mary Potter, Raccoon township; Mrs. Wm. Brichton, ——.

CLASS No. 20.—Gents' Discretionary.

W. H. Marshall, Martin Reed, John Dillan, Robert Sterling, Andrew Carothers.

CLASS No. 21.—Ladies' Discretionary.

Mrs. Matthew Darragh, Mrs. Hilary Reed, Mrs. William S. Barclay, Mrs. James Orr, Mrs. Orrin Phipps.

Classes Nos. 20 and 21 will embrace all articles not enumerated on the Premium List of the Society, and other than those named, premiums will be furnished by the Secretary to each Committee on Thursday, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Rules and Regulations for the Government of the Fair.

DIRECTORS TO COMPETITORS.

I. Competitors must be members of the Society, and show their certificates of membership to the Secretary before any articles can be made. Each article must be distinctly marked with the owner's name, and the number of the class and premium to which it belongs.

II. All animals or articles must be on the ground before 10 o'clock on Thursday that they may be arranged in readiness for examination by the Awarding Committees on Judges. No entries will be received after the first day at 9 o'clock a. m., although articles may subsequently be exhibited, but not for premium.

III. The same article will not be permitted to compete in more than one class.

IV. Judges must not be influenced in any manner by any person. Committees will therefore not make themselves known to the Judges until the awards are finished, necessary to examination of machinery work &c.

V. The owners of any article or animal from the ground before the exhibition is over for the last day of the fair without permission of the Committee, will forfeit any premium which may have been awarded by the Judges.

VI. Hay and straw for stock will be furnished free, and wood at cost rates and an abundance of water on the ground. Also, stalls for horses.

VII. No premium will be paid until October 1st, 1872, and all premiums won for will be paid only on a written order to the Treasurer of the Society, unless he be otherwise directed by the owner. In all cases premiums are to be received by the Treasurer of Managers.

IX. The General Superintendent and a Committee shall decide as to the location of any article which may be offered on exhibition.

X. Competition in all the several classes shall be strictly confined to the county except in so far as is provided for in the Premium List, and then the jurisdiction of the Discretionary Committee which shall be composed of persons chosen by the Board of Managers.

XI. Competitors must be owners of all articles or animals put on exhibition. Any violation of this rule will forfeit the premium awarded.

XII. No dilloramas will in any case be awarded on second premiums.

XIII. The managers reserve the right to withhold any premium given by the judges under false representation or not in accordance with the list and regulations.

Justly Popular.

From the first the "DOMESTIC" has rapidly increased in popularity, until to-day, in the opinion of all experienced Sewing Machine men, it stands forth

UNRIVALLED!

It is gaining favor much faster than any other Machine heretofore presented to the public, which can be seen from its increased sales last year over the preceding, being

OVER FIVE HUNDRED PER CENT.

No Machine is increasing its sales and gaining public favor as rapidly as the DOMESTIC.

This is in consequence of its

HONEST MEN, READ!

What Republicans Say of the Evans Ring Candidate for Governor.

There is a great deal of dissatisfaction with the Republican State Ticket, viz. HARTRANFT, BY HIS CONNECTION WITH THE EVANS SWINDLE, AND ALLEN, BECAUSE OF HIS VOTES FOR THE NINE MILLION STEAL.—Lancaster Volksfreund.

We regret that as long as Auditor General Hartranft was on the stand before the Evans Investigating Committee HE DID NOT TELL ALL HE KNEW concerning the affair.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

Your committee have not language sufficiently strong to express their disapprobation of so bold an outrage, or fitting terms in which to characterize THOSE IN OFFICIAL POSITION WHO SEEK TO PALLIATE OR EXCUSE THE WRONG. —Hon. Jas. L. Graham.

If they are not disproved (charges against Hartranft) they will be accepted as true by the people. IT WILL NOT DO TO MAKE HARTRANFT OUR CANDIDATE.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

They cannot but express their disapprobation of the looseness of OFFICIAL ROUTINE THAT PLACED IN THE HANDS OF EVANS OVER A MILLION OF DOLLARS OF VALUABLE ASSETS WITHOUT REQUIRING FROM HIM ANY SECURITY WHATEVER.—Hon. Harry White

Evans collected $184,168 34 and retains the whole. STATE OFFICIALS KNEW THIS FACT FOR THREE YEARS BEFORE IT BECAME PUBLIC, AND THE NEGLECT TO REPORT THE TRANSACTION TO THE LEGISLATURE IS REGARDED BY US AS A GROSS DERELICTION OF OFFICIAL DUTY.—Hon. D. N. White.
