A letter from Alexp.ndria, Egypt, of date August 25, is published in the New York World, giving what pur-ports to be a history of the careed to Egypt, but who left for parts unknown when he discovered that President Grant has sent General Starring to investigate the charges made against him by Dr. Strang, the missionary, and other status. dive to promote or degrade Ameri-can officers serving in the Egyptian army, according to his likes or dis-likes. The cause of the antagonism between Butler and these officers was of a social character, arising from the refusal of the wives of the latter to recognize Mr. Butler; not on her own account, but on account of the conduct of her husband. This was the exciting cause of his hostility to Vanderbilt Allen, an American officer or graduate of West Point, and at the time serving in the Khedive's army. In consequence of the refusal of Mrs. Allen to visit Mrs. Butler, Mr. Butler instituted a relentless war against Allen, which his official influence with the Khedive made it easy for him to prosecute. His private character was so bad, his gambling and profileracy a matter of so much notoriefy, that admission to the society of foreign representatives, known as the Consular Club. was refused him. Americans visiting Egypt were, compelled to seek protection under foreign flags, so utterly unable were they to secure from him proper and necessary attentian. Consular agents were removed without law, and, through his servile tool, a Levantine desperado named Strologo, notified that by the payment of a specified sum of money they could be reinstated, which was done in several instances, and the money naturalty paid for restoration to places itle-vally taken from them. Others, refusing to pay, were not successful in being reinstated. Butler also see the house of George Hartzell, jr., in said town--
