THE Liberal Republicans of Ohio held a meeting at Cincinnati on Saturday and resolved to take steps to organize the "Liberal party." Judge Stallo, Stanley Matthews, Judge Hoadley, and others who refused to support Greeley and advocated the re-election of Grant in preference, attanded the meeting and participated in its deliberations. The Cincinnati Platform, with the exception of the 'tarin' plank, was re-affirmed. Revetone Reform was substituted for the Cincinnati resolution on the Kariff.
