FORT McINTOSH, 12th April, 1785, "SIR—Agreeable to your orders, I pro-ceeded with my party early on the 31st of March, down the river Ohio. On the lst instant we crossed the Little Beaver, and dispossessed a family. miles from there we found three families living in sheds, but they having no raft to transport their effects. I thought it proper to give them until the 31st inst., at which time they promised to de-molish their sheds and remove to the east side of the river.
"At Yeilow Creek I dispossessed two families and destroyed their buildings. The 2d inst, being stormy, nothing was done. The 3d we dispossessed eight families. The 4th we arrived at Mingo Bottom, or Old Town. I read my in-struction to the prisoner Ross, who declared they never came from Congress for he had late accounts from that hon small place he may tell the people what he orable body, who he war convinced gave no such instructions to the Commissioners. Neither did he care from whom hold possession, and if I should destroy is house he would build six more with in a week. He also cast many reflecone on the Honorable the Congress the Commissioners, and the commanding officer. I conceived him to be a danrous man, and sent him underground o Wheeling. Finding that most of the settlers at this place were tenants under the prisoner, I gave them a few days, at ed men, came to my quarters in a hos-tile manner, and demanded my instructions. After conversing with them some time, and showing my instructions, the warmth with which they first expressed themselves began to abate, and for some motive lodged their arms with me till-morning. "I learned from the conversation of trying to force trade when it is dull; the party that at Norris' town, (by them others say that trade is good enough at so called), eleven miles further down certain seasons, and they only want the river, a party of seventy or eighty more trade in such and such months. tion to oppose me. I expected to meet with opposition, I ordered my men to load their arms in the presence of Norris, and then desired him to go to the party and inform them of my intentions. I then proceeded on with caution, but had not gone far when the paper No. I was handed me by one of the party, to which I replied I would reat with no party, but intended to exeute my orders. When I arrived at the town there were about forty men assembled, who ad deposited their arms. After I read to them my instructions they agreed to move off by the 19th inst. This indulgence I thought proper to grant, the weather being too severe to turn them out of doors. The 6th I proceeded to Hagiin's, or Mercer's town, where I was presented with paper No. 2, and from the humble disposition of the people, and the impossibility of their moving, I gave them to the 19th, and I believe ney generally leave the settlement at

About Robbers,-The Cincinnati Gazette is disposed to think that prudence would dictate not interfering with burglars when they once get into a dwelling house. For Instance:

"But if the robber is once inside, and his movements are overheard, it is worth ene's while to look after him? the case of Mr. Charles Goodrich, who was murdered in his dwelling in New York during Thursday night, would induce a negative answer in regard to many cases.
