I was not disap-liointed when I reached the house, "Oh, the and my ringing at the door bell was answered by the lady herself. She invited me into the parlor in a manner so courteous, and yet so modest, that I had fallen desperately in love with her almost before I could cross the threshold. I enjoyed a very pleasant chat with Mrs. Kingaley. During the conversation she informed me that her late husband had been in a fair way of business, and at his death, which occurred about a year previous, had left her in pretty comfortable circumstances. They had but one child; and this item of mortality I was most graciously permitted to look upon, as it lay peacefully slumbering in its cradle. I also learned that the lady was living in the house quite alone, and desired a male boarder more as a means of protection than a source of revenue. In conclusion, the landlady looked so pretty (she was quite young, not more than twenty-two or three,) und the price of board so moderate, her companionship so inviting, and seemed to trust in me,

The next day I had my trunk rethere. Before leaving my former boarding house a letter was handed me by the postman, but I did not find time to examine it until I was Mrs. Lingsley's cosy house. Opening the letter, I discovered it him?" I asked. to be from a wealthy uncle of mine, residing in Vermont, who regularly sent mea letter every year, but whom I had never seen. His epistles were always short, generally consisting of an account of the weather in his locality, and some good advice to me to take care of my money, as I might be burdened with some of it before I was much older. My uncle made some pressing inquiries respecting my matrimonial prospects, and stated that if I was not already married, I should immediately enter into the wedded state, and let him know of it, or he would never more be an uncle

Now, as my uncle lived in Vermont, and I in Philadelphia, I never anticipated the old gentleman would pay me a visit and discover the falsegood, I wrote to him and informed him that I was not only married, but the father of a bouncing baby. This intelligence so pleased my uncle that he sent a gold goblet and a silver pap spoon to be presented to my child. I first sat down and wrote a very romantic letter to my uncle thanking him for the presents, and then visit-ed the nearest jewelry store and turned both goblet and spoon into cash, which I pocketed.

I received no further letters from my uncle until the one which I read in Mrs. Kingsley's parlor, The post-scrip to this one not only astonished, but absolutely frightened me. It of Chronic and Acuto Rheumatism. Neuralgia, Lumbago, Scintica, Kidney, and Nervous Diseases, after years of suffering, by taking Dr. Filler's Veyetable Rheumatic Syrup—the scientific discovery of J. P. kit'er, M. D., a regular graduate physician, with whom we are personally acquainted, who has for 39 years treated these diseases exclusively with asionishing results. We believe it our christian duty, atterdeliberation, to conscientiously request sufferers to use it, especially persons in moderate circumstances who cannot afford to waste time and money on worthless mixtures. As clergymen we seriously feel the deep responsibility resting on us in publicly endorsing this medicine. But our knowledge and experience of its remarkable merit fally justifies our action. Rev C. H. Ewing, Media, Penn'a, suffered sixteen years, became hopeless. Rev. Thomas Murphy, D.D., Frankfort, Philadelphia, Rev. J. B. Davis, Highestown, New Jersey, Itev. J. S. Buchanan, Charince, lowa, Rev. G. G. Smith, Pittsford, New York. Rev. Joseph Beggs, Falls Church, Philadelphia, Other testimonials from Sensiors, Governors, Judges, Congressmen, Physicians, &C., forwarded gratis with pamphlet explaining these diseases. One thousand dollars will be presented to any medicine for same diseases showing equal merit under test, or that can produce one-forth as many living cures. Any person sending by letter description of affiction will recoive grait, a legally signed guarantee, naming the number of bottles to cure, agreeing to refind money epons sworn statement of its failure to care. Afflicted, invited to write to Dr. Fitler, Philad'a. Hist, valuable advice costs nothing.
