The Bogus Real Estate Agency. From an entirely reliable source we have learned something definite of the history of the man celling himself Kirk,' who was arrested here some tou days since as James Moore, on a charge of negotiating a forged check at the International Bank of Franklin, drawn on a bank at Oil City for $150. It appears that while he is not an old of in Beaver county, south of the river, and lived there till a few years ago. He married an excellent lady in Richland county, Ohio, who, with one child, resides there still. He sold his farm in hat county and embarked in merchanlizing but through resh speculations in grain became involved. Up to this time he was regarded as an upright, bonorable man, and stood very high in the community in which he lived. With his embargasement, however, came temptation, to which he yielded. He first forged a check in payment of clover seed, mirchased from a Mr. Kirk. patrick, of Pittaburgh. This offense was followed by another forged check upon a firm in Canton, Obio, For the latter he was tried, but through the infinence of friends, and on account of his previous good character, he was reessed. Subsequently he came to Bea ver county and forged checks upon the Beaver Falls and Brighton banks, giving his father's name and that of his cousin in Steubenville as, endormers. This latter transaction occured some time last winter. Since that time nothing has been beard of him by his friends till the news of his arrest at this place was learned by them. His case is truly a sad one. He is most respectably connected, being a brother of Rev. T. J. Kennedy, a most excellent man, some years ago pastor of the U. P. congregation of Jamestown, this county, and more recently of Steubenville, Ohio. munity in which they reside. He will probatly be tried at Franklin the pres ent week, and this conviction is certain inasmuch as it is said he has been fully recognized as the individual who negotlated the forged check at the International Bank-Greenville Advance. Bupture. Every kind of Trusses for the cure of Rupture may be obtained at Dr. Keys-er's establishment, No. 167 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa. Is is a matter of the greatest cons quence that all who are suptured should be prop erly fitted with a suitable Truss, and one that will keep the ruptgred parts in their place. Many persons do not know when they are ruptured, and frequently years are allowed to pass by before anything is done. This is a great error, and one that is often paid for at the expense of the pe son's life. Repture is too serious an injury to be treated with lightness or neglect, especially when tained. Children and young persons are easily cured with the improved appliances which are EX MILO A. TOWNSKND. Tossed on the billows of time, My soul is sighing for rest, I long for a happier clime— By cares no longer oppressed. Dn.

To amt rec'd from former Treasurer.... $ My friends, one by one whom I love, Are rapidly passing away; the love-lands of beauty they rove In the light of the Heavenly day. I see in the visions of night
Those lived ones so dear to me still.
Their forms are as lucent as light—
Their words my bosom doth thrill. I'm weary of this battle for bread.
With the sordid, and selfish and vain,
Whose lives are as heartless as lead,
In their maddening scramble for gain. When Truth in the market is sold,

And Falschood promoted to power, When justice is bartered for gold— Then wos to the day and the hour. Thus tossed on the billows of time, Let fruth be our compass and car-it's sway is supreme in that clime— It only can bless evermore. Beaver Fulls, Documber 31, 1872. GOGGLES.

BY J. B. SWETT. The world's upset by wrangling creeds, Dealing far more in words than deeds: And each believes its way the best By which to reach the heavenly rest. And plons souls there are, who view The world through goggles colored blue; And others who have never seen, Except through goggles colored green, And every creed has different ways Of saving souls and offering praise,-Each thinks the harvest rich stone. That springs from seed its hands have so Brothers, this world is wide and fair, Its varied colors all may share. Let's take the goggles from our eyes— There's only one road to the skies; And this is smooth, and straight, and sure To all of deed and purpose pure.
