Beaver, Ps., Sept. 3, 1873. HON. RUSSELL ERRETT, of Pittsburgh, has been re-appointed Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, for the ensuing year. He has called a meeting of the Committee for organization, in the Hall of the House of Representatives, Harrisburg, on Wednesday, September 3d, at 11:30 a. m.,-[to-day.]

THERE are a good many localitie where politics are badly mixed, but Morgan county, Ill., seems to be especially tangled in this respect. Separate tickets have been nominated taken the field as independent candiof Schools.

A PHILADELPHIA paper in its last issue asks, "What becomes of the sons of successful men?" To this the answer comes quick and sharp from the Norristown Herald, which says: "This is one of those conundrums a boy only nineteen years old might die and are buried, just the same as the sons of unsuccessful men."

. Comes P. Holcombe of the University of Virginia, and havagent to Canada, where he was concerned in the Niagara Conference. After the war he adopted the profession of teaching and for some years was principal of a high school in Virginia. During the "unpleasantness" he was one of the most yiolent rebels than ordinary ability.

GEN ADELBERT AMES has been cominated for Governor of Mississip pl by the Republicans of that State. The Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State are both colored. General Ames is General Butler's son-inlaw and it is said that the two relatives agreed with each other a year ago to "seize" the Governorship of their respective States, or "go down" in the attempt. Ames has made his point, but we hardly think it possible for Butler to make his. The tide was unmistakably in his favor one month ago but it seems to be
