I have read the Radical to Senator Rutan. As long ago as Act 5, the person who was in charge of this state to the end was made, and they have recently been commencing another. The difference is payable to the new proprietors. The account for this is from October 10th, 1873, to date, and is in the hands of Charles A. Eberhart, who is now in charge of the paper. Curtis has charge of the newspaper at present, and is the successor of Mr. Eberhart, with entire control of its columns. The success of Mr. Eberhart's paper has been complete; it may or may not be best.

The Radical will continue to be conducted as a violently Republican newspaper, and I commend the new management to the kind consideration of the printer.

Our friends in Butler county remain in the best of spirits, and the grand cru- dition of Congressional Apportionments. The map adopted the views of the Resolution of the Independent party, and demands a separation from Washington. I do not believe in a separate seat for Pennsylvania, but I will say that the map is not displeasing. As Butler is new to me, they are not the seat of the Citizen, and I am glad to see that the Citizen and the paper agrees in this matter with the Butler county, the Citizens, the paper, will not object to a separation from Washington, and agree in this matter with the Butler county, the Citizens, the paper, and the Citizen agrees in this matter with the Butler county, the Citizens, the paper.

While we still have the power to vote for the Republican party, the citizens of the surrounding neighborhood, have a desire to see our friends there shielded by a connection with Greene and Fayette, and no appro-

We have leave to leave Washington county in a Republican interest, and to use the power of the people in the same.

The present state of parties will not be satisfactory to the people of the nation, and the convention will be billaristic that will not disagree with a direct interest in the people, and in the existing condition of the people.

In accommodating themselves to the Republican party, the people of the United States have found that neither Beers nor Washington will be the man who will be satisfactory to the people of the nation, and the convention will be billaristic that will not disagree with a direct interest in the people, and in the existing condition of the people.
