THE RADICAL: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1873.

The Argus Lie Exposed !-- The editor of the Argus has interviewed one of the Commissioners, and gives as a re-Commissioners paid me only eighty, there- 1873, at 71% o'clock. by saving the county the amount of seventy dollars. I don't believe any one of the Commissioners ever authorized that state. ment to substantiate the charge that I intended to fleece the county out of forty or fifty dollars, not due me, for work performed. Of course the editor of the Arqus had some facts from which to conas well as to vindicate myself, I will state them, not wrested and twisted out of their natural connection, but as they occurred, without any desire of concealing any. -thing, so that the people can judge who has lied in this matter. Sheriff Græbing ordered the printing of the November proclamation in THE RADICAL, and handed it in so as to have four publications previous to the election. The Sheriff informed me and the Commissioners that he had given said proclamation only to THE mentioned papers for the printing of the same. Accordingly I made out my bill four weeks' insertion, and presented it | curity." the Commissioners. One dollar for the first insertion, and fifty cents for each subsequent one, is the regular price for such work, and in making out the bill thus, I only asked for what was justly due according to regular rates. One of the Commissioners, however, who had been told by the editor of the Argus that his square, for sixty squares making one hundred and twenty dollars, and that it was so charged it on his book, asked why I charged more than the Argus? The business being new to me, I replied that F did not know, but would go and see the editor of the Argus and ascertain the reason of the difference. I did so, and was informed that his charge was subject to revision, that it was made under the impression that the Sheriff was limited by

Rochester Savings and Loan Association.-The annual meeting of this Association, for the purpose of electing sult of that interview, that I charged one officers and for submitting the yearly re bundred and fifty dollars for printing the ports, will be held in the Town Hall, November proclamation, and that the Rochester, Thursday evening, March 13th. The following amendments to the By

Laws will be proposed for final consideration at that meeting : -

That section 14th of the By-Laws be amended to read: "In case the funds of the Association should not be called for by any stockholder, and should remain unproductive for the space of four weeks, struct his gross libel, and to show him up | it shall become the duty of the Board of Managers to make such an investment, of the same as shall be, in flieir opinion, safest and most to the interest of the Association: Provided, however, that no such investment shall be made without the consent of two thirds of the whole Board of Managers; and, Provided, further, that the security demanded shall be the same as that required of stockholders."

Moved, That section 18th be changed to read : "The funds of the corporation may be loaned to any stockholder, to an RADICAL and Argus, and ordered the amount not exceeding the sum of install-Commissioners to pay only the two above ments paid in upon each and every share of stock held by him, her or them, which loan shall be secured by a transfer of the for sixty squares, at $2.50 per square, for stock to the corporation as collateral se

Moved, To add section 33rd as follows The Board of Managers are hereby au thorized to empower any person or persons to purchase at any Judicial sale, any Real Estate upon which the Association may have a mortgage or judgment; if in their opinion the interests of the Association should require it. They shall also bill for the same was only two dollars per | have full power and authority to sell, dis pose of and convey any property thus purchased.

FEBRUARY 141b, 1873. EDITOR RADICAL-Dear Sir : I was reviewing the town and business of Vanport, Beaver county, and truly I find it no insignificant place. At the lower end of the town, and near the narrows, is the til the present, although his health has large and conspicuous lime kiln, erected by H. Sebring, and is now ready to be put new vigor into the congregation, gave all in blast. Close by Mesers. Mitchel & his time to the church, and received for Co. are preparing for burning fire brick, and have now thrown out a fine lot of beautiful clay. The vein, I learn, is from church building, and erected a fine strucsix to eight feet thick. This enterprise alone will add much to the interest of the have not learned whether or not Mr. place. The men are busy at work laying a switch, from which Mr. Sebring has all ready shipped several car loads of limestone. A little farther up, at the lower end of Rev. Davis's property. I see another set of men at work stripping up a most delightful and valuable bed of limestone, where, I understand, the Reverend has given a lease of 5000 tons to Mr. Br ker Reed, who is worthy of honor for the manner in which he is opening the quarry. Still a little farther up the Reverend has two beautiful lime kilns ready for use Right opposite his new and magnificent dwelling house, put up in good taste and style, Mr. Davis has eight or ten acres of land laying along the C. & P. Railroad, principally underlaid with lime stome. understand he has given another lease of 5000 tons to C. Power, Miller & Co., which will be put into operation soon. Thennext above is Mr. W. J. Dunn's switch, where he ships from one to three cars per day, making from three to nine hundred bushels of lime; next. Col. T. J. Power has a switch, from which is shipped from thirty to fifty tons of stone per day; then up the Two-Mile run, and next the hill, is where the lime is made by Dunn and Power. I think it would be a great advantage to the railroad company to put a public switch where such a vast amount of shipping is to be done, and thereby encourage those who wish to patronise the road. Vapport has four potteries, where they manufacture stone ware, nine lime

Captain John K. Buckley, of Rochester, committed suicide on Tuesday afternoon about one o'clock at the Red Lion Hotel, Pittsburgh. A report of a pistol being heard, a servant girl ran to see from whence it came and the cause of it, and was horrified to discover a man in bed, covered with blood, and holding in his lifeless hand a discharged Smith Wesson pistol. On his person was found a letter in an envelope directed to Mrs. N. Sharer, which read as follows :

ROCHESTER, February 20, 1873. Louisa Lacock, New Brighton-I will be buried at two o'clock to day. JOHN K BUCKLEY.

Other letters showing that deceased was embarrassed financially were also found.

The Coroner held an inquest on the remains, and a verdict of death by snicide was rendered. On Wednesday the remains were removed to New Brighton for interment. Deceased leaves a wife and several children.

Mr. Buckley was favorably known in this community, and it will be recollected was Colonel of the Wide-a-wakes during last Fall's campaign. He was a good sol dier in the late war, a staunch Republican, and, so far as we know, has always enjoyed the respect of the community. His sudden self-destruction has shocked his friends and acquaintances who are unable to give any reason for such an unlooked for event. From the note which is dated February 20th, it appears that he had been comtemplating the act for some days. We saw him and spoke with him in Rochester on Saturday, and did not discover, either in his manner or speech anything unusual to indicate such a desperate resolution as was even then being revolved in his mind. We were surprised and grieved to hear of his sad end.

Rev. J. L. Fulton. of Mill Creek church, Greene township, has received a call to the Broadway Street, Baltimore, Presbyterian church. He came from Iowa to Mill Creek in 1869, where he has faithfully and very efficiently labored unbeen poor most of the time. He infused his services a liberal support. Under his lead the congregation tore down the old ture, in modern style, in its place. We Fulton has decided to accept the call to-Baltimore, but if so, his loss will be severely felt at Mill Creek, and all wish, in his new field of labor, that he may have as active co-workers and kind friends as he has left hehind him.

David, Gamble, of Raccoon township, has a remarkable cow that calved three calves one day last week, which are alive and doing well. This is the second freak of the kind that has happened in that neighborhood within a short time, and indicates that the good people of Raccoon know how to manage these things better than others. Let Mr. Gamble's cow go to the front.

The Legislature has passed a bill increasing jurors pay to two dollars per day, This will be good news to those of our people who have this service to perform, usually at a loss of both time and money.

Why Endure What is Curable? "What can't be cured must be endured," says the proverb; but indigestion can be cared, and therefore it is the merest stupidity to endure it. Dyspeptics have certainly a right to continue dyspeptic to the end of their days if they choose, but as it is not supposed that any rational being prefers physical torment to case and health, the probability is that if all suffers from indigestion were convinced that an absolute, infallible remedy for their complaint existed, they would with one accord resort to it. We most emphatically declare that such a thing does exist, and that its name is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The record of its success extends over a period of twenty years, and it is fearlessly alleged that during the whole. whole of that time it has never failed to afford permanent relief in any disorder or dera; gement of the stomach that was not organic, malignant, and incurable. The testimonials that go to establish this important fact can be counted by the thousand. Somach complaints that had been aggrayeted by a total disregard of all dietary rules, and intensified and rendered chronic by medical treatment or drastic purgation, have in hundreds of mstands been cared within threa months by the systematic use of this celebrated stomachic alterative. It should be remembered that weakness of the digestive organs involves many other ailments. Biliousness, headache, nervous debility, the head, nausea, vertigo, and sleep'essness are among its concomitants and results; and for all these the great vegetable tonic is a specific. It acts first upon the stomach, and through the stomach upon the secretory and nervous systems and the bowels, its general effect being always genial and beneficient.

law to three insertions, but requested me to look into the matter, and ascertain what the provisions of the law, in regard thit, were, and if I found it to provide for tour insertions instead of three, he would (barge $2.50 per square also. I went immediately to Mr. Ledlie, who was familby with the Sheriff's business, and asked him to give me the law on the subject. On examination he said that the law proviled for three publications. I did not report to the editor of the Argus, but went immediately to the Commissioners and fold them what Mr. Ledlie had said, and asked permission to withdraw the bill, an order to make it out for three weeks instead of four, saying that I did not want them to pay me more than was lawfal and customary. The bill was so corrected, and I received and receipted for $120, both the Commissioners and myself being entirely satisfied with the settle ment. Subsequently, however, the editor of the Beaver County Press, who had also printed the proclamation, presented his bill to the Commissioners, and the question was raised whether the Sheriff had ordered him to print the same. Mr. Daugherty and John Græbing, Jr., were of the opinion that the Sheriff did so order it, and finally the disputed question was settled against the Sheriff's judgment, and the editor of the Press was allowed to share equally with THE RADI-(AL and Argus. This decision no doubt was just, and perfectly bgreeable to myself. The amount which the Commissomers were entitled to pay, as I discovered, was $240, which, according to the first understanding, was to be divided between THE RADICAL and Argus, but according to the final adjustnment was divided between the three papers mentioned, giving to each $80-$40 less than the regular rates.

These are the facts and all of them, out of which the editor of the Argus has invented his falsehood. They were known " thim, but like his cousin, the snake, he had to slime them over with his peculiar SMITH CURTIS. a.fort.

On Wednesday night of last week, about 1 o'clock, Mr. M. J. White, of this place, was attacked by some unknown person with a club, while he was entering the bridge, between Rochester and Bridge- water, from the Rochester side. Mr. White had entered the bridge a short dis- tance, when he was suddenly struck, hav- ing just time by a quick movement of his arm, to ward off the blow, which un- doubtedly was aimed at his head with murderous intent. He immediately drew his revolver and fired several shots at the midnight assassin, who, on perceiving his danger, ran and escaped by means of the darkness. Mr. White's arm was severely in jured, and it is fortunate that, by being armed, he was able to defend himself. That bridge on a dark dight is a danger.	present contract, to the Beaver College. We are glad to learn that the subscription is progressing favorably. A general de- termination on the part of the citizens to complete the building, will secure it with- out the possibility of failure.
