There has as yet been no correct list of the yeas and nays in the House on the salary question. On the adoption of the conference report on the Legislative Appropriation bill, this being the test question, the vote was as follows. Democrats and Liberal Republicans in italics:

Of the 103 yeas, 52 were Republicans, and 50 Democrats and Liberal Republicans. Of the 95 nays, 58 were Republican and 37 Democrats and Liberal Republicans; of the 52 Republican yeas, 23 were Southern members; and of the 102 yeas, 55 were outgoing members, not elected to the Fortythird Congress. There is a very strong and sincere disinclination on the part of some Senators as well as some members of the House to taking the back pay allowed by the increase of members' salaries. Inasmuch as it would seem over-virtuous for any Alliance there is some talk of securing united action on the part of quite a number, who feel opposed to the principle, and thus make their disapprobation the more emphatic.

There is much spoulition relative to the Cabi-net, founded on the more report that recently the members of it have formally tendered their resignations, thas necessitating new nominations to the Seas e. The question about the Cabinet was. however, sattled list Fall, soon after the re-election of President Grant. Af a Cabinet meeting, all the mem ters being present, they informed him that, wishing to do nothing whitever to embarrass him in his administration, they would tender their resignations to take effect on the 4th of March ensuing. The President expressed his thanks for their friendly feerings, and informed them he had no desire for any one of them to withdraw from their present positions, but preferred they should all remain. Nothing has since occurred to change the position of affairs as it existed at that time. The only immediate change will be in the Secretaryship of the Treasury, should the present incumbent be elected to the Senate of the United

Address of the Temperance Union.

To the Voters of Bearer County: Your votes on the third Friday of this month will determine whether dram shops shall be licensed in this county, and the responsibility of continuing these institutions now rests upon you. There is no patriot or christian, who does not deplore the crime and wretched ness, which the drain shop has entailed upon society. It has killed more men in our country than war. It has destroyed some men of the brightest intelleces. It robs the family of its sacred attractions. and introduces wretchedness, degradations and vice. It largely increases the Steubenville. | 5.45am 10.50am 3.25pm 4.75 burden of taxation. The business of the dram shop becomes lucrative just in proportion to the increase and souls of men are destroyed by it. Now the question is, shall such a business as this be continued under the sanction of law? So far as Beaver county is concerred, this question is to be settled by your vote at the coming election. Some of you are happily removed to some little distance from these haunts of vice; but the law makes you equally responsible, in deciding this question, with those who live in places which are now groaning under this curse. Poor, weak inebriates cannot resist the temptations of the dram shop; but some of them in this county, on their sober days, may be heard imploring you to remove the temptation. The wives and children, who by this traffic have been made homeless, have no voice in the decision of this question; but in your hands the law has placed the responsibility of removing, or of continuing the

The Local Option Law is not all that temperance men desire; nor is it all that they will yet demand. But it is the law. The issue which it presents is one that must be met. The decision will either be in favor of license or against it. We confidently anticipate a victory for the tem perance cause in Beaver county. The bor oughs of this county, which have already voted, have given large majorities against license. But let us make this victory an overwhelming one. The war with the rum traffic will thereby be made shorter Taxation will be less burdensome. Pauperism and crime will be diminished. Many noble youths, and perhaps some of your dear children may thus be saved from falling into a drunkard's grave.
