POLITICAL.

-Dr. T. H. Allison has been recently elected Chairman of the Armstrong county Republican Executive Committee. Dr. Allison was complimented by ar vote: of thanks for like services rendered the party in the years 1871 and 1872.

-Robert Thompson, of Pine township, Armstrong county, is a candidate for Assembly, subject to the decision of the Republicad Primary meetings.

-It has been reliably ascertained that the President does not contemplate appointing either ex-Senators Cole or Nye to the Chinese mission, made vacant by the resignation of Minister Lowe. From the favorable manner in which the President has spoken of ex Representative John A. Bingham, of Ohio, in connection with this mission, it is believed that he will appoint him as Lowe's successor. Mr. Bingham, it is believed, will be acceptable to the representatives of the Pacinc coast interests,

-The Pitesburgh Commercial says: The official returns of the late election, in New liampshire show Governor Straw to have been re elected by a majority of two hundred and eighty two. In addition to a gain of two members of Congress, the Republicans also elected their candidate for Railroad Commissioner. Three Republicans and one Democrat were chosen as members of the State Council, and the Legislature will undoubtedly elect a Republican to represent the Second district, in which there was no choice. The Republicans elected seven State Senators and the Democrats three. In two districts no choice was made, but Republican's will he chosen by the Legislature to fill the vacancies. The House of Representatives will stand: Republicans, 200; Democrats, 148; Liberal Republicans, 4; Republican majority, 48. Another resounding anthem concerning "the glorious vitality of Democracy" is now in order from the proper organs of the party, here and elsewhere.

-The "Liberal Republicans" of New Hampshire polled 639 votes in the late State election, in a total of sixty thousand. This is the party which set out a year ago to revolutionize the country.

-John Gertig was elected Mayor of Ti tusville on Friday by a large majority. There were large majorities polled against the Local Option law.

-The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette tells this: "Oakes Ames said the wittiest thing to Mr. Niblack, of Indiana, that has been said on this subject. After voting for the previous question, Mr. Niblack said, as he passed him, just after voting yes: "So, Ames, you go for the increase?" "Yes," an.
