It is said that the late E. P. Kuhn had his life insured for $5,000, and that Mrs. Kuhn will draw the amount, the policy being in her name. There was a rumor that his life was insured for double that amount, but, we believe, it was not well founded.

At the purchase of a Sewing Machine is of great value for a life-time, care should be taken in selecting one that time and use have proven to be the best. Time tries all things. "Use only the best—the dual test." Opinions of the skillful may be of value, but time is needed to confirm them. While the Singer Sewing Machine Company has given the public the finest fringes of domestic genius, they have guarded it from a multitude of traps. Attachments have been added for all various purposes, but it has kept free from all these complications. Simplicity of parts and adaptation to the widest range of work has been the constant aim. Instead of boasting of a variety of useless stitches and movements, it claims to make but One Kind of Stitch, and that with the fewest Movements Possible. Hence the Machine may run constantly for twenty years, or a life-time, and work just as well as when new.

The weather begins to look promising. The trees are almost covered with foliage, the grass is growing finely, and many fruit trees are in bloom. Nature is beautiful at this season, and all life is full of joy. An eternal spring would be a Paradise, and if the gates were ajar, and admission free, there would be quite a rush for places, we think.

S. & J. Snellenburg, New Brighton, are selling an unusual number of gentlemen's suits at the present time. We have been in Beaver, recently, a number of spring suits, fresh from their establishment. They keep on hand the best of goods, and strive to give entire satisfaction to all their customers. Call and examine their stock, and see how neatly they can dress you up, at a trifling cost.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLICAN PRIMARY MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. Candidates for the various offices shall be nominated by a direct vote of the Republican party by ballot.

Sec. 2. All who claim to be, and are recognized as members of the Republican party, legally entitled to vote at the ensuing October election, and residents of the election district where they propose to vote at the primary election, and minors who are indentured with the party, and who will be full age at the next ensuing election, shall be entitled to vote for candidates for the various offices to be filled at such election.

Sec. 3. Candidates for the respective offices shall announce themselves as such in at least one county paper, for two weeks before the primary election, and thereby pledge themselves to abide the result of the nomination.

Sec. 4. The primary meeting for nominating candidates shall be held at the usual place of holding primary meetings in each district on the last Saturday in May in each year, and shall be opened at 2 o'clock, P. M., except in districts where the population exceeds two thousand, they shall be opened at 10 A. M., and close in the township at 7 o'clock, P. M., and in the boroughs at 8 o'clock, P. M.

Sec. 5. The Republican electors present at the time for opening the election, shall elect diva voce one of said electors as Judge, and two of said electors as Clerks to hold said election and discharge the duties incumbent on such officers, under these regulations: said clerks to keep a correct list of the names of the persons voting.

Sec. 6. The electors of each district shall also at the same time and place, elect by ballot, as aforesaid, one person as a member of the County Committee the ensuing year for every 100 or fraction of 100 Republican votes cast at the last preceding October election.

Sec. 7. After the polls are closed the officers of the election shall correctly count the votes cast for each candidate and for the member or members of the County Committee, and shall duly certify the same, over their signatures, and such certificates, together with the list of voters and tally papers, also certified by the officers, shall be carefully sealed in an envelope addressed to the Chair man of the Republican County Committee, which envelope, together with a certificate for the members elect for their election as members of the County Committee, then be delivered before 8 o'clock, A. M., on the Monday following such election, by the Judge or one of the Clerks aforesaid, to the person who had been elected a member of the County Committee, or either of them, where there are more than one in the same district.

In case the member of the County Committee elect is unable to discharge the duties as such, he may appoint a substitute pro tem.

Sec. 8. The members elect of the County Committee shall assemble at the Court House, in Beaver, on the Monday following said election, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and shall be called to order by the Chairman of the County Committee, or in his absence, by the Secretary, who shall preside as a temporary Chairman for organization, and to whom Committee-men shall deliver their certificates of election as members.

When a roll of members shall have been made, they shall elect one of their number as President and two Secretaries. The returns of the election for candidates shall then be delivered to the President, which he, aided by the Chairman of the County Committee, shall open and announce therefrom, the number of votes returned for each candidate, to be recorded by the Secretaries; which being done, and the votes carefully counted, the persons having received the highest number of votes shall be declared the nominees, and the result shall be ordered to be published in all the party papers of the county.

Sec. 9. Any two or more persons having an equal number of votes for the same office shall be balloted for by the County Committee, and the person receiving the highest number of votes shall be the nominee.

Sec. 10. A majority of the County Committee on being satisfied of fraud in the returns or otherwise, of any election district, may reject the vote of such district to the extent of fraud committed.

Sec. 11. The County Committee shall appoint all Congressional and Legislative conferees, and all delegates to National and State Conventions.

Sec. 12. Immediately after declaring nominees for the ensuing election, the members of the County Committee shall proceed to permanently organize, by electing one of their number as Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer, and the appointment of seven of their number as an Executive Committee, for the ensuing year.

Sec. 13. Any candidate who may wish to contest a nomination, must give notice thereof to the Chairman of the County Committee within fifteen days after the meeting of the County Convention.

Sec. 14. The Chairman of the County Committee shall be the custodian of all the primary election return papers.

At a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee on Wednesday, the following important resolutions were adopted which provides for a change in our system of nominating candidates. The resolutions explain themselves and to their consideration we ask the careful attention of Republicans so that they can act upon the matter intelligently at the primary meetings on the 31st inst.

WHEREAS, The present system of making nominations is believed to be unsatisfactory to a majority of Republican voters of the county, because fraught with manifest injury to the party by concentrating too much power in the larger boroughs enabling candidates, in some instances, to secure a nomination by a small plurality vote of the county electors, and

WHEREAS, It is right and proper that the Republican voters of the county should express by their ballots, their approval of this contemplated change in making nominations before it shall take effect, therefore

Resolved, That we submit to a vote of the party at the primary elections on the 31st, inst., the following amendment, which, if approved, shall take effect in the nominating convention of 1874, viz: "That in case no one candidate shall receive a majority of all the votes cast, then the nomination for said office shall be made by the convention.

Resolved, That the requisite number of tickets be printed and distributed for the amendment and against the amendment respectively, and the tickets balloted be counted, and return made in accordance with the rules of the party governing the nomination of candidates.

Resolved, That the foregoing proceedings be published in the Republican papers of the county.

To the Lady Readers of the Radical.

The fair readers of this journal have likely all their favorite places for supplying themselves with that all interesting and absorbing article of fashionable dress which is considered the most difficult and finishing of a lady's toilet, we mean Millinery, a Hat or a Bonnet. To those ladies in doubt where to find the right place, to get their Millinery done in the most fashionable and reliable style, at the least cost, we would say go to Mrs. J. H. Bence, 31 street, Beaver, she is one of the most favorably known Practical Milliners in our county, and to her numerous friends and patrons, it is not necessary to say this, but to those who are strangers in our midst, they cannot do better than to give Mrs. Bence a trial. Mr. J. H. Bence has just returned from New York City, where he has made such arrangements as will secure us the styles, in Beaver, on the same day as they are out in New York. It is an established fact that at this establishment, Hats, Bonnets, Ribbons, French Flowers, Silk Scarfs, Hosiery, Kid Gloves (Alexandre's best), Corsets, Veil stuffs Hair goods, Men's shirts, and other articles to numerous to mention here, can be bought as cheap as at the lowest price house in Pittsburgh. A word to the wise is sufficient, give her an early call: her new and more commodious place, nearly opposite the well known old stand, Third street, Beaver, Pa. may9-2t

American Sunday-School Union.

An unusually large and intelligent audience crowded the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, May 6th, 1873, to attend the 49th Anniversary of the American Sunday-School Union.

The several speakers ably advocated the importance of the Sunday School work, as having a vital bearing upon the destinies of our country, and the world; alluding to the admirable adaptation of the means employed by the American Sunday-School Union to confer these blessings upon remote and destitute regions, not reached by the Church in its denominational capacity.

These points are further illustrated by the abstract of the Forty-Ninth Annual Report, which shows that 996 new schools have been established at points where none existed before; that in these there are 5384 voluntary laborers employed in teaching; the great truths of the Bible to 39,785 children and youth. In addition to this, 2886 other Sunday Schools have been aided by visits from the missionaries, and grants of books and other requisites—these contain 19,361 teachers, 165,064 scholars; 13,923 families having been religiously visited; 9426 copies of the Sacred Scriptures have been circulated, and grants of library books and periodicals, to the amount of $18,565 24, made.

The Society reports an important work among the Freedmen of the South—its agency being of incalculable value, as the masses of these people find that the only time for religious and other instruction is on the Sabbath. To support themselves and their families consuming every hour of the week day. It is also pushing out its missionaries to the newly settling territories in the Rocky Mountains, the work on the Pacific Coast being already prosecuted with vigor.

A significant feature of the report is the intelligence from its "Foreign Committee," that France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Central America, Mexico, and Brazil, are occupied by Sunday School workers, and that a commencement is made in Japan. The future opens gloriously, and with adequate means for carrying forward the work, there seems literally no limit to the good to be accomplished by the American Sunday-School Union.

Short Stories for Short Folks.

My dear little bright eyes, be they black or blue, brown or grey, the spring has come, and I know how glad you are. I know you have been coaxing your careful, anxious mamma all day to go in your bare feet, to hunt your straw hat for you, your hoop and ball, rattling the marbles in your pockets, shouting around the house and making a noise generally. Now just sit down and wait. If the robins are here, and the violets and the green grass, Miss Spring has not opened the door wide open yet. There must be a good many dark clouds, some rain, and maybe snow, before you can kick those little battered up boots from off those little restless feet. That is a lesson you have yet to learn—to wait. The time seems very long, doesn't it, when you are waiting for your corn to pop, or your taffy to cool, or for Johnny White, who promised to come and play ball with you? But when you did wait, not very patiently perhaps, and not without many looks out at the door, he came, or your corn did pop, or your taffy cooled, all your fussing did not do any good, did it? Speaking of taffy makes me think of a little boy named Harry, who made some one rainy day, and put it on the porch to cool. He was a very patient little fellow, and he thought he would wait just 15 minutes by the clock before he would run out to see it. So he took a fairy book and commenced to read, growing so interested in it he read for a long time. By-and-by, it must have been an hour, he thought of his taffy, and rushed out with his mouth fixed to taste it, and to his dismay and utter bewilderment, found the pan empty and it all gone. But where? Not by fairy hands, he thought, for they do not come in day light. Hearing a snoring, agonizing noise he turned his head, and there was Carlo, his dog, nose, teeth, paws and back just deluged with the sticky, missing taffy, and the more he would jump and howl in his rage to rid himself of the adhesive taffy, the more it would stick in his paws and ears, and his efforts to extricate it from his teeth made Harry laugh until the tears rolled down his cheeks. His laughter brought out the household, and there I leave them all in high amusement at Carlo's funny caper, and in leaving them leave you also, my little bright eyes. Foddy.

We call attention to the new advertisement of Eisner & Phillips, in another column. We visited the sales room of this gentlemanly firm recently, and were surprised at their large and splendid stock of ready made clothing, which they are now offering for sale. One can purchase any kind of a suit of them from the cheap every-day to the most expensive. Their prices are low, and their goods are made to satisfy their customers. If you wish to cut in the greatest and latest style, and get up in the best possible workmanship manner, that will please you as often as you wear it, then go to Eisner and Phillips, corner of 5th Avenue and Wood street, Pittsburgh, and purchase it. Tell them THE RADICAL sent you, and you will get a good bargain.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions were passed by Occidental Lodge No. 720 I. O. of O. F., on Friday evening May the 9th.

Resolved, That while we lament the loss of our genial and enterprising brother, we are comforted by the hope that our loss is his gain, and that though dead, he yet lives.

Resolved, That in the death of our brother, the community in which he lived, the friends with whom he associated, as well as our order to which he was strongly attached, and in which he was highly honored and beloved, have suffered a severe loss which must necessarily be deeply felt.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved widow and children of our brother our heartfelt sympathies, and commend them to the kind Providence, that watches over those in sorrow and binds up the broken hearts.

Resolved, That our lodge, in token of respect to our brother, be draped in mourning, and the members wear the usual badge for the usual number of days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the county papers, and a copy of them be presented to the family of our departed brother.

Decoration Committee.—On the 3th of May, 1872, while delivering an address to the soldiers and citizens assembled in the Court House, preparatory to visiting the cemeteries of this place, and strewing the graves of deceased soldiers with flowers, the late Rev. D. P. Lowry, moved that a committee composed of the following persons, be then and there appointed to take charge of the decoration services on the 30th of May, 1873, viz:

Milton Lawrence, Marmaduke Wilson, Joseph C. Wilson, John Grabing, Sr., and John F. Dravo, on part of citizens.

J. Weyand, Eben Allison, J. H. Cunningham, W. Tallon, James Darragh, on part of soldiers.

We are requested to state that the above committees will meet at the Argus office in Beaver, on Saturday evening, May 17th, 1873, at 7 P. M. to make the necessary arrangements to begin the work assigned them.

General Assembly.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church met yesterday in Baltimore, and is composed of about six hundred commissioners—ministers and elders.

The Assembly met in Baltimore a quarter of a century ago. Since then the two "Branches" have united. The Southern Presbyteries since the War have remained separate. The Assembly represents 166 Presbyteries, 4,700 churches, 4,500 ordained ministers, 500,000 communicants (an increase during the year of about 13,000 souls) and attendants of about 2,000,000. The benevolent contributions of the year are over ten millions of dollars. Its Foreign Missions are on every Continent, its Home Missions are extending in every State and Territory of the Union. It is sustaining schools and colleges for the Freedmen, and has several academies among the Indian tribes.

The friends of Woman's suffrage met in New York on the 6th of May, and among the distinguished speakers present was Mrs. Elizabeth S. Bladen, of Philadelphia, a lady of fine accomplishments, who can not fail to win her way to public favor. She possesses ability of a superior order which has been trained by hard study and considerable experience, until now she is thoroughly prepared to take her place on the rostrum and to cope with the enemies of Woman's cause as well as to encourage its friends. Her addresses exhibit profound study, and frequently overflow with such irresistible and inimitable humor that her audiences are convulsed with laughter. Her manner as a speaker is pleasing, her thought instructive and appropriate, and when ever she lectures she gives the impression of a cultivated, earnest and noble woman engaged in a cause worthy of her noblest efforts. She has just entered upon her work and we should not be surprised if she naturally occupied a very prominent position hereafter in the battle of Woman's rights.

The Rev. Joseph Moffet, pastor of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Darlington, Pa., sailed for Europe upon the new steamship "Victoria," Saturday the 10th of May, in company with his brother, pastor of the Second Reformed Presbyterian Church, City of Brooklyn, N. Y. He goes to visit his relations and to recruit his health; and intends making an extended trip throughout Great Britain, Ireland, and the Continent of Europe. His congregation and session have kindly consented to his absence for a short time. We wish the young gentleman a happy trip and speedy return to Beaver county.

College Notes.—The Lecture this week is to be by the President, Subject, "Atmospheric Pressure," illustrated by experiments with the Air Pump. The exercises of the Society, Friday evening last, was of an unusually interesting character. Friday evening the exercises are by "The Young Folks." Next week commences the ball term. The building is being pushed rapidly forward that the new Hall may be ready for dedication at Commencement. Subject for debate (this Thursday evening), Resolved, "That the works of nature are more attractive to men than those of art."

EDITOR RADICAL.—Please withdraw my name from the list of candidates for Auditor, as it has become uncertain whether I will be in the county next winter to attend to the duties of the office in case I were nominated and elected. J. N. CALHOON.

The great clothing store of Eisner & Phillips, corner of 5th Avenue and Wood streets, Pittsburgh, is one of the largest and finest in the city, and their extensive stock of all kinds of clothing is a sight to see. An Act to increase the pay of jurors in this commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, etc., That from and after the passage of this act the pay of jurors in this commonwealth shall be two dollars a day, with mileage as now allowed by law: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not apply where the pay of jurors is now fixed by law at more than two dollars per day. Approved—the 28th day of February, A. D. 1873. J. F. HARTMAN.

ED. RADICAL.—Thomas Moore, Postmaster, one of our best citizens, was married to Miss Mary Langitt, an estimable young lady of this place on the 6th inst., and having known both of the parties to this happy contract as worthy and useful members of society, we ask the privilege of noticing the event as one of more than usual interest in the columns of the widely read RADICAL. May their united fortunes float smoothly along life's stern and be a source of continued felicity. A SUBSCRIBER.

Medical Blunders.

From the period when surgery applied their silver weapons instead of wounds to the present wide-awake age, the medical profession has often unwittingly taken side with Disease in its conflicts with the human system. Even yet, in spite of the teachings of centuries of experience, some physicians believe in depleting their patients, already seriously exhausted by sickness, with powerful evacuants, emetics, salivants, caustical plasters, or the lancet. But, providentially, public intelligence is ahead of these medical fossils, who belong of right, to the era of the Crusades! That powerful ally of nature in its warfare with the causes of sickness, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has opened the eyes of the masses to the paramount importance of increasing the vital strength of the body when menaced by disease. They understand that when the atmospheric conditions are adverse to health, it is wise to reinforce the system with a wholesome tonic and stimulant, and thus enable it to combat and repel the depressing influence of an inclement temperature. If the constitutional and animal powers were always thus recruited in the presence of danger, the mortality from consumption, bronchitis, chronic rheumatism, &c., would be much less than it is now. The causes which produce croup, colds, quinsy, diphtheria and catarrh seldom affect a strong and active vital system; and of all vitalizing preparations, Hostetter's Bitters has proved the most efficient. It is not claimed that this standard tonic is a specific for lung and throat maladies, as it is for dyspepsia, liver complaint and intermittents, but it is unhesitatingly asserted that it is the best known safeguard against all the atmospheric elements of disease. may2-1m
