A rich vein of marble has been struck in Boyertown, Berks county.

-Pottsville is complaining of the inadequacy of her public school houses. -The salary of the Chief Burgess of Pottstown has remained the same ever since the incorporation of the borough in 1856. It is $0,000.

-The sixteenth annual fair of the Clarion county Agricultural Society, will be held on the society's grounds at Clarion, on September 23, 24, 25, and

-The dwelling house of Amanda K. Huli. of Wharton township, Fayette county, was entirely consumed by fire on Sunday night last. Nothing saved except the bedelothes.

On Monday night last, James W. Walton, of Slipperyrock township, Lawrence county, during a fit of temporary insanity, committed suicide, The deceased was about thirty-five years of age. and leaves a wife and three chi'dren.

-At Everett, Bedford county, until last week, there had been but one fire during twenty years, Off Wednesday another disturbed the even tenor of the way. The foundry lof Fred. Feiton was destroyed, involving the loss of $7.000.

-The gas well near Fairview, Butler county pays the company that owns it about three hun dred dollars per day. Pipes are laid to Fairview Petrolia, Karns City and Argyle, and these towns light their houses and heat their stoves with the

-A newly elected constable, in Lawrence county, arrested a man last week, and on arresting at the jail, left his prisoner standing at the door while he went to find the sheriff. He was much surprised on returning that the chap had coolly walked off. And at last accounts he had not been found.

-A weak-minded inmate of the Northampton county almshouse has fallen heir to several hundred thousands of dollars, by the death of a wealthy uncle. He does not comprehend his changed condition, however, and declines to be removed from the room which he has occupied for over twentyfive years.

-A correspondent at Petersburg has furnished the particulars of the infanticide case which occurred there recently. It would seem from the evidence given before the coroner's jury that Mrs. Wainright is the person guilty of the murder of the infant found. It appears that she had been married by a short time and that the child was not the offspring of her husband, and hence her reas ons for destroying it. ... -

Iron Company, died last. Monday, His relations with the Cambria Iron Company date from May, 1855, when he was the leading member of the firm of Wood, Morrell & Co., and it was during the years intervening between 1855 and 1866 that this company leased from the old Cambria Iron Com pany their works. In the beginning of 1862, after their reorganizing, the Cambria Iron Company took possession of the works, and from that time until his death Mr. Wood has been President of

-A correspondent of the Mondville Republican writing from Venango, says: "A hellish attempt at railroad slaughter was perpetrated here last night. The switch was unlocked and a heavy freight car run down the track to a high embankment, above French Creek, and there left to wreck the night-express, train 2. It so happened that an extra train came along and discovered two cars on the track at the end of the spur, near the depot, and on sending a brazeman down to flag | Theodore Tilton, Editor Independent: "If you train 2, he discovered the other car standing on the the track, and could hear the express coming round the curve, and by sharp running succeeded in stopping the train in time to prevent another "railroad horror."

-On Wednesday morning the Wapwollow powder mills, near Shickshinny village, exploded with a terrific force, setting fire to the dry and chip house, which also exploded. One man named Michael Noes, a workman in the dry nouse, was blown to atoms, and Thomas Fryfagle and George Totten, teamsters, were fatally burndd. Thomas Schultz, a railroad laborer, who was at work a short distance from the mill, was also terribly burned. Three mules were blown to atoms and two others were fatally burned. The wagon to-which they were attached could hardly show a vestige after the explosion. The shock was felt for miles around, and in the immediate vicinity houses were shaken from their foundation. The concern belonged to the Dupont Powder Com-
