

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Warren has the Park fever.
Altoona is infested with mad canines.
Harrisburgh wants a fire alarm telegraph.
There are 5,000 miners in the Lehigh region.
Tidioute enjoys herself by tub races on the river.
Local Option, they say, is driving trade from Warren.
The new railroad shops at Connellsville are under way.
The Venango County Agricultural Society is in a flourishing condition.
A new lodge of Odd Fellows was instituted at York on Friday evening last.
There is no public convenience that Mercer needs more than a good town hall.
Tyroners are proud of their new Salsby, which threw a stream 287 feet on the day of trial.
Major Finch, associate editor of the Titusville Herald, is down with hemorrhage of the brain.
The County Home of Washington county contains 115 paupers—60 males and 55 females.
Altoona has eight building and loan associations, whose aggregate weekly loans amount to $12,000.
Smoking thins the blood and muddles the brain—Mercer Dispatch. An honest confession.
A number of saloon keepers of Altoona have been held to answer for infractions of the Local Option Law.
The Black well, on the Jordan tract, near Turkey City, is pumping and flowing one hundred and forty barrels.
Hon. Simon Cameron has been sojourning in Somerset for several days past. His family are at Bedford Springs.
There are 198 tribes of Red Men in Pennsylvania and 17,798 members. Their receipts last year were $148,046.67.
A Johnstown cow comes up to the mark with twenty quarts of the "lacteal" daily, and Johnstown says "Beat that!"
On Friday, a boy named James Durkin, was killed at Scranton, while attempting to board a coal train while in motion.
A willow tree, seventy-five years old and eleven feet round at the base, is a curiosity shown verdant at Georges, Fayette county.
Mrs. Hipple, the wife of the so-called Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, is still living in Franklin, on Thirteenth street, not far from Hanna's Block.
The editor of the Kittaning Sentinel proclaims himself a self-made man, and the Armstrong Republican says "he is most fearfully and wonderfully made."
The Titusville Courier says that Eli Holman killed a rattlesnake in Tionesta township a few days since, which was four feet in length and twelve inches in diameter.
The Mountain Park Association of Brookville, Pa., will have an exhibition on the 24th and 25th of July, when fast horses can compete for premiums amounting to $1,150.
The territory occupied by coke burners in Westmoreland county is five miles wide and fifteen long. The number of ovens aggregate 3,550.
Recently several persons in Franks town, Blair county, were teasing an intoxicated man named Henry Yon, when the latter struck a man named Kelly on the head, severely injuring him.
Miss Kate Reynolds, daughter of Rev. N. L. Reynolds, of Wellsboro, Tioga county, took the $400 prize offered at Vassar College for the highest standing in study and deportment during the year.
W. G. Turner, of Sharon, carried off the first prize at the shooting tournament at Warren, Pa., recently. He killed his full quota of twenty birds, at twenty-one yards rise and eighty yards boundary.
On Tuesday while several boys were hunting berries in the woods near the Lycoming county poor house, they discovered the lifeless body of a young man hanging to the limb of a tree. From a deep cut in the abdomen it is supposed he was murdered.
A valuable horse, the property of Mr. George Yeager, in Union township, Bedford county, was bitten by a rattlesnake, and died the ninth day after. The snake, which was captured and killed, was the largest one ever seen in the township, and had eighteen rattles.
The alternate pages of the Sunbury Daily Express, for the Fourth, were printed with red and blue ink, which, with the white paper, gave it the appearance of being "red, white and blue." The editor, it seems, was determined to show his patriotism in the strongest possible manner.
Columbia affords a grand field for the perambulating organ-grinder. They ought all to go there. A generous man in that place, a few days since, stood enraptured before a crank-turner, for a long time, and at frequent intervals bestowed currency upon the poor musician until his well filled pocket book was empty, and then gave that too. By all means let the organ grinders go to Columbia. Remember, Columbia, Pa. 'Tis true, there are two Columbias in Pennsylvania, but that doesn't make any difference; go to either of them—only go.

A convention of German teachers of the United States to be held in St. Louis on the 26th inst.
Two sons of Daniel Conover, of New Bedford, N. J., were drowned on the 19th inst., in the surf at Shark river.
At Louisville, on the 19th, James Gannon shot and killed his wife. They had been separated for some years.
John Garloy, a drunken man, fell from a Cincinnati ferry boat into the Ohio river and was drowned one day last week.
Secretary Robeson and Attorney General Williams are the only Cabinet officers now in Washington City.
J. H. Perry's patent leather manufactory, at Newark, N. J., was burned Sunday night. Loss $50,000, no insurance.
Professor Mac, charged with a murderous assault on Dr. Winslow, at Boston, on Saturday, has been held in default of $20,000 bail.
The liabilities of R. A. Deforest & Son, who failed Monday in Cleveland, are reported to be about $400,000. Assets are not yet known.
The crop reports from Arkansas, Mississippi and North Alabama continue favorable, though the greater portion of Mississippi is suffering for rain.
In Milwaukee, on Saturday evening last, a young Bohemian named Wanlex Falk, about thirty years of age, while laboring under a fit of insanity shot and killed himself.
Joseph Walshe, a native of New York, a cultivator of the Morgan & Texas Railroad, was shot and instantly killed at Terre Bonne station, last week, by a man named Ivory.
Walter Howe, a quarrel with whom last week led Ella Batchelder to commit suicide by drowning, at Cumberland Mills, in Portland, Me., shot himself on Sunday afternoon. He died in a few hours.
A fatal accident occurred in the Mason street excavator, San Francisco, Monday. A rock weighing over a ton fell from the bank, crushing Andrew Dummings to a shapeless mass and fatally injuring John Gallagher.
Mayor Alvord received a letter Tuesday from Philadelphia stating that the Mayor of that city, members of Council and heads of departments, to the number of thirty-five, will leave for San Francisco July 26.
On Monday afternoon a passenger train on the Bristol Railroad ran into a herd of cattle near Bristol, Rhode Island, and the engine and one car was thrown from the track. The engineer, Rufus Shipper, was killed. No passengers were injured.

Robert S. Fowler, Superintendent of the Telegraph on the Iowa division of the Illinois Central Railroad, and of the Dubuque and Southwestern lines, died at his residence, in Dubuque, Iowa, at 10 o'clock Monday night, of hemorrhage of the stomach. He was a native of New York, and had been a telegrapher for eighteen years.
In the contested land case between the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad and the Kansas and Pacific Road, Judge Canfield, of the Davis county Court, decided that the lands in this contest belong to the M. K. & T. Co. This case involved the title to nearly one hundred thousand acres of the best lands in Kansas, and worth at least eight hundred thousand dollars.
At Fort Dodge, Iowa, on Saturday, a county convention was held to select delegates to the State Anti-Monopoly Convention to be held at Des Moines on August 13th. About three hundred farmers were present. A resolution was adopted denouncing monopolies of all kinds and politicians and official corruption; demand a revision and reduction of the tariff, and declare that both political parties have failed to satisfy the honest sense of the people, and have forfeited their title to the respect and confidence of the citizens, and that they turn their backs upon both without fear and without remorse.
The confession of Wrestling Joe, who was supposed to be heir to the Caruthers estate, is published in Portland, Oregon. Many witnesses have sworn that he is Joe Thomas, or Wrestling Joe, and many others that he is Jas. W. Davidson, 31 years of age. In the confession he claims that his name is John C. Nixon, and that he is only 60 years of age; that he never was in Oregon until certain parties picked him up in St. Louis, and offered him $8,000 to personate Wrestling Joe. It seems that only $600 was received by him and the balance not being forthcoming he confessed. Mrs. Nixon is in Portland, and testifies to the truth of the statement of Nixon. James Moore and Green C. Davidson, who brought Wrestling Joe, or Nixon, to Oregon, have been tried for forgery and acquitted.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.
Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, also Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance. Price in a sealed envelope only six cents. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps.
