

Picnic.—There was a picnic of the M. E. Church of Georgetown on Thursday of last week, on the grounds prepared for the Camp Meeting in the valley of Mill Creek, between Hookstown and Georgetown. The children had a fine time and lots of fun, and the only thing to mar the day was a shower in the afternoon that cut short the sport.

A large black dog belonging, we understand, to Dr. Sanders, was caught on the cow-catcher of the Accommodation train on Tuesday evening as it was coming in to Beaver. Understanding his danger, seemingly, he succeeded in clinging to his position until turning round, and gathering up he made a jump that landed him beyond the engine.

On Saturday the State commenced the payment of the interest on the State debt at the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank, Philadelphia, the financial agency of the Commonwealth. The payment includes the interest on the registered and coupon 5 per cents, and all the several series of 6 per cent. bonds of 1867.

J. R. Reed & Co., 68 5th Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa. have on hand a splendid assortment of American, Swiss, and English watches. Their stock of jewelry, diamonds, silver, and silver plated ware is very large and fine, and cannot be excelled in the city. It will pay any one just to call and examine their great variety of fancy goods in elegant designs and of superior workmanship. This firm repairs watches in the best manner and promptly. If any of our readers wish to purchase any jewelry we advise them to go to J. R. Reed & Co. and tell them that he or she saw their advertisement in THE BEAVER RADICAL and was induced thereby to call, and our word for it you will get a good bargain. Try it.

The Washington Reporter says of the Republican Assembly nominations for Beaver, Washington and Butler: "While we should have been glad to see two candidates conceded to Washington county, we cheerfully acquiesce in the action of the Conference, and feel safe in promising, on behalf of the Republicans of the county, a hearty support to all the gentlemen named."

The Pennsylvania State Teacher's Association will hold its 20th annual session in the Opera House in Pittsburgh, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 12th, 13th and 14th of August 1873. The published programme of the exercises includes a good variety, and promises a rich treat to the friends of education.

The Butler Citizen says: The house of Mr. Henry Dickey, in the northwest part of town, was struck by lightning during the frequent storms of Monday last, the fluid entering near a chimney, passing down and through the house, doing some injury thereto but to none of the persons within.
