

Burglary.—Thursday evening of last week about midnight, two burglars entered Thomas M. McCreery's house in Beaver, by prying off the shutters of one of the back windows and going in through the window. Mr. McCreery's large watch dog, which was in the house at the time, neither barked nor disputed the entrance, but slept while the thieves were at their work. Having made an entrance, they unlocked the front and back doors, as is supposed, and then proceeded to pack up in baskets several articles of solid and plated silver ware, together with a ham and two loaves of bread. There were two baskets which were placed in the hall near the foot of the stairs. The articles were brought and carried to the baskets by one while the other with pistol in hand guarded the stairs. The inmates of the house slept up stairs, and Mr. J. M. McCreery being restless, happened to awake, either accidentally or by hearing some noise just at the time when the burglars probably were almost ready to depart. He first thought that there was something wrong about the lamp which was left burning as usual in the hall, but on getting up and going to the door discovered nothing and went back to bed. In a short time he again noticed that the light which shone under his door varied, and he then supposed that one of his guests had gone down stairs and to satisfy himself went to their bed-room door to see and found it locked. His apprehensions were then fully aroused, and he noticed that there was somebody down stairs that had no business there. Getting the revolver, he again went into the hall up stairs, and leaning over the railing of the stairs, discovered the two men in the hall at the baskets, but in leaning over he made some noise which attracted the attention of the men, one of whom immediately shot, the ball clipping a curl from the head of Mr. McCreery. Mr. McCreery returned the fire, the thieves fled, one of them dropping the lamp, which for a moment did not explode. Mr. McCreery followed and several shots were exchanged in the darkness, but no one was injured, the thieves making their escape, one by the front door, the other by the back. The pistol reports, however, were heard by the neighbors and a number of them came running in to see what was the matter. The silver ware was packed in baskets, besides a ham and some bread, and if the robbers had had a few minutes more would probably have got away with them. Some of the articles which had been collected during the robbery a bold undertaking, for being tracked, they might have been easily traced and by that means the burglars detected. What means have been taken to discover the burglars we do not know, but it is to be hoped that they will be arrested and punished to the full extent of the law. Burglaries are becoming common and vigorous measures are needed to protect the community against them.

A destructive fire occurred in New Brighton on Monday evening about 9 o'clock. It broke out in the stable in the rear of the Knox House. By super human efforts of the citizens the fire was checked in the direction of Boyles' buildings and the Nestunuck, by saving Mrs. Keck's house which is just across the alley from the barn. The house was on fire several times and was saved almost by a miracle. North of the stable was the stable store of A. Fisher, which was consumed, and from which fire was communicated to the frame store rooms of George Henderson, A. Cubbison & Son, R. P. Robinson and Mr. McNair. In an other section the fire swept down the Knox House, the stores of J. N. Euwer & Sons, A. Gilliland & Dunn, and McGown, brick buildings. On the opposite of all street, of Town Hall was several barns on fire, and it was feared that the fire nest of wooden buildings in that direction would have to go, but they were saved in a damaged condition. The property destroyed was mostly covered by insurance and in a year or so probably the district will be restored with finer buildings than covered it before.

As the purchase of a Sewing Machine is of may be an act for a life-time, care should be taken in selecting one that time and use have proven to be the best. Time tries all things. "Use only furnishes the final test." Opinions of the skillful may be of value, but time is needed to confirm them. While the Singer Sewing Machine Company has given the public the finest fruits of inventive genius, they have guarded it from a multitude of traps. Attachments have been added for various purposes, but it has kept free from all useless complications. Simplicity of parts, and adaptation to the widest range of work has been the constant aim. The absence of needless stitches and movements, it claims to make but one kind of stitch, and that with the Fewest Movements Possible. Hence the Machine may run constantly for twenty years, or a life-time, and work just as well as when new. H. STRAW & Co., No. 10 Sixth Street, Pittsburgh, Pa. apri13-5m

The Washington Review and Examiner says: Dr. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, has made a deed to the congregation of the old First Presbyterian church of that place, giving them, free of expense, that property, and a paid up insurance policy on the same for five years; and also $250 towards supplying the church with a minister. The congregation has extended a unanimous call to Rev. Thomas Vincent Milligan, of Waynesburg, to become their pastor. —On Tuesday of last week, the Pigeon Creek congregation celebrated the ninety-eighth anniversary of the first sermon preached at that place by Rev. John McMillan, and the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of a Sabbath school. Addresses were made by Rev. Geo. P. Hays, D. D., Rev. S. M. Henderson, Rev. J. Barr, Rev. D. Littell, Rev. John Kerr, Rev. B. M. Kerr. The occasion was a very pleasant one. —Alexander McCarrel Patch, of Houshtonville, who received the appointment to the West Point Military Academy, left for that place a few days since. —The McClelland brothers, of North Strabane township, this county, have sold 8,000 pounds of wool, being the product of their flock the present season. —The Morgantown, W. Va., fair will be held on the 1st, 2d and 3d days of October. The best trotting premium is $250. —The camp meeting in progress at Bentleyville is one of the most successful ever held upon that ground. On Sabbath last not less than five thousand persons were in attendance and much religious interest felt. —The Washington Advance of September 4th: The Cumberland Presbyterian church building in this place was sold on last Saturday, for $4,500. —The grocery of A. T. Baird of this place, was robbed on last Friday afternoon of about $3.50 during his temporary absence. —Matthew White, of Cecil township, had a valuable cow killed by lightning during the storm on last Monday week. —During the heavy storm on last Monday week, Abel Cary, of Ruff's Creek, had a rick of oats struck by lightning and burned to the ground. —Rev. E. K. Squires, of Pittsburgh, delivered the Baccalaureate Sermon before the graduating class of Waynesburg College, on last Sabbath evening. —Dr. Thomas H. Weirich, has located in Wellburg, W. Va., where he is meeting with great success in his chosen profession. —A wild cat has been disturbing the peace of some of the denizens on Bates' Fork or Ten Mile creek in Greene county. —The largest boat ever built on the Monongahela river is being constructed at Bealeverton. It is 265 feet long, 50 feet wide and 8 feet in hold. —Wm. Hornish, Esq., purchased the late residence of Prof. Wilson, adjoining this borough for $1,900 a few days ago. —The residence of W. J. Cool, of Florence, was destroyed by fire on the morning of the 24th inst. The fire originated accidentally. The greater portion of the contents of the house was saved. No insurance. —Misses Fanny E. Dougan and Jennie C. Rogers, of this place, left for Uniontown a few days ago to teach in the Orphans' School at that place. —The residence of Mrs. Black, in Canonsburg, caught fire a few days ago, but by the prompt arrival of the "water brigade" the fire was extinguished before much damage was done. —We learn that A. B. McCoy, of Canonsburg, has sold his house and lot in that place for $3,660 to Wm. Martin, of North Strabane township. —John B. Jamison, proprietor of the Jamison farm, on which a portion of the town of Petrolia is situated, committed suicide August 29th. The unfortunate man seems to have been insane and imagined that he was becoming poor. —Geo. W. Kneiss, late Register and Recorder of Butler county, died on Saturday the 30th of August. He had acquired the reputation of being an honest, modest and upright citizen, and his loss will be felt by a large circle of friends. —The State Fair.—One of the notable events of the year, is to take place at Erie, on the 30th of September. At the most propitious season of our usually bright autumn, the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will hold its Annual Exhibition. The display gives faithful promise that it will be one of the very best ever held under the auspices of the Society. The entries are free to all the world, and the Society has wisely determined that the books of entries shall close a week before the opening, that complete arrangements may be made of the entries offered for sale. The time is at that period in which, clear, good weather may almost be counted a certainty. The premiums upon many articles have been considerably increased, and the list much enlarged. The arrangements for meetings each evening of the Fair are a new and excellent feature. In these meetings farmers may learn from one another, to the benefit of the great economical interests which the Society is so anxious to foster. A very large display of improved farm stock will be on exhibition—of fine horses and samples of all the best breeds of horned cattle—while the turn out in such a hive of industry as Erie, of manufactured articles useful as machinery, or as aids to the farmer, is certain to be worthy of attention. So many assurances in these respects have been given, that we feel confident in stating, that the display in these departments will be entirely satisfactory. The officers are now at Erie, the books of entries open, and applications for space in person or by letter will receive prompt attention from them.

Mr. Joseph Hall's pony ran off on Thursday of last week while being driven by Mr. Hall, by the Diamond near the National. Mr. Hall, in endeavoring to jump out of the wagon, was whirled about and fell heavily, breaking one of the bones of his right arm and badly spraining the left wrist. The pony did some swift running, but little damage otherwise save the above injury. Drs. Lawrence reduced the fractured arm, and the patient is improving. They ordered one of a Mr. Button, which was expected in New Castle some five weeks ago, and had it arrived on time might have saved the property lost by the late fire. It is aggravating, but we have kept reminding them about that engine and the delay is not our fault. Since writing the above we understand that the engine has not only arrived, but has been out on trial. Long may it sport! Even when strength and appetite fail, when the eyes are heavy and listless, the complexion pallid, the nerves tremulous, the body attenuated, and the mind depressed, there is generally a reserve of latent power behind such palpebral evidences of weakness. Various modes of treatment are resorted to by physicians in the hope of developing and restoring available this store of sleeping vitality, but the surest, and indeed the only thoroughly safe and reliable means of awakening the dormant energies of the system is a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Electricity, shower baths, the flesh brush, sea bathing, &c., may be well enough in their way, as auxiliaries, but they do not reach the source of the evil. A physical debility proceeds either from a derangement of the functions of the assimilating, secretive and vital organs, or from a sluggish constitution. In either case, and also in cases where both causes exist, the Bitters will invariably produce an immediate and salutary change in the condition of the patient, and eventually effect a complete cure. None of the dangerous alkalis, too often administered as tonics, can be otherwise than deleterious under such circumstances, and to give mercury is positively criminal. The direct effect of the great vegetable specific will be manifested in an improved appetite, a more cheerful frame of mind, a gradual return of strength, an increase of flesh, and a healthier complexion. Meanwhile, however, the constitution, if inert and feeble, will have been roused and renovated by the subtle elements of invigoration contained in the Bitters. MARRIED.
