PROPOSALS FOR PRINTING

The Religious Museum;

TO BE EDITED BY

THE REV. ROBERT F. N. SMITH,
OF NORTHUMBERLAND, PA.

THE design of the paper is to subserve the interests of the Redeemer's Kingdom, by increasing religious knowledge, with a special view to the promotion of vital piety. The Editor will seek to make his paper entertaining, whilst he makes it useful, by presenting Biographical sketches of eminently pious persons, particularly, of able, faithful, and successful ministers of the gospel; striking incidents in the history of the procedure of providence with churches, states and individuals; accounts respecting the state of religion in different parts of the world, and more especially concerning revivals of religion in Christian countries, and the progress made in converting the Heathen;—notices of such acts and proceedings of different ecclesiastical judicatories, as may be of a public beneficial character;—the resolution of cases of conscience seriously & seasonably proposed; explications of difficult passages of scripture, original or borrowed; notices of events which go to trace the march of religious sentiment and feeling in the world, such as the organization, and successful operation of Bible Societies, Bible Classes, translations of the Bible into different languages, Sabbath School associations—associations for prayer, moral societies, associations for suppressing vice, and immorality;—and benevolent institutions having for their object the relief of human misery, the development and proper regulation of the powers of man, considered, under the aspect of a moral agent, in so far as such institution may be supposed to exert an auspicious influence upon the cause of religion.

The principles to be maintained shall be purely evangelical: the principles of the Reformation.

The Editor will receive, and in the exercise of a sound discretion, will insert very short discussions on religious subjects, if conducted in a friendly spirit with candor and ingenuity, furnished by members of any religious denomination worthy of bearing the honorable name of Christian.

CONDITIONS.

THE RELIGIOUS MUSEUM shall be printed weekly on a single sheet, on good paper and with a good type; at two dollars per annum, payable at the time of subscribing, and afterwards, annually in advance.

A title page and index will be furnished once in every year. Persons who shall not pay according to the terms stated, will be considered as withdrawing their patronage.

Subscriptions will be received at the office of the Bellefonte Patriot.

With a few acres cleared thereon, near said town. The whole will be sold on reasonable terms. For terms apply to the subscriber, residing on the premises.

John Murphy.

Newbury, May 18, 1818. t.f.

To the Electors of Centre & Clearfield counties.

Fellow-citizens,

BEING encouraged by a number of my friends, I am induced to offer myself at the ensuing election, a candidate for the office of Sheriff. Should you think me worthy of your votes, it shall be gratefully acknowledged, by

Your Humble Servant,

Stephen Davis.

Ferguson township, }
April 18, 1818. }

To the Free and Independent Electors of Centre and Clearfield counties

The subscriber respectfully offers himself a candidate for the Sheriff's office, at the ensuing general election in October next.

Respecting the good sense, and confidence in the integrity of his fellow citizens, he deems a personal solicitation of their votes unnecessary, and will, therefore, he believes, dispense with the customary practice of riding through the counties, for that purpose, as a useless undertaking. Should he, however, be honored with a majority of their suffrages, he will feel grateful for the preference, and will endeavor to justify it by a faithful and upright discharge of his duty.

Very respectfully

the public's humble servant,

John Hall jr.

To the qualified Electors of Centre and Clearfield counties.

Fellow-Citizens,

I take the liberty of offering myself to your consideration as a candidate for the office of Sheriff at the next General Election. Should you think me worthy of your support, unbiassed by prejudice or interested motives, I will discharge the duties of the office with precision and impartiality

Your humble servant,

William Keatley.

To the Electors of Centre & Clearfield Counties.

Fellow-Citizens,

ENCOURAGED by a number of my friends, I offer myself a candidate for the Sheriff's office, at the next General Election. Should I be so fortunate as to obtain your confidence, you may rest assured that I will not betray it by neglect of duty.

Your humble servant,

Joseph Butler.

Bellefonte, May 6.

To the qualified Electors of Centre and Clearfield counties.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

As the constitutional term of the present Sheriff will expire next fall, I beg leave to offer myself a candidate for your suffrages for that office, at the ensuing General Election. I shall not trouble you with the vain promises of affection or favor, in discharging the duties of that office; as you all know, that the same laws which govern you, will command me, if elected.

Having given this early intimation of my intentions, permit me to mention, that I do not mean to travel over the counties to solicit the votes of the citizens, individually, except some other candidate, who may hereafter set up, shall pursue this course; in which case, I will consider myself at liberty to be governed by circumstances.

Carding Machines.

RANKIN & STEEL,

INFORM their friends and the public, that their

MACHINES

are now in complete operation, for carding wool into rolls, at the old stand in Bellefonte. The price for carding will be eight cents per pound. Those who live at a distance may, by waiting a short time, take their wool home in rolls. The wool ought to be well washed, and picked clean of sticks and all hard substances. One pound of grease to ten pounds wool.

Rankin & Steel

Tender their sincere thanks to all those who have heretofore favored them with their custom, and hope by strict attention to business to merit a share of public patronage.

May 30, 1818.

N. B. The carding must be paid for before the rolls are taken away, either in cash or country produce.
