

on lot, through mud and mire, from his own home to Bellefonte, and tender his services to hang the convict. It is possible that the Sheriff refused his services from corrupt motives. The man certainly had his claims, and it is possible they may be found to be as solid as the Philadelphia youth's, who stood candidate for a vendue crier and was defeated by "corruption." The proposed candidate for hangman has certainly his merits as a writer; of which the doggerel poem published in the Carlisle Herald, is proof in point. It is a performance perfectly suitable to the channel through which it passed, and every way worthy of its author and publisher.

All these important circumstances call loudly for an enquiry, and as we have as good a right to it as those who obtained it, we insist on having it. We will also, no doubt be gainers by it; for probably a goodly number of us may be called upon to go to Harrisburg as witnesses, and paid by the state, as undoubtedly the Philadelphia gentleman have been. We can produce 3000 good witnesses—This might bring a considerable sum of par money from the state treasury to circulate in this county, a thing very much wanted at this time.

MULTI VIRI.

It appears by a law regulating the post office establishment, that the postage on newspapers must be paid in advance—that is, one quarter in advance.

The U. S. sloop of war Hornet, captain Read, sailed from Boston for Cadiz having on board Mr. Forsyth, minister to the court of Spain, and suit.

A Lisbon Gazette received by the Atlanta, contains an important Spanish royal order, made at the recommendation of the supreme council of war, relative to the treatment of foreigners engaged in assisting the insurgents of South America, dated at Madrid, 14th January—by which it is declared, that "All foreign adventurers who shall be apprehended with arms in their hands in his majesty's Ultra-Marine dominions, under the flag of the said insurgents or furnishing them with munitions of war, shall suffer capital punishment; and that such persons shall not be comprehended on the pardons which his majesty has conceded or shall hereafter concede in favor of his natural subjects."

We learn, from the Charleston Southern Patriot, that previous to the sailing of the ship, Carlyle, capt. Gilman, who arrived here in 6 days from Ha a a, that accounts were received there from Vera Cruz, stating that the Patriots had Lima completely in their possession.

A letter from Boston mentions that on Monday night a gentleman jumped out of the third story of a boarding house in his sleep, and broke a leg, &c.

A letter from the bay of Honduras, dated October, 1813, says—Mitchell, a character whom you may remember to have heard of as a pirate, is off the coast and committing havoc, with the little trade here. He has a boat which rows 24 oars and about 40 feet long, and has captured several vessels."

The President departed from Washington city, in the steam boat, for Norfolk, with an intention to proceed by Posquotank, the Albemarle and Pamlico Sound to Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah, having in view, in reference to public defence, a careful inspection of all the inlets from the ocean.

The Secretary of War set out with the President, and will accompany him until he leaves the coast for the interior.

The President of the United States and the Secretary of War are to come down in the steam boat Roanoke on their way to the southward; so that, barring accidents, they will be certainly here to-morrow, or the next day after; and during their stay, the corner stone of our new Custom House, which is to be an elegant building, will be (rationally) laid. The U. S. frigate Congress, com. Henley, will drop down in all this week, probably Wednesday, preparatory to her sailing for S. America. Our minister plenipotentiary for Rio Janeiro, Mr. Graham, &c. are expected in the steam boat Roanoke, on her return from Washington, to go out in the Congress.

Norfolk paper.

From Lisbon—Capt. Rose, in 35 days passage from that port, informs that many crews of Portuguese vessels, captured by privateers bearing Art gas' flag, had lately arrived there. They uniformly reported, that the privateers were wholly manned by citizens of the United States, and the crews acknowledged that they were owned in and fitted out of ports of the U. States. This had a most unfavorable impression on our national character in Portugal.

DIED—Near this Borough, Edward Quigley, an aged patriot of the Revolution.
