TOBACCO.

Tobacco's but an Indian weed,
Grows green at morn' cut down at eve;
It shows our decay—we are but clay.
Think on this when you smoke Tobacco.

The pipe that is so lilly white,
In whom so many take delight;
Is broken with a touch—man's life is such
Think on this when you smoke Tobacco.

The pipe that is so foul within,
Shows how man's soul is stain'd with sin;
It does require—to be purged with fire;
Think on this when you smoke Tobacco.

The ashes that are left behind,
Do serve to put us all in mind,
That unto dust return we must;
Think on this when you smoke Tobacco.

The smoke that does so high ascend,
Shows that man's life must have an end;
The vapour's gone—man's life is done;
Think on this when you smoke Tobacco.

DESIRE.

When wert thou born, Desire?
In pomp and pride of May.
By whom, sweet boy, wert thou begot?
By good conceit, men say.

Tell me who was thy nurse?
Fresh youth in sugar'd joy.
What wast thy meat and daily food?
Sore sighs and great annoy.

What hadst thou then to drink?
Unfeigned lover's tears.
What cradle where you rocked in?
In hope, devoid of fears.

What brought you then asleep?
Sweet speech, that lik'd men best.
And where is now your dwelling place?
In gentle hearts I rest.

Doth company displease?
It doth in many a one.
Where would Desire then choose to be?
He likes to muse alone.

What feedeth most your sight?
To gaze on favour still.
Who find you most to be your foe?
Disdain of my good will.

Will ever age or death
Bring you unto decay?
No, no; Desire both lives and dies,
Ten thousand times a day.
