

"To speak his thoughts, is every freeman's right.

SATURDAY, MARCH 25.

In Congress-A bill has been reported by the Committee to whom was referred so much of the President's Message, as relates to foreign affairs, authorizing the President of the United States to take possession of, and occupy, the territories of East and West Florida, and the appendages and appurtenances thereof; and authorizing him, for that purpose, to employ any part of the army and navy of the United States, and the militia of any state, which he may deem necessary.

The bill was twice read, and referred to a committee of the whole on the state of the Union.

A resolution has passed both houses of the legislature, fixing the time of the ad journment on Tuesday the 28th instant.

The judiciary bill, contemplating the addition of two judges to the supreme court, and the establishment of circuit courts, was before the senate on Tuesday last : when a motion was made to post pone the bill and to recommend it to the early attention of the next legislature, and carried by one vote.

The London Times of the 4th of January, contains a letter from Madrid of the 20th of December, which state, that Gen. VIVES is preparing to set out for the U. nited States, in quality of Minister Pleni-potentiary. He takes with him a numerous suite, and is accompanied by officers of ing nominations were maderank.

Official notices - The following officers of the United States' Navy are at present on a visit to the seat of government-COMMODORES Murray, Macdonough, and Cassin.

CAPTAINS Jones, B'ddle, Spence, Chaun cev and Elton.

Lieutenant Commandant John Porter, a present commands the U.S. Navy Yard at Portsmouth, N. H.

We understand that on the 18th ult lieutenants Concklin & Wells of the navy, and Capt. Kelogg, of the marines resigned their commissions in the United States service

At a Naval Court Martial lately conven-

LONDON GAZETTE DXTRAORDI- day the 6th of March .-NARY.

Whitehall, January 30th 1820.

The following letter was received this morning from his royal highness the Duke of York, by lord Sidmouth, one of his maj-

carlisle Convention

the

Carr.

Centre, Wm. H. Patterson

Schuylkill, Frederick Hesser. Lebanon, David Fisher, Henry Koppenhaver, Dauphin, Thomas Wenrich, Jacob Shoema-

Gumberland, John M'Carter, Abraham Fulwier, Samuel Redett. Miffin, Robert M'Clelland, Andrew Banks. Westmoreland, Alexander Culbertson, Eli Coulter, Humphrey Fullerton.

Franklin, John Shryock, John M'Lean, Sam. uel Dickey,

Information was then laid before the Convenleagues of those members from counties represented) to attend, as well as those of other coun-

It was then resolved, That this convention

Joseph Hiester,	John Steel, Collec
Andrew Gregg,	for of Philadelphi
N. B. Boileau,	Walter Franklin
John Spayd,	James Brady,
Isaac Wayne,	Jared Ingersol.
Dr. Geo. Logan,	Wm. Tilghman,
Beni'n. R: Morgan.

A motion was then made and carried that the

By the arrival last evening of the packet Courier, from Liverpool, we have received London papers to the 30th of January, con-taining the following letters, announcing the death of the king of England, George the third, and his fourth son, the Duke of Kent. LONDON GAZETTE DXTRAORDI-LONDON GAZETTE DXTRAORDI-

Monday March 6th, 1820. The Convention re-assembled when the following preamble and resolutions were reported by the committee appointed, and were adopted by the unanimous voice of the Convention.

The Governments of the States of America esty's principal secretaries of state. Windsor Castle, Jan. 29. MY LORD—It becomes my paintul du-ty to acquaint your lordship, that it has pleased Almighty God to take unto him-self, the king, my beloved father, and our self, the king, my beloved father, and our these States, and which must forever continue une of the executive of the United States, or of hold has been divided into nine compari-most gracious sovereign. He expired at to protect their posterity if each existing generation shall be as virtuous and as vigilant as their resolved. This state. ancestors. Decay indeed seems to be inciden-tal to all human works, and it must be confess-ed that short as the durations of our institutions fitness, honesty and conscious of the conditioned into hime compari-baye been subject to be guided solely in their choice by the baye been subject to be durations of our institutions fitness, honesty and conscious of the conditioned into hime compari-tal conditioned into hime compari-public offices we recommend to our fellow citi-zens to be guided solely in their choice by the Baye been subject to be durations of our institutions fitness, honesty and conscious of the conditioned into hime compari-tal conditioned into hime compari-public offices we recommend to our fellow citi-zens to be guided solely in their choice by the Baye been subject to be as the durations of our institutions fitness, honesty and conscious of the conditioned into hime compari-tal conditioned into hime compari-public offices we recommend to our fellow citi-probability that the vessel would not fill thirty five minutes past eight o'clock, tion shall be as virtuous and as vigilant as their To the Right Hon. Viscount Sidmouth. At three o'clock on Sunday morning, the following letter was received by the Lord Mayor: Whitehall, Jan. 30th 1820. MY LORD—It is my painful duty to in-form your lordship of the demise of his laying aside party spirit, that bane of public munication between these chambers and good and poison of social happiness when car- the locations of the engines, which are so include the bound the found the ied beyond the bounds of free enquiry. that instead of substituting unmeaning terms of reproach for reason and argument, we keep up neglect on the part of the people masions It is now nearly four years since that portion of the freemen of Pennsylvania denominated In Resolved, That the candidate for the guber- Mississippi. natorial chair of Pennsylvania ought to lependent republicans first erected the standard man not only of private worth and public integ-rity, but one who will be a rallying point for honof political reform ; aware of the abuses of power by those who were elected to the higher grades of office and trust, they resolved to resist those est men of all parties desirous of promoting the public good, rather than foment party dissen-tions : and one who will discountenance all meaof office and trust, they resolved to buses and that selfishness of individuals which ecessarily proceeded therefrom. ures calculated to aggrandize the few at the ex. When the first meeting was held in Carlisle pense and degredation of the many. hose who attended it raised their warning vol-es against the mischiefs of legulative interfer-ence in the nominations of Presidents and Gov-Resolved, That in the opinion of this Conven-tion Joseph Hiester, it elected will be such a chief magistrate as would advance the best inmore, they were then answered only by calum-y and aspersion ; but the people were not inerests of the state, establish by his example and influence and the wise and prudent measure of lifferent or so ignorant as was imagined ; unde is administration, " a new order of things" fonn-Il those difficulties, our predecessors of 1816 made a deep impression upon the public mind. ded on the strong basis of economy and the public good, and rescue the character of republican Pennsylvania, from that degraded situation, to which its party animosities and spirit of pros-cription have reduced it in the eyes and estimao powerful indeed was their appeal to the peo le, that in the succeeding year, the very per-ons who had so lately defended legislative nomnations adopted a line of conduct different from tion of our enlightened sister states. the past : and at length such has been the glo-rious effect of truth and perseverence that a leghe past: and at length such has been the glo-ious effect of truth and perserverence that a leg-pointed ot twenty five persons and that the state slative nomination of candidates is now publicly be divided into five districts, when the following stant, after a few scouted by those who in 1816 reprobated any other course. SIDMOUTH. Not accomplish a more important change than W. J. Duane, Wm. Milnor, and John Harrison.

CARLISLE CONVENTION. Marked A 1920. The delegates free several counties of the friends of reforms for the origination of the respects of the virtuous and distinterested services. The path of the respect of the origination of the respect of the virtuous and distinterested for the virtuous and distinterested for the virtuous and distinterested. Marked Lie Counties days at the Counties he called and the counties of the virtuous and distinterested for the virtuous and distinterested. No provocation ought to produce an implicit of the the excercise of the virtuous and distinterested. No provocation ought to produce an implicit of the the excercise of the virtuous and distinterested for the virtuous and virtuous and distinterested for the vi inutes of the Convention where appeared from the frailty of our nature, and a reform of pointe- juntes brady and jacob D. Mathot, Westmore-ie al abuses can only be lasting which is produced land. City of Philadelphia, John M. Taylor. County of Philadelphia, Charles Pierce, Robert been the leading doctrines of the minority of the named be authorized to supply any vacan-iarr. sentiments which will guide their successors.

Centre, Wm. H. Patterson. Berks, Conrad Feger, Peter Aurand, George Boyer, John Berkenbine. Lancaster, John Whitesides, Joseph Lefever, John Ramsey, Geo. P. Fryer, George L. May-er. of his measures ? Has he pursued the cours which was then so loudly promised? Or have not the accusations then preferred against him been amply established even by those who may be said to have been of his household? What objection made to him then has lost its force upon experience? What motive that then exappen experience? What motive that then ex-isted to array a manly opposition does not now demand a more resolute resistance? If indeed there is a necessity for an amelioration of our social as well as political concerns; if it is desir-table that an early termination should be put to the early termination and the papers of the state. The business of the convention being closed, the early termination should be put to tion of the inability of a number of delegates (col.) the prevailing distresses and embarrassments; it a magnanimous policy is essential to the inter-nal prosperity of Pennsylvania those desirable sented to attend, as were a sented to attend, as were a sented to attend as were a sented to a s results can only be accomplished by a change in > affected particism no longer hides the deformity ranklin adv. affected particism no longer hides the deformity of imposture...the freemen of this Common-wealth seek statesmen and not factionists and the civil and military. The mer-chants of Cadiz, gave a grand banquet to the civil and military authorities, to celewealth seek statesmen and not factionists and the term and initiary automaty, to cele-the virtuous and the wise cannot but anticipate from a reform of the political administration a change that must restore Pennsylvania to her ed to 24,000. The French papers state, once high and glorious reputation amongst the that the king of Spain has demanded from dismissed the service for unofficer like con-duct namely, Dr. Dawley, Midshipman Baker, and Salling Master Kemper. Nat. Reg. Netw YORK, March 11. Death of the King of England, and his son the Duke of Kent. By the arrival last evening of the packet ties of the state be requested to appoint a com-mittee of correspondence for each county, to co-operate with the committee above named.

Resolved, That John M. Taylor, Jos. Lefever Abraham Fulwiler, Humphrey Fullerion, An-drew Banks, John M<sup>4</sup>Lean and David Fisher be appointed a committee to prepare an address o the people of Pennsylvania in behalf of this convention.

Resolved, That the thanks of the convention be presented to the Commissioners of the county of Cumberland for the use of the Court house, and to the spectators for their orderly deportas it was begun in the utmost harmony, friendship and unanimity adjourned. JOHN SHRYOCK, Chairman.

Eli Coulter, Geo. Louis Mayer. } Secretaries.

men who will aim to establish their renown by via France. The troops had taken posses-It was then resolved, That this convention proceed to the nomination of a Candidate to be recommended to the people of Pennsylvania for the office of Governor. Whereupon the follow-ing nominations were made— Loseph Hiester. Lohn Steel, Collect-A motion was then made and carried that the opinions of the gentlemen present be fully and fairly expressed as respected the sentiments of their constituents in relation to the different candidates now before the convention. After and bolic is avowed by the friends of reform were taken into view, as well as the claims of the highly respectable characters in nomination, it appeared that Ceneral Joseph Hiester, of Berks County on taking the sense of the meeting received twenty eight rotes; and Walter Franklin Esq. of Lan-caster County one vote—whereupon JOSEPH HEISTER was recommended to the people of office of Governor at the general election to be office of Covernor at the general election to be office of Covernor at the general election to be office of Covernor at the general election to be of the governed to the people of of the governed to our existence as a republic, theild on the second Timed Times and the to our existence as a republic, theild on the second Times Times and the second the second times and the second times and the to be people of with in general election to be of the governed to the people of the governed to the general election to be vital importance to our existence as a republic, the second times the general election to be vital importance to our existence as a republic, the second times to the the the time to our existence as a republic, the don the second times to the the the time to the the time to the the the to the the time to the the time to the the time to the time to the the time to the the time to the time to the time to the the time to the timportance to our existence as a republic, the time to the ti

Resolved, That this Convention highly disap- lately launched at Pottsdam. Several Resourced, That this Convention highly disalphine the supreme direction in nominating candidates for o flice, and view it as a system of corruption leading to subvert the freedom of choice, and in Europe—the whole length being 200 introduces without the supreme hit of the freedom of choice, and the subvert the freedom of choice, and the subvert the freedom of choice, and the supreme hit of the freedom of choice, and the supreme hit of the supreme hit of the freedom of choice, and the supreme hit of the largest steam-boat in Europe—the whole length being 200 introduces without the supreme hit of the largest of the supreme hit of the largest steam of the supreme hit of the largest steam boat in Europe—the whole length being 200 introduces without the suprementation of the suprementat introduce aristocracy by creating two orders feet. It draws but 21 inches of water --And arranged as to pump any quantity of waspirit of liberality and forbearance in our dis. exist. This improvement appears to be well calculated for the steam boats on the N. Y. G.

FREDERICK. P. M. To the Right Hon. Viscount Sidmouth.

form your lordship of the demise of his late majesty king George III. This melancholy event took place without the least apparent suffering, at Windsor Castle, at thirty-one minutes past eight yesterday afternoon, to the great grief of his present majesty, and of the royal family.

I have to request that your lordship will give directions for the tolling of the great bell at St. Paul's Cathedral I have the bonor to be your lordship's most obedient Lumble servant.

SIDMOUTH.

To the right hon, the lord Mayor, &c. DEATH OF THE DUKE OF KENT LONDON. JAN. 24.

To the lord Mayor of London.

MY LORD-It is with great concern, that I have to acquaint your lordship with the death of his royal highness the Duke of Kent, which melancholy event took place at Sidmouth, on the 23d instant, after a few days illness, to the great grief of all the roy. al family.

NOTICE.

THE Subscribers, commission merchants and dealers in Iron, tender their services to the manfacturers of Bar & Pig Iron, situated on the Juniata and Susquehanna, and make known that they advance CASH on all ensignments of Bir and Pig Iron and country produce in general at their ware house No. 69 Bowleys wharf. David Kizer, & co. N. B. The sizes of Bar iron suitable or the Baltimore market may be obtained by addressing as above. D. K. & Co.

Baltimore, Feb. 15, 1829.