

Pennsylvania Intelligencer.

THE subscriber having purchased from Mr. Peacock the establishment of the "Harrisburg Republican," proposes to continue the publication of a paper from the same office, under the above title in the following manner, and on the following conditions.

MANNER.

The Pennsylvania Intelligencer shall be published twice a week, during the sittings of the Legislature, and once a week the remainder of the year, to be neatly executed on a handsome super-royal sheet. During the sessions, it shall contain a succinct sketch of the proceedings of the Legislature from day to day, and speeches of members occasionally; and, generally, through the whole year, it shall contain a summary of intelligence from every county in the state, and every state in the Union, an intelligent record of the proceedings in congress, when in session; with such selections from foreign papers, as will keep the reader in possession of an interesting chain of the passing events in Europe. The speeches of the President, and of all the several governors, shall be inserted through the year; the gross returns of elections, in every county, and appointment of officers, when attainable. This paper shall be a decided political one, devoted to the best interests of the people, on the republican principles which the editor is known to profess and practice. It shall not descend to little, vulgar, personal squabbles, with its fellow prints; yet the official conduct of public officers, shall be scrutinized with a vigilant eye, and their errors fearlessly exposed, whenever the public good shall require it. Avoiding a servile sycophancy on the one part, and an indiscriminate outrage upon decorum, on the other, it is intended, that this paper, by a strict adherence to the immutable principles of truth and justice, and by a dignity of demeanor, worthy of a paper, published at the seat of government of one of the oldest, and most respectable states in the Union, shall establish a character for itself that even its enemies shall respect. In short, the editor has chosen for a model, that eminent and reputable print, the "National Intelligencer," and he is determined, as far as his abilities will go, to make this paper to the state of Pennsylvania, what that is to the United States—one exception however must be claimed, for the present:—that paper is in favor with the administration of the nation—this will not be so, with respect to the state, until a change takes place.

A price current, price of stocks, and course of exchange, shall be published weekly.

One page a week shall be devoted to miscellaneous literature; in which shall be inserted, original and selected essays, on morals, religion, arts, sciences, agriculture and care of taste, under the head of "The Paracery," being "a joint tenure or inheritance," of all matters, except politics and advertisements. To "The Paracery," we shall endeavor to draw the attention of the Ladies—and hope they will contribute much to its interest, by the dulcet charms of their enchainings labors.

CONDITIONS.

1st. Subscriptions shall be Three Dollars a year, wholly in advance, from distant subscribers; and half yearly in advance from those in the borough of Harrisburg and its vicinity.

2d. For six months, including the session of the Legislature, Two Dollars to be paid at the time of subscribing.

3d. For the session only, One Dollar and Fifty cents, to be paid at subscribing.

4th. Advertisements, of all descriptions, by associations, companies or individuals, One Dollar a square, if not inserted more than three times; if more than three insertions, 25 cents a square for every insertion after the third. Less than three insertions the same as three.

5th. The Pennsylvania Intelligencer shall be commenced about the 1st December; and subscribers to the "Harrisburg Republican," will be considered as engaged to his paper, unless notice to the contrary be given by the 10th of that month.

6th. Letters on business relating to the office, and communications for the paper must be post-paid, or they will not be attended to.

 Subscribers should designate the time they subscribe for—whether for the year, for six months, or for the session only.

Printers who wish to exchange, are respectfully requested to insert this proposal, a few times.

Public Information.

FROM recent discoveries and frequent information received within the last twelve or fifteen years, the Mayor of Philadelphia thinks it his duty to apprise his fellow citizens within the United States, that there has been, for at least that period, a number of foreigners, of good address, but of base and depraved principles, who have visited our country with forged credentials, counterfeit recommendations, and spurious statements of alledged losses. These sons of deception have traversed the country in almost every direction, exhibiting their false documents for the purpose of obtaining money for the ostensible object of redeeming some of their near relatives from Algerine Slavery, others to rebuild churches destroyed by fire or earthquakes, to assist distressed villagers whose all had been swept away by some sad catastrophe, or to remunerate for losses lately sustained by pirates on the ocean. Thousands of dollars have been collected in this way from the charitable and humane, who little suspecting that the whole was a base fabrication, got up, supported by forgery and fraud, and the proceeds solely applied to and divided among a large gang of confederated villains. From a source that can be relied on, they have a rendezvous in this city, from which they issue on their depredatory excursions, and after being absent from three to twelve months and sometimes longer, they return with their spoil.

It is believed by some persons who are acquainted with the system, that from six to eighteen thousand dollars have been carried to Europe by several of the different individuals who have been engaged in these dishonest schemes.

This exhibit is published in order to put the unwary on their guard, and to caution them against placing any confidence in documents that may be handed to them clothed with all the apparent formality of consular certificates, seals and signatures, as well as the names of other highly respectable characters, as it is fully believed, that scarcely in a single instance are they genuine or been honestly obtained.

The undersigned has just been creditably informed, that, within a short time past ten additional recruits to the corps have arrived at this port from Europe, and after being furnished in this city with forged documents, (for, bye the bye, they are all it is believed manufactured here,) they started to the westward in company with twelve or fourteen other men who have been engaged in the above practice for some time past. It is to be hoped that the Magistrates and other Civil Officers, where they make their appearance will apprehend them, and if judicious measures are adopted there is little doubt but they soon will disclose the whole plan.

ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.
Mayors office, Philad. Nov. 25, 1820.

The Printers in the United States would render an essential benefit to the community by giving the above one or more insertions in their respective papers, and by repeating the same for a few times for twelve months, when there is a dearth of news.

CAUTION.

THE Subscriber lost sometime in the month of October 1819, a BOND, dated 31st December 1816, payable by Samuel Fierst, on the 1st day of Oct. 1819, for $25. She cautions all persons from taking an assignment on said Bond, from any person whatever: payment has been stopped.

Ann Kirk.

$75 REWARD.

The Subscriber will give the above reward and all reasonable charges, for apprehending and delivering to Michael Clay, esq. near Ephrata, Lancaster county, a man named aged about 45 years—5 feet ten or 11 inches high, dark hair and eyes. He ran away from his family some time in January last, leaving a wife and nine small children; he is a Cooper and Miller by trade, took with him a large sum of money, and a number of papers belonging to the subscriber. Said Miller was married to my daughter and had nine children: He forged a check on the Reading Bank and received the money for it.

SARAH SPANSLER.

December 2, 1820.

N. B. He was apprehended in Pennsylvania the beginning of October; he paid the persons who apprehended him $30, and told them he was not the man, and got clear.

CAUTION.

THE subscriber cautions all persons in arrears for Rent, and who are bound for it by Bond or Mortgage, or otherwise; for the stone building standing on the top of the hill above the court house, in the Borough of Bellefonte, commonly called Greer's house; not to pay the same to the children of John Greer, deceased: as the subscriber is the legal owner of one moiety, or half part of said house and lot, and is entitled to one half of the rent thereof.
