this line of business, and by keeping the best of workmen, he will be enabled to keep on hand the best and most fashionable work, which he will sell at a reduced price for cash or country produce.

Pennsvalley, March 18th 1822.

Turnpike Road.

Agreeably to a resolution of the Board of Managers of the Centre and Kishacoquillas Turnpike Road Company, proposals will be received for making about twenty two miles of said road at the following places, viz.

At the house of William Thompson in Kishacoquillas valley, on Tuesday the ninth day of April next, for about seven miles, commencing at Abner Reed's, and ending at the foot of the long mountain.

At the house of John Kerr in Pennsvalley, on the Thursday next following, for about four miles, beginning at the foot of said mountain and ending at Potter's mills.

At the house of Evan Miles, in Bellefonte, on the Saturday next following, for about eleven miles, commencing at Potter's mills aforesaid, and ending in Bellefonte.

A Committee of the board of Managers will attend upon the route a week previous to the days of sale, in order to show the ground to persons disposed to contract for making the road.

By order of the Board,
PHILIP BENNER, Pres't
