

uniform federalist, who collected through the court house the subscription of a number of federal gentlemen of the bar. It was traced afterwards into the custody of Roberts Vaux, one of the most distinguished federalists in the state, who was busily employed in the novel avocation of collecting subscriptions for an "orthodox democratic" paper. In a public meeting of the federal young men of the city, his prospectus was read from the chair, and the paper recommended to the patronage of the meeting; and finally among its active friends are those disinterested "People's Advocates," the prothonotary of the district court, the clerk of sessions, and the recorder of deeds. It is strange that experience has not taught federalism that democracy and ignorance are not synonymous terms. The party who profess all the talents will find themselves as completely foiled by the sterling common sense of the democrats in this new mode of political warfare, as they have ever been in the open and many conflicts, which have heretofore taken place between them. It is unnecessary to add, that the violence and scurrility of the new ephemeral paper are such as was to be expected from its origin, its parentage and design.

A REPUBLICAN.

From the Franklin Gazette. Extract of a letter, dated Bucks County, July 17th 1823. You will doubtless see a flaming account of a meeting, called by the federalists, democratic, which was held in Newtown in this county on the 5th instant. The call for said meeting was headed 'republican' and signed by two or three federalists, and one or two apostates from democracy who are in the employ of the clerk of the orphans court. It was emphatically a meeting of the officeholders and their relations, and numbered about 11 or 12 who once belonged to the democratic party. The chairman, Mr. Smith, is a relation to Mr. Backlan, prothonotary, and if it were necessary I could mention several others in attendance who are the connexions of the officeholders either directly or indirectly; but the fact is its complexion and materials are so well understood here and I presume with you also that any further exposition would be unnecessary. Suffice it to say, their object is to make as much noise as possible in order that the people at a distance who are not acquainted with the facts may be deceived into a belief that they are numerous, whereas it is well known to most every body here that all the hubbub proceeds from two or three officeholders in Doylestown, whose impudent interference in the concerns of the county is universally condemned.

Andrew Gregg should be elected governor of democratic Pennsylvania, the democrats who declared war and zealously supported it until its final termination, in elevating such a man, would pass a most severe vote of censure upon their party, headed by Madison and Monroe, and the other statesmen who manfully sustained our country in the war against Great Britain. A war that has demonstrated to the "invincibles" upon sea and land of old England, that Americans will not tamely sit down under the insults and reproaches of the once would be "mistress of the seas." A war that was successful and honorable to our young republic, because as republicans, in contending with an old and established government headed by a king, and aided by a mercenary army: we triumphantly beat his royal majesty from the right of search, and rendered the liberty, property, and lives of Americans safe upon the common high way of nations.

Franklin Gazette.

The Indiana Whig, of July 2, says—"The democratic prospects in relation to the election are, in this county, most flattering, notwithstanding the assumption of false names and forged titles to mislead the people into a belief that Andrew Gregg stands on a sure foundation. Last week being Court week, we had an opportunity of conversing with many of the principal Catholics in this county, and are well assured that that bugaboo, the Catholic question, is but an empty sound—they say they understand its object, and will beware of the net that is set for them. There is little doubt but John Andrew Shulze, the candidate of the people, will receive in this and Jefferson county, a majority of six hundred votes."

The Hiring Journals of the office holder's candidate are mad with the rage of disappointment, because they see they must suffer a signal & terrible defeat next October. One of these creatures is so timid and faint-hearted, that he is absolutely said to have fainted away at the sight of a Shulze man. The colour fled from his cheeks, his lips quivered, and he presented all the appearances of a dying man. If such is the effect produced now on these hirelings, by the mere light of a Shulze man, how rapidly will they melt and vanish away by the second Tuesday of next October. Col. Observer.

From the Buffalo Patriot. MELANCHOLY CASUALTY.

On the afternoon of the 4th instant, while the citizens of Black Rock were firing a salute, two men at the cannon, named DEFOE and SPOONER, were very dangerously wounded, in consequence of an accidental discharge of the piece when they were in the act of loading it. Defoe's arms were so badly injured that he had to suffer amputation in both; the one near the shoulder, and the other near the wrist; Spooner lost an eye, and had his face otherwise shockingly mangled. It is thought they may recover.

From the Franklin Gazette.

We have seen and examined a calculation as to the probable result of the election in October next, which gives Mr. Shulze a majority of between fifteen and twenty thousand. It is founded upon authentic and candid information from all parts of the state. As to some of the counties, we think the estimate rather too favorable to Mr. Gregg: But on the whole, it appears to be moderate, and we confidently expect it to be realized.

GOVERNOR'S ELECTION.

The papers of this state are generally filled with this subject. We think it unnecessary to take up our columns with it, as we know of but little opposition to Mr. Shulze in the county. This county (of Mercer) is the most democratic, in proportion to its population, in the state, and will, no doubt, give the democratic candidate a large majority.

TO SOME OF THE CITIZENS OF STORMSTOWN AND ITS VICINITY.

The subscriber informs some of the citizens of Stormstown and its vicinity that he will take advantage of that protection which the laws of our country affords, unless some of them cease to spread slanderous and unfounded aspersions upon his character and reputation. He owes them his perfect good will and wishes them individually well, and is not conscious of having merited anything else from them. He is, however, jealous of his reputation, and will inevitably protect it by instituting an action of slander against any one who will attempt to violate it hereafter. An attention to this may be useful to some who have busied themselves too much with my character heretofore. If it will afford the smallest satisfaction to any one, I pronounce all that has been said hitherto groundless falsehoods.

The improvement will be designated on the day of sale—a schedule of which is hereunto annexed, to wit: STAHL'S RIPPLES, FRY'S FALLS, ESHELMAN'S SLUCE AND BARR, from the "HOUSE ROCK" to M'CALLS FERRY, along the Lancaster Shore, CULLY'S FALLS and such other improvements as the Commissioners may deem proper.

JABEZ HYDE, Jr. JOHN M'MEENS, SAM'L H. WILSON } Commrs June 24th 1823.

FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale, the following lands, situate in the county of Clearfield: A valuable farm containing 300 acres, on which are erected a good DWELLING HOUSE and a new

LOG BARN, with about fifty acres cleared, seven of which are meadow, and much more can be made with little expense, a thriving APPLE orchard, a number of PEACH and other fruit trees; ALSO,

A handsome FARM, adjoining the above, containing 200 acres. Improvements, a log dwelling house and barn, out houses, and about seventy or eighty acres cleared; sixteen of which are meadow—a bearing APPLE and PEACH orchard, besides a variety of other fruit trees; ALSO, a tract of land adjoining the last mentioned, containing about 200 acres, with small improvements, but elegant land, and easily cleared; ALSO, in that neighborhood, two tracts of unimproved land, containing 2000 acres, the quality of which, comparatively, is the best in that county.

These lands possess advantages, which many in that country are deprived of. They are situated three or four miles from the Susquehanna River; four or five from the mouth of Anderson's creek; and from a mile to a mile and a half from the turnpike, leading from Erie through Bellefonte. The State road from Huntingdon intersects this turnpike, and passes the houses of the improved tracts. Persons wishing to erect water works of any description, will find these lands in every respect well calculated for that purpose; the seats on two of the tracts, one improved, are considered the best in that part of the county, well supplied by nature immediately about them, with valuable sawing timber, such as pine, cherry, oak, &c. which if converted into boards and scantling, and sent down the Susquehanna, would realize to the owner a handsome profit. The land is generally timbered with oak, hickory, &c. The price will be very moderate, for the improved, by paying half in cash, and the remainder in equal payments. The unimproved, by paying part in hand, and the remainder by installments, the subscriber will sell much lower, than any that has heretofore, or that now is, offered in that or any adjacent county; say, from $1, 50 to $2, 00 per acre, according to the payments. For further information, enquire of the subscriber, living in Cambria county, William F. Boone, Bellefonte, or Samuel Johnston, near the premises.

JOSEPH BOONE. Cambria county, June 16. 1823

N. B. There is also a large body of land, some thousand acres, near the above described, most of which is first rate land, and which the subscriber will sell at a moderate rate J. B.
