Subscribers who have their papers carried by the mail, must be liable for the postage.

Letters addressed to the editor must be post paid.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber purchased from Joel Ferree a lot of land, in Lamar township, Centre county, and the said Joel Ferree engaged to build and completely finish a frame House on said lot, in part of the consideration whereof I gave him two promissory notes; one on Henry Stoner for $25 due in May 1818, and the other on John C. Skinner for $65.59 cents, due in September last. As a difficulty has arisen as to the title of Mr. Ferree, and his not fulfilling his contract, I do hereby notify all persons not to take an assignment on these notes, nor pay them to any person but the subscriber.

PROPOSAL

BY P. EDMISTON & S. MARSHALL, jr.

For publishing in the Borough of LEWISTOWN, a weekly newspaper to be called the Lewistown Galaxy, AND FARMERS AND MECHANICS CHRONICLE.

"—Sincerity; Thou first of virtues, let no mortal leave Thy onward path, although the earth should gape, And from the nether world's destruction cry, To take dissimulation's winding way."

IN appearing before the Public as candidates for their patronage and support, in a new political undertaking, we deem it proper that that public should be acquainted with our views and principles so far as they have a relation, to the prominent and general points agitated by the politicians of the times. We are willing to be tested in this way, and we feel an honest confidence that we will not be found wanting.

In making a declaration as to the course to be pursued by us as Editors, we commence by stating that our paper shall not be confined to any political party, but with a view to consult and cherish the wishes and best interests of the people, we shall therefore claim it as a privilege to leave our columns open for all communications, of a political kind, without respect to party, in order that our patrons may have all the information upon which they may predicate a correct opinion.

The "GALAXY & CHRONICLE," will in addition to politics, be devoted to the arts, sciences and general literature.

The Editors intend to establish and sustain the character of their Journal for lofty independence, and just impartiality—Personal invective and libelous matter will be altogether excluded from its columns—but while individual reputation, and the feelings of families remain untouched, vice and folly will claim their share of animadversion, and good morals will be strictly inculcated.

A question of the greatest magnitude is now before the public, which is, who shall be the President of the United States. Upon this subject the Editors feel not the least hesitation in declaring themselves the open and avowed friends of Gen. ANDREW JACKSON for that exalted and highly responsible station. In making this declaration they are conscious that they are discharging their duty as Editors and as freemen, and believing also, that their choice, as here expressed, is in strict accordance with the choice of a large majority of the citizens of Mifflin county, and of the state of Pennsylvania generally—their reasons for thus expressing themselves in favor of Gen. Jackson, they hope to be able to lay before their readers in due time.

Particular attention will be paid to furnishing our readers with the latest intelligence, both foreign and domestic. Intelligible abstracts of the proceedings of Congress and of the state Legislature, while in session, will be given; together with such agricultural intelligence, as will promote the interest of the farmer.

The interests of the Farmer and Mechanic, the "bone and sinew" of the community, will be promoted so far as the Editors conceive it to be their duty, and promise that their communications in the advancement of their rights and privileges, shall meet with prompt attention.

One page under the head of the "MEDLEY" will be exclusively devoted to miscellaneous matter—moral and religious selections—humorous articles—Poetry &c. and no exertions will be spared to furnish in this page, a variety suited to the taste of every reader; but the primary object here, will be to afford instruction and amusement to Ladies—for this purpose original essays are respectfully solicited, and will be thankfully received.
Lewistown February 5, 1824.

CONDITIONS.

The "GALAXY & CHRONICLE" will be published once a week on a super royal sheet, and handsome type, at two dollars a year payable half yearly in advance.

No subscription will be taken for a shorter period than six months, and no paper will be discontinued unless at the option of the Editors, until all arrears are paid.

Advertisements of no more length than breadth, will be conspicuously inserted three times for one dollar, and twenty five cents for every subsequent insertion; those of greater length in proportion.

The first number will appear on or about the first of April next if a sufficient number of subscribers should be obtained.
