

considerable piece of ground intended for cultivation. They catch in the river a variety of fish and plenty of oysters; they have an abundance of fine timber, and the soil is very good; and they all appeared to be quite contented with their situation. They probably enjoy as good health there as they would in any part of the world. Of the late emigrants, one hundred and five, all have gone through their seasoning; three young children only have died, and they with complaints incident to every climate and country.

I have made this detailed report, believing it would be agreeable to you, to the society, and to all those friendly to the settlement, to know exactly how those people are situated as I have been informed at St. Thomas, that there are, at present, very discouraging reports in circulation in the United States."

New kind of Wheat.—A new kind of wheat has lately been brought from Arabia, called the Heshborn wheat. The ears are twice as large as those of the common kinds of wheat, more tapering and bearded. The number of grains in one ear is 84, and the length of the stalk, 3 feet 1 inch.

We understand that orders have been issued, by the Navy Department, to equip the United States ship of the line NORTH CAROLINA for immediate service, and that she will bear the Pendant of Commodore JOHN RODGERS.—Nat. Int.

NEW INVENTION.
We have seen Mr. Linnie's new invention. It is a curious piece of mechanism, comprising a complete fowling piece barrel 33 inches long, calibre 5/8 inches, detonating lock, butt with proper angle, ramrod, &c.; a complete fishing rod about 12 feet long, dog call, looking glass, and snuff box, with pen, in the small compass of an ordinary sized walking stick, weighing 3 1/2 lbs. When used as a fowling piece it contains a flask, with powder and shot sufficient for 12 or 14 charges, and can be used as a walking stick or fishing rod, loaded and primed, with the greatest safety. Its portability is such, that it can be transformed to all its purposes including loading, priming and firing in the short space of three minutes. Mr. Linnie is a native of Kirkwall, in Orkney, and is now on his way to Edinburgh and London, for the purpose of laying his invention before the Societies for the encouragement of Arts.

Inverness Courier

A HANDSOME COMPLIMENT.
Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, dated, April 27, 1824, to his friend in Philadelphia.
"I look at the United States as a mass and at their government as a whole, and then I say there is less opportunity for the exertion of individual cupidity;—less revenue to be plundered; fewer means of plundering;—no privileged orders;—no King;—no Feudal Aristocracy;—no Borough-mongering Parliament;—no established Church;—no Dungeoning for printing the truth;—no Standing army to cut you down at your own doors. In the absence of all these things and a multitude of other enormous evils, say, that if your admirable republic was not existence, Mankind would be in hopeless, irremediable slavery. In-tellect would be extinguished and knowledge and talents proscribed. Your government is the sheet anchor of the human race and it will hold against all storms."

Latest and important from Spain.
We are informed by our attentive correspondent of the Boston Courier, that the ship Coral arrived at that port on Sunday last, from Gibraltar, bringing letters from Cadiz dated the 22d of May. In one of these it was stated as certain that 25,000 troops were to enter Spain immediately, and that several regiments had been ordered from Carthage to Cadiz, where preparations were making to receive them. "The movements (it is added) in Spain, with the recent events in Portugal, lead many to believe that all is not well, and that war is brewing."

The Elephant Balloon.—Yesterday afternoon we witnessed the ascent of the balloon in the form of an Elephant. The scene was entirely new in this county, and attracted an immense concourse of people around the Garden, but the spectators inside, we are sorry to say, were not sufficient to pay the proprietors for their trouble and expense. This will always be the case with exhibitions of this kind, because those outside have as fine a view as those within.

As the ascent was attended with success, we hope the proprietors will have their balloon safely returned. It must have gone a considerable distance to the northward. The wind being light, it remained in sight a long time.—N. Y. Gaz.

SAD DISAPPOINTMENT.
It appears from the Boston Centinel, that some of the New York Editors made a mistake in publishing the numbers drawn from the lottery wheel the other day, by giving the 9th drawn number 46 instead of 40; and the three last combination numbers were entitled to the 10,000 dollar prize. The consequence was that one of the Bostonians had the ticket bearing the numbers 53, 29, 46; and the official list not having been received, he concluded his fortune made, and was quite a rich man for more than an hour; when the unfortunate error was corrected by the official document, and the ticket found to have drawn only 22 dollars instead of 10,000 dollars. It is seldom that so much vexation is occasioned by so simple an error.

Lancaster, (Penn.) July 2.
Early on Tuesday morning last four prisoners made their escape from the Jail in this city. They sawed off the iron bars of the window, until the aperture was sufficient to admit of their escape through it. They then descended to the ground in the Jail yard, by means of ropes made out of their blankets. The wall was then scaled by taking off a door from one of the out-buildings, placing it on the corner, and with the aid of a long pole which they found in the yard, they were enabled to reach the top of the wall, some of them sustained injury, as there were, at the place where it was effected, some traces of blood upon the ground.

Those who escaped were—William Kirk, confined on a suspicion of having passed counterfeit money. For his apprehension the Jailor has offered a reward of 20 dollars—George Williams—Garret Sinister and Jeremiah Williams, (a black man) for each of whom a reward of 5 dollars is offered.

DANGERS OF SLEEP-WALKING.

The following melancholy particulars are stated in a letter, dated Manchester, Vt. June 28th, 1824, from a young lady to her friend in Troy.
"I should be glad did not the time fail me, to give you the particulars of the sudden, and melancholy death of Elvira Ayres, a young lady who lived with Milo L. Bennet, Esq. She retired to rest last Thursday evening well and cheerful; when Mr. Bennet arose on Friday morning he found her missing. He searched the house and not finding her he grew alarmed—he searched the barn, and the well, then raised the lid of the cistern, where he found her and drew her out a lifeless corpse. After some fruitless attempts to restore life, a Jury of inquest was called, which after some difficulty brought in a verdict of accidental death. But even after the verdict every step was involved in mystery, nor was any light thrown upon the subject, until her friends arrived, (who were sent for to attend the funeral, a distance of about 30 miles) when it was learned from her mother that she had been known to get up in her sleep; and when her mother saw her last, being asked she reluctantly told her that she had in two instances, awaked and found herself several rods from the house but had told no one of it, I thought it would be exciting their anxiety, beyond a doubt. She was found dressed, her clothes pinned and shoes tied. She was possessed of an amiable disposition, was a member of the church and beloved by her acquaintance."

PUBLIC INDIGNATION.
David and Robert Shields have been tried at Paris, Kentucky, for the murder of McCormick. Contrary to all expectation they were pronounced NOT GUILTY! The trial occupied nine days. The Maysville Eagle says, "our respect for the great palladium of personal liberty, (the trial by jury) induces us to forbear comment. Such, however, is the strength of feeling in Bourbon, that on Friday night last, the jurors were burned in effigy, and the Rogue's March beat over the grave."—Poulson's Adv.

The Augusta, (Geo.) Chronicle says—"Several detachments of musketous have recently arrived in town and are quartered upon our citizens. They seem to be lively and active, and are so entirely free from party spirit, that they are equally attentive to the friends and opposers of all the Presidential candidates; and any person laying down at night without a pavilion, may be sure of receiving some feeling evidences of their regard, without the trouble of electioneering for their favours."

A CRUEL IMPOSITION.
New York, July 2.—Yesterday a little girl, who, for a living, carries about from door to door, baskets of raspberries for sale, was met in the lower part of the city, by a genteel dressed man, and after enquiring how she sold them, he agreed to take three baskets provided she would leave them at his house, corner of Anthony-street and Broadway. This the girl agreed to do, and my gentleman then drew from his pocket book, a three dollar bill of the Newark State Bank, to pay for them. Not suspecting that any thing was wrong, the poor girl took his bill, gave him two dollars six and sixpence change in silver, (all she possessed,) rolled the bill up, and carefully put it away in her pocket. On going to the house, corner of Anthony-street and Broadway, with the raspberries, she was told that no one living there had purchased any berries of her or any other person. She then, for the first time, began to suspect that all was not right, and having showed the three dollar bill which she had taken of the gentleman, it proved to be a counterfeit. On applying to the Police Office, with tears in her eyes, for advice, she was told unless she could identify the fellow, they could give her no relief. A more cruel piece of villainy could not well be played off, and the wretch who is guilty of it deserves the pillory.—Evening Post.
