

SHERIFFALTY.

To the qualified Electors of Centre County.

I respectfully solicit your votes for the office of

SHERIFF

of Centre county at the approaching Election. I am elected I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my abilities, which is about as much as all my opponents have promised.

Very respectfully,
yours &c.

William Ward.

Bellefonte, April 22, 1824.

To the qualified electors of Centre County.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,
ENCOURAGED by a number of friends, I offer myself a candidate for the Sheriff's Office, at the next General Election. Should I be so fortunate as to obtain your confidence you may rest assured that I will not betray it by neglect of duty.

WM. ALEXANDER.

Bald-Eagle township, April 10, 1824

To the qualified Electors of Centre County.

FELLOW CITIZENS,
I offer myself to your consideration for the office of

SHERIFF

at the ensuing general election; and should I meet with a majority of your suffrages I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity.

Thomas Hastings, jr
Bellefonte, April 10, 1824.

DAVID ALLEN,

Offers himself to the consideration of the qualified electors of Centre county, as a candidate for the

Office of Sheriff,

at the ensuing General Election: and will be thankful for their support for the same;

Bald Eagle township, May 20, 1824.

To the qualified electors of Centre County.

FELLOW-CITIZENS:
Being encouraged by a number of my friends to offer myself as a candidate for the

Office of Sheriff,

I respectfully solicit your votes at the ensuing General Election. Should I be elected to that station, I pledge myself to perform the duties of said office with fidelity and diligence, and at the same time, with humanity and tender ness.

John Letterman.

Spring township, May 15, 1824.

To the qualified Electors of Centre county.

ENCOURAGED by a number of my friends, I, through the medium of the press, beg leave to inform the public that I offer myself as a candidate for the

Office of Sheriff

at the ensuing General Election. Should I be so fortunate as to obtain a majority of your votes, I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity.

Robert Tate.

Miles township, May 22, 1824.

To the qualified Electors of Centre County.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,
As the constitutional term of the present sheriff will expire next fall, I beg leave offer myself a candidate for your suffrages for that office, at the ensuing general election. I shall not trouble you with the vain promises of favour or affection, in discharging the duties of that office; as you all know that the same laws which govern you, will command me, if elected.

Having given this early intimation of my intentions, permit me to mention, that I do not mean to travel over the county to solicit the votes of the citizens individually, except this course be pursued by the other candidates; in which case I will consider myself at liberty to be governed by circumstances.

John Keen.

WILLIAM M'MINN.

AGAIN offers himself to the consideration of the Democratic Republicans of Centre county as a candidate for the

Sheriff's Office

at the ensuing general election: and will be thankful for their support for the same.

Potter township, 27th March 1824.

PUBLIC SALE.

WILL be exposed to sale by public vendue, on the premises, on the first day of October next, a certain tract of LIMESTONE LAND, with the improvements and appurtenances; containing two hundred and forty-two and a half acres, and allowance, situate in Haines township, Centre county. The improvements are a large two story log house, well finished, a large bank barn, and a number of out buildings; and an excellent orchard. About one hundred acres are cleared, and in a high state of cultivation. The great road from Derristown to Bellefonte, Pittsburg, &c. passes through it.

The above sale will be in pursuance of the last will and testament of Abraham Ream deceased, and who died seized of the premises in fee. An indisputable title will be given by the executors.

JACOB KRYDER,
B. WAGGONER,

Executors.

NOTICE.

The Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb in the City of Philadelphia, is prepared to receive, and to teach, clothe and educate, on the State Fund, without any charge, indigent children from any part of the Commonwealth, between the ages of 9 and 18 years—requiring only that some respectable individuals, personally acquainted with the facts, should certify that the children are not deficient in natural capacity—that they are free from contagious and constitutional diseases, and that their parents are unable to pay for their education. The children will be taught reading, writing and arithmetic, and in addition, some trade, by which they will be enabled after leaving the Institution to obtain a livelihood. They are constantly under the eye of the Teachers and Matron, and every attention is paid to their health, their comfort, and to their moral and religious instruction.

Pay Pupils of all ages are received at the rate of $16 per annum, for board and tuition—or at $40 for tuition alone.

Letters addressed to either of the Subscribers will immediately be attended to.

Clock, Watch Making and Silversmith Business's.

ISAAC MEYER

Respectfully informs the citizens of Centre county, that he has commenced the above business's, and intends carrying them on in all their various branches extensively, in the front part of the house now occupied by Silvester W. Hull, as a saddler shop, and adjoining the office of the Bellefonte Patriot. Having had a considerable experience in his business, and by paying strict attention thereto, he expects to receive a proportionable share of public patronage. The highest price will be given by him for old silver.

Borough Ordinance.

A supplement to an ordinance to prevent the wasting of water at the hydrants attached to the Bellefonte water works, and for other purposes, passed the 19th December 1810.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Town Council of the Borough of Bellefonte, in council assembled, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the due promulgation of this ordinance, all and every person, or persons, are hereby prohibited from washing, or rinsing, and clothing whatever, at any hydrant, or hydrants, attached to the Bellefonte water works; or placing, or causing to be placed, thereat any tub, or tubs, or other vessel, containing clothing, or any other article, or articles, whatever, and drawing water from the said hydrant, or hydrants, into the said tub, or tubs, or other vessel, as aforesaid, upon the clothing or other articles aforesaid.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, that every person, or persons, violating the first section of this ordinance, their, or either of their, aiders and abettors, or those in whose employment the person, or persons, so offending shall or may be, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars, to be recovered before the Burgess, or Assistant Burgess, or in their absence or incapacity to act, before one of the Justices of the peace within the said borough, to be recovered on the oath or affirmation of one or more credible witnesses, as other fines and forfeitures are recoverable.

Section 3. And be it further enacted and ordained, that it shall be the duty of the superintendent of the said water works, or the high constable of the said borough, and of each and every of the members of the town council, to carry into effect the provisions of this ordinance, and if the superintendent of the said water works, or the high constable aforesaid, shall neglect this ordinance, after it shall come to the knowledge of them, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars, to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures are recoverable, on the oath or affirmation of one or more credible witnesses.

ENACTED, and passed into an ordinance, at the court house in the borough of Bellefonte, the 14th day of August, A. D. 1824.

JOHN RANKIN,
President of the Town Council.
WM. L. SMITH, Ck.

To Travellers.

AS a report prevails that the house formerly occupied by JACOB TEST in the town of PHILIPSBURG, is no longer to be continued as a Tavern, the subscriber has thought proper thus publicly to inform the friends of this establishment, that such report is unfounded—that the said house will be continued as a house of

Public Entertainment, and STAGE OFFICE, Sign of the

He is now provided with every accommodation the country can afford, which would contribute to the comfort or convenience of his guests, and assures his friends and the public generally, that nothing shall be wanting on his part to deserve a continuance of the patronage which has hitherto been so liberally bestowed.

Philipsburg Hotel, AND BOARDING HOUSE, BY GEORGE S. IRVINE.

THE subscriber having removed from public business in Millintown, hereby informs his friends, and the public in general, that he has taken the above BRICK ESTABLISHMENT, formerly occupied by Mr. Hancock. This establishment has been built in a superior manner for the entertainment of the public, and will be open for the reception of TRAVELLERS, BOARDERS and OTHERS on the 15th instant.—The buildings are extensive, comfortable and convenient, and he pledges himself that no exertions shall be wanting to procure every necessary and even luxury for the table, and choice LIQUORS, so as to give general satisfaction. The STABLES are new and well constructed, attended by a careful and attentive OSTLER.

It is remarked for the information of travellers, that Philipsburg is situated 28 miles West of Bellefonte, Centre county, on the Turnpike road which leads to Franklin, Meadville and Erie, in a district of country, healthy and pleasant, beautifully adorned with hill and dale, and in the spring and summer season, exhibiting a highly picturesque landscape and rural scenery delightful and animating.

The turnpike roads which lead to and from this place are extraordinary well made, and kept in good repair, and the great improvements that have been made at Philipsburg these few years past, together with good accommodations, render it attractive and desirable, as a place of resort in the warm season, to those who are in pursuit of health or pleasure, and no fear is entertained but the judicious and tasteful will be gratified in their visits.

The subscriber will at all times keep a good supply of OATS and HAY—Also Drovers can be accommodated with pasture on moderate terms.

Stages run thro' this place weekly, from Bellefonte to Erie, which afford an easy and comfortable conveyance for those who have a desire to travel this route.

Grateful for the partiality which he has experienced from the public at Millintown, the subscriber pledges his best exertions to merit a continuance of that partiality at Philipsburg.
