BELLEFONTE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, January 13, '69.

NEEDED IMPROVEMENT.—The great progress made in our town the past year is very gratifying to our citizens, and very creditable to their enterprise; but there are some minor matters that need attention, and that would add much to the comfort of our people, and tend greatly to impress strangers sojourning amongst us, with a favorable opinion of our Borough. Small wooden bridges over the gutters are needed at many of our crossings, and are found at but few. These gutters may not greatly inconvenience those who are familiar with our streets, but to strangers they are snares and nuisances. It would cost but a trifle to remedy this evil. The two crossings in front of the Brockert House need to be raised and repaired, and are probably the most used in town. The two Bishop street crossings, at the corners of Allegheny street, are also very bad. The open cellars and cellar at the corner of Bishop and Allegheny streets need to have some guards erected, unless it be thought desirable to have some one tumble in there some dark night, and break a limb or a neck.

We hope, also, that the reform inaugurated on Spring street last summer, narrowing all cellars and door steps to four feet, will be enforced on all our principal streets, as early next spring as practicable.

We come now to the cow nuisance. We have an ordinance which compels our citizens who own hogs, to keep them confined to their sty, or lots, but we submit that in comparison the cows roaming our streets, and littering our pavements with filth, is, by all odds, the greater nuisance of the two. As it is far more profitable to their owners, and far better for the stock to keep them under shelter in winter at least, and as it is necessary for every man, who owns a cow, to have a shelter for her, we submit that there is no shadow of reason for their being allowed to wander about the streets, and annoy the people who drive here with their wagons and sleds, on business, and those who are compelled to foot it about town, frequently by day and night. An Ordinance compelling the owners to keep their cows out of the streets and alleys, except when driven to water or pasture, is one that would be of equal benefit to all concerned, and moreover a kindness to the cows in this severe season.

This is a tolerably long, and yet rather goodnatured growl at our Borough managers, but all this can soon be remedied by a little systematic energy. Let Ordinances be framed, and their prompt execution provided for, by committing the duty of carrying them out to some one of their agents. The Street Commissioner might look after the crossings, and see to the enforcement of the Ordinance requiring the removal of snow, and charge the expense upon them, or defray it by fines imposed for neglect. The High Constable might look after the cows as well as hogs. By providing for grading and paving our streets, where needed, each by special Ordinances, and for repairing of defective pavements, of which there are many, in the same way, after due notice to owners, and charging the Street Commissioners with the execution of such Ordinances, a great many much-needed improvements might be made at a very small expense to the Borough, or its citizens, and without increasing our debt, or adding materially to our taxation.

SAD CASUALTY.—A child of Mrs. Jane Brown who resides on Howard street in this Borough, was suffocated by smoke, on Friday of last week. Mrs. Brown was employed at Rev. Mr. Yeomans, washing, and had left her child in the house with her son, aged about eight years, as was her usual custom. The boy went off to play, and in his absence the house caught fire. When discovered the cradle and clothing was burnt up, and the floor on fire. The fire was extinguished and the house saved, but the child was found dead in a corner of the room, together with his dog and cat all huddled together. He was about fifteen months old. Mrs. Brown is the widow of a soldier, and maintains herself by washing for various families. She has the sympathy of all our citizens in this heavy affliction. The fire company turned out promptly on the alarm, but the supply of water was so low that the hose were useless. The fire was extinguished with water from the neighboring cisterns.

The failure, so frequently, of our water supply, is beginning to attract general attention, and the fact that we are entirely at the mercy of the flames whenever they may happen to break out, is one that ought to stimulate our authorities to find the ways and means of remedying the defect. It is alleged that the trouble is in the pipes feeding the Reservoir, but it is probably rather owing to want of sufficient power to raise the water from the spring. If looks as though an engine would soon become a necessity, as the water power seems to be inadequate to the task of forcing up a sufficient supply. The growth of the town and increased consumption of water has been so rapid that it becomes plainly evident that we must have more water sent up the hill. It is reported that the large reservoir was entirely empty on the day of the fire at Mrs. Brown's house.

The house of Robert McKnight, advertised for sale in last week's issue, has been purchased by James C. Waddle, Esq. The adjoining lot remains unsold, and may be purchased from Mr. McKnight on reasonable terms. This was quick work, and proves that advertising in the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN pays. We say to Mr. McKnight, and all others that we can sell all the lots, or anything else you may have to sell, if you will give us a chance.

CHANGE OF TRAINS.—Geo. C. Wilkins, Esq., Superintendent of Tyrone Division of Penn'a Railroad, is about making some important changes in the running of trains on the Bald Eagle Valley and Tyrone and Clearfield Railroads.

The Tyrone and Lock Haven Mail, A. Haupt, Conductor, will run on the same schedule as at present. The morning train, W. C. Irvin, Conductor, will be run from Tyrone to Clearfield and back, leaving Tyrone at about 9 o'clock, A. M., and return in the evening in time to connect with Cincinnati Express east, and Mail west on Main Line.

A new train will be put on the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, to leave Lock Haven about 10:20, A. M., connecting with P. & E. Mail, west, and pass Bellefonte about 12 o'clock, M., and connect at Tyrone with Emigrant and Accommodation west, and Mail east. Will remain there till 7 o'clock, P. M., when it will return, arrive at Bellefonte at about 9 o'clock, P. M., arrive at Lock Haven in time to connect with mail east on P. & E. Railroad. As soon as the Tyrone and Clearfield road shall be in good order, one other passenger train will be put on, which will enable passengers to go to Philadelphia and Clearfield the same day, but not return till the next day. This arrangement will be better for the local travel, which is an important consideration. Passengers going east or west, however, from Bellefonte, will have to go in night trains on the Main Line.

A CONVENTION of Penn'a Editors and Publishers assembled at Bellefonte, on the 8th day of January, inst. The attendance was meagre. The Convention organized by the election of the following officers: Pres't, H. G. Smith, Lancaster Intelligencer; Sec'y, — Evans, W. J. Keok, West Chester, Pa.; J. S. Cornman, Huntingdon Monitor; Cor'ry, Thad. P. Stevens, Bellefonte National and Industrial Guide.

On motion, Messrs. J. W. Furey, J. G. Kurtz and P. G. Meek were appointed a Committee on business. The Convention adjourned to meet at 7 P. M.—On re-assembling, the Committee on business reported a series of resolutions, providing for a full Convention at Harrisburg, and for the inauguration of measures looking to a complete organization of the printing fraternity. After some discussion by Messrs. W. P. Furey, Meek, Hutchison, Kurtz, Stephens, E. H. Kinslow, Cornman, Munday and others, a circular was agreed upon, and the Corresponding Secretary instructed to forward it to each Editor in the State, and the 2nd day of February, 1869, was fixed as the time for the holding said Convention. It was resolved to petition the Legislature for changes in the laws relative to publication of General Laws.

After a brief secret session, the Convention adjourned to the Gen'l Restaurant where they proceeded to dispose of a variety of good things, including systems, outlets, chops, coffee, tea, colery, etc., all served in elegant style, and with Messrs. Smith, Furey, Stephens, Hutchison, Cornman, Meek, Munday and others, entertained the gentlemen with eloquent and appropriate speeches.

The convention adjourned to meet at Harrisburg, Feb. 2, 1869.

TAMING OF RESPECT.—At a meeting of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, held at their Lodge Room, on Thursday evening, the 7th inst., the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted. WHEREAS, It has pleased an allwise Providence to remove from our midst, by the hand of Death, our respected Brother, Past Grand, O. N. Moore, Resolved, That by the death of Brother Moore, Centre Lodge, No. 152, has been called upon to mourn the loss of a most faithful and earnest worker in promoting its prosperity, and the order generally, an old and time-honored member—the joys of whose life were "closely twined about it," and whose greatest delight was the inculcation of its principles.

Resolved, That we desire to bear testimony to the good character and moral standing of our deceased Brother, especially would we mention his kindness of heart, unfeigning honesty, and universal gentlemanly deportment. Resolved, That we will hold in grateful remembrance the services of Brother Moore, to whose energy and perseverance, we owe our existence, in a measure, as a Lodge, and in a great degree our present prosperity. Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the several newspapers of Bellefonte, and a copy of them be recorded upon the Minutes of this Lodge. (Signed.) GEO. F. HARRIS, H. Y. STITZER, J. S. BARNHART, Com.

Having found fault with various matters in and about our Borough, it is but fair that we should paint another picture. The citizens of Bellefonte have reason to congratulate themselves upon the fact that they have a most efficient and vigilant Police Force. Our town has never been so well governed, and its good order so well maintained, as since the appointment of our present policeman. They deserve great credit for their energy and fidelity and give our citizens far more than value received for their money.

We are fortunate, too, in having secured a Chief Burgess who gives strict attention to the duties imposed upon him, and carefully and impartially, as well as promptly, disposes of all cases brought before him. It would be well for our citizens to insist upon his retaining his position as long as possible, though we are aware that our Burgess, Mr. E. M. Blanchard, is anxious to be relieved from the duties, and we may add, the annoyances of the position.

DENNIS STORER.—Our friend, Frank S. Wilson has a very neat Drug Store, room No. 1, Brockert House. He has everything usually kept in a Drug Store—is doing a splendid business—and we are glad of it. He is a correct and honest business man, and moreover, a clever fellow. Call and see him.

CHARITY AND GOOD SPIRITS.—Somebody says that many a man sits in his own house full of benevolent desires, longing to do good to somebody, anxious to make those around him happy; but he does not know how, and seems to himself a useless and merely speculative being, incapable of doing good. Let that man only put on his hat and visit the garret of some poor family, or assist his poor relatives, and it will do him good in a thousand ways. The money he throws away daily in luxury, would feed and clothe and rejoice a dozen sick and starving families. Such benevolence will do more to promote economy than it will ever cost. It will come back to him who gives, saving him from foolish luxuries. It will show up the hollowness of the follies on which he wastes what might set up many a family. Fifty dollars extra on a piano might not seem much; but there is many a poor and honest widow to whom a fifty dollar sewing machine would be a fortune; and she could in time even repay the cost, to be lent in the same form to another and another. Wretched passengers on the sea of life, at this season, lie on the loam of every wave. Perhaps many and most of the misfortunes of the poor are more or less the result, in some way, of their own faults. But have those who have been more successful had no faults? A kind word and a helping hand may give the turn to the fortune of the child of misfortune, and raise up many such a one higher than could possibly be imagined by those who have never made the effort and never try it.

ADVERTISING.—No money invested pays so well as judicious advertising.—Harace Greeley has said "that the merchant who pays more in rent than he does for advertising does not understand his business," and we think Horace is right. Every Merchant, every Hotel keeper, every grist mill, every woollen factory, every Physician, every business man, and every farmer in Centre county, who has anything to sell, should advertise his business in the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN. It will most assuredly pay five hundred per cent. on the money invested.

The Merchant who advertises, shows thereby, to the men with whom he deals in the cities of Philadelphia and New York, that he is a live man, and understands his business. "No man," is the language of high authority, "lighteth a candle and putteth it under a bushel." A city set upon a hill, is a beautiful figure. Let your light shine, is good advice in business as well as in spiritual matters. Act upon this advice, and realize a handsome profit.

THE RAT NUISANCE.—We clip the following recipe for destroying rats from the Harrisburg Daily Telegraph. It is worth double the price of a year's subscription to any farmer or housekeeper in the country. It will banish every rat. "Catching rats is often difficult, as old rats are proverbially cunning. Laying around poison is dangerous not alone, but also objectionable, for the reason that rats may die at inaccessible spots and contaminate the atmosphere with their well known detestable odor. A better plan has been adopted by one of our correspondents, by which he takes advantage of the cunning habits of the rats. He covers the floor near the rat hole with a thin layer of moist caustic putash; when the rats walk on this it makes their feet sore; these they lick with their tongues; it makes their mouths sore, and the result is they slum this locality, not alone, but appear to tell all the neighboring rats about it, and eventually the house is abandoned by them, notwithstanding the neighborhood may be teeming with rats."

GEN. GRANT was met coming out of his headquarters, stoop shoulders, 1 hands in pockets, looking as indifferent as if you were not oppressed with the care of a nation. A friend saluted him. "Good morning, General." "Good morning." "General, you don't look as if you were President of the United States." "I ain't." But Zimmerman Bro's are determined to sell off their entire stock of goods to make room for the Spring trade, and to gain time to go to Washington on the 4th of March to see the General inaugurated President of the United States.

JAS. H. DOBBS, M. D.—The attention of our readers is invited to the professional card of Dr. Jas. H. Dobbs. He is a good Physician and Surgeon, and needs no encomiums at our hands. While we wish the Doctor success, we nevertheless hope that it will be a long, long time before any of our readers may need his services. But if any of you should, unfortunately, become sick, or break a leg or arm, you will know upon whom to call.

REV. A. YEOMANS, having dissolved his relations with the Presbyterian Congregation, leaves Bellefonte to-day. He has displayed great energy while Pastor here, and bears with him the good wishes of a large majority of our citizens.—Rev. Mr. Roberts, Professor of Jefferson College, Canonsburg, will preach for this Congregation for the present. Services at the Court House, as usual, at 11 A. M., and 7 P. M.

We take this method of thinking Messrs. Paup, Knoll, Yeager, Downing, Parsons, Strong, Delger and Johnson, who so kindly assisted in getting up stairs our new press, a task that was one of peculiar difficulty and involving great labor. We hope our friends may not soon be enticed into another such difficulty.

STERNBERG & BRAUNSTEIN.—If the latter name was spelled a little differently, it would be brandy; but it is otherwise. Little Sternberg is still alive, and as full of talk as ever. He talks to the point, however, and he and his partner in business, manage, in some way, to sell first-class clothing, &c., at reduced prices.

It is said the County Commissioners contemplate a speedy repair and renovation of the Court House,—painting the fence, woodwork, renewing the buildings, in rear, repairing the fresco painting, and especially the clock, dome, &c.—Nothing could more naturally suggest itself to observing gentlemen.

THANKS.—Our thanks to Hon. John H. Stover, M. C., for sending us several important Public Documents. Col. Stover never forgets the printers.

A RUMOR reaches us of an arrest for picking pockets at a party at Howard, Christmas eve. Whose pocket, and who picked it, we are not informed. Howard is looking up.

From the Journal and American.

IN MEMORIAM.—A meeting of the members of the Bar of Huntingdon county was held at the office of William Dorris, Esq., on the 28th of December, 1868. John G. Miles, Esq., was called to the Chair, and John Scott, Esq., was appointed Secretary.

John Williamson, Esq., announced the death of James Steel, Esq., in a few feeling and appropriate remarks, in the course of which he stated the fact that Maj. Steel had been admitted to the Bar upon the 11th day of August, 1818, upon the motion of Robert Allison, Esq., his preceptor, after examination by a committee composed of Elias W. Halo, Thos. Burnside, and John Tod, Esqrs.

Upon motion of Mr. Williamson, R. Milton Spear, J. Sewell Stewart and W. P. Orbison, Esqrs, were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions expressive of the feelings of the meeting. They submitted the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, death has removed from our midst, our brother, James Steel, the oldest member of our Bar, who bow in a humble submission to this dispensation of Providence, and do resolve:

1st, That Major Steel, through a long life, proved himself a worthy and respected member of our profession, a useful and upright citizen, and a Christian gentleman.

2nd, That, having been called to fill several stations of public trust, he was always found faithful and obliging in the discharge of duty, and he has left behind him a name for kind deeds that will not soon be forgotten.

3rd, That in the social walks of life Major Steel was peculiarly gifted, with a most interesting memory, a fluent expression, and a warm heart; he was the light of the social circle.

4th, That as a lawyer, citizen and friend, we mourn his death, and condole with his afflicted family in their bereavement.

5th, That we will attend his funeral in a body and wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

6th, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, and published in the county papers.

J. GEO. MILES, Chairman.

Business Changes.—We notice among the many changes in the Philadelphia Jobbing Houses, that of J. P. Chaffant & Co., auctioneers in Hosiery, Gloves, Notions, White Goods, &c. Changed to Isaac P. Chaffant, alone, who will still continue the same business at the old stand, No. 67 North Third street.

BUSH & YOCUM.—We call the attention of our readers to the professional card of Messrs. Bush & Yocum. These gentlemen have removed their office to the North-east corner of the Diamond, in the Irvin Block.

LOBE, MAY & LOEB.—As will be seen by their advertisement, continue to do a splendid business at their old stand, on Allegheny street. Their goods and prices are hard to beat. The firm is a five one.

CHANGE.—The name of the Banking House of Millikin, Hoover & Co., has been changed on account of the death of Jno. T. Hoover, to that of the Centre County Banking Co. See card.

J. W. RHONE, Dentist, publishes his professional card in the REPUBLICAN this week. Read it. Dr. Rhone is an adept in his profession. Is a good fellow in every respect, and always performs his promises.

MR. JAMES MCGILL found the List of Pew Rates of the Presbyterian Congregation of Bellefonte, on Spring street, yesterday, and left it at this office, where the proper custodian can recover the same.

THE great rain of Monday has swollen the streams heretofore so much as to cause great anxiety amongst our Lumbermen. The succeeding cold and snow we hope may prevent any disastrous flood at this season.

DR. JOHN D. WINGATE, D.D.S.—Dr. Wingate's reputation as a Dentist has been fully established in this county. He is prompt and faithful, and master of his profession. See card.

J. H. TALBERT, of Nittany, this county, licensed Auctioneer, is at all times ready to attend to business in his line, and will be found to be well qualified for his work. All orders promptly attended to.

Grain and Flour Markets.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Flour per barrel, White wheat per bushel, Red wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Buckwheat, Cloverseed, Apples, Peaches, Beans, Butter, Pork, Lard, Eggs, Potatoes, and various other commodities.

Coal by Shortledge & Co. Shamokin No. 1, 80¢ per ton; Shamokin No. 2, 75¢ per ton; Shamokin No. 3, 70¢ per ton; Shamokin No. 4, 65¢ per ton; Shamokin No. 5, 60¢ per ton; Shamokin No. 6, 55¢ per ton; Shamokin No. 7, 50¢ per ton; Shamokin No. 8, 45¢ per ton; Shamokin No. 9, 40¢ per ton; Shamokin No. 10, 35¢ per ton.

Philadelphia Markets. FLOUR.—The Flour markets is exceedingly flat, and the tendency of prices is for a lower range. The home consumers are the only purchasers, and operate in a small way to supply present necessities; sales of 750 barrels, including superfine at $6.50; 750 barrels of red at $1.85; 750 barrels of white at $1.85; winter wheat do at $5.75 to $6.00; and fancy brands at $11 to $13, according to quality. Rye Flour sells at a small profit at $1.40 per barrel. Nothing done in corn meal.

GRAIN.—We have to record a continuation of the dullness which has characterized the Wheat market for several weeks past. The inquiry being limited to the wants of the millers who purchase principally of prime lots, sales of red at $1.85; amber at $2.00; and white at $2.25 to $2.45. Rye is unchanged; sales of Western and Pennsylvania at $1.60 to $1.80. Corn—in new yellow, sales of red at $1.25; and white, 7,500 bush, sold at 85¢ for damp up and 92¢ for dry—a decline of 1¢; 1,000 bush new white was taken at 85¢ to 87¢. The demand for oats was quite limited; sales of 3,000 bush Western at 72 to 75¢. No change to notice in barley or malt.

MEAT.—Prices of Clevelander are strong and the demand good; sales of 200 bush at $8.25 to $8.75. Timothy is neglected. Flaxseed sells on arrival at $2.50 to $2.62. PEAS.—The steady demand at the recent advances. Sales of mess Pork at $23.50 to $30. Mess Beef is held at $23 to $24, with sales of 60 bush at these rates. Bacon and Green Meat are unchanged; sales of plain and fancy-canned hams at 17 to 18¢; pickled do. at 18 to 19¢; smoked shoulders at 13 to 14¢, and salted do. at 12¢. Lard is in active request with sales of 200 bush and tea Western at 19 to 20¢.

Special Notices.

Having taken an interest in the Wholesale Boot and Shoe and Business with WIEBRENER, McWILLIAMS & CO., No. 55, North Third Street. I would respectfully solicit a continuance of your custom.

For the last four years I have been engaged with the house of Graf, Watkins & Co., and have changed my position to benefit my prospects. In doing so I can assure my friends, if they bestow upon me the patronage and encouragement they have heretofore given me, their confidence will not be misplaced.

The House of Wiebrenner, McWilliams & Co., are the successors of the late Edwin A. Hendry, long and favorably known in the Boot and Shoe trade, and with whom I was first associated in this business.
