

Local Department

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, January 27, '69.

The Drug Store of F. P. Green will be removed, April 1st, 1869, from Brookerhoff's row, to the new Hotel of Bush & McLain, over the creek. Jan. 20th.

INFORMATION WANTED.—If Mr. Wm. Coyle, father of Theophilus Coyle, will call at the office of the REPUBLICAN he can obtain information of importance to him.

JOHN MILLER, of Curtin township, was severely cut, accidentally, on Hays Run, on Monday last week, while engaged in peeling logs. The axe of David Wagner, a comrade, flew off the handle and struck him on the knee, cutting it open and making a very severe and painful wound. He is under the care of Dr. Henry, of Howard and, is doing well.

NEW BAKERY.—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of S. J. McDowell's New Bakery and Eating House. Mr. Mc—bakes excellent bread, cakes and pies. He has wheat bread, Rye bread and bread of all kinds and oysters here and fresh cooked in every style. Be sure to call and see him. For further information see advertisement.

CATER.—We were presented last week with a superior article of TOMATO CATSUP, by C. W. Lambert Esq. We say superior article because it surpasses anything of the kind we have ever seen or purchased at any of the stores. It is prepared by Mrs. Leah Lambert at the Sunny Side Garden near Reopburg, Pa. For sale by Mr. C. W. Lambert wholesale or retail. Restaurant keepers and others would do well to make a note of this.

LEATHER.—Our substantial and accommodating friend A. Sussman advertises a large lot of leather for sale. It is good and cheap. Mr. Sussman is a first class business man and an old citizen of Centre county. We bought goods from him twenty-three years ago. Found him right then and have never known him to depart from strict business honesty in his dealings with customers. Give him a call. See advertisement.

MEAT MARKET.—Mr. B. V. Black, who will be seen by our advertising columns, continues to sell, at the old meat market, on Bishop street, fine and tender beef, mutton, pork, veal, &c., &c., as reasonable as can be done in this market. Mr. Black is a gentleman in every sense of the word, attends to business closely, and is kind and obliging to customers. For his benefit, if for no other reason, we hope the meat eaters will increase in our borough.

Geo. F. Harris, M. D.—In our advertising columns will be found, this week, the Professional Card of Dr. G. F. Harris. The Dr., although a young man, is old in the knowledge of his profession, has been exceedingly lucky in his practice, and has, therefore, gained for himself a reputation and a name that men who have grown grey in the Profession, might envy. We wish him success, and hope that he may continue to cure all the pains and aches that flesh is heir to, until the whole "invalid crew" becomes an army of sound, robust, able-bodied and vigorous men and women.

THOUPS FOR CUBA.—We learn from our exchanges that transports containing reinforcements for the Cuban army are ready to sail from Madrid. They will in order to save time and expense, be landed at Santiago instead of Havana. We think the Spanish authorities made one grand blunder in not taking the overland route and halting in Bellefonte a sufficient length of time to buy boots and shoes for the whole army from our industrious and accommodating friend P. McCaffrey. That is a good workman and keeps constantly on hand a very select stock of boots and shoes. Call and see him. See advertisement.

TELEGRAPH.—With pleasure we call the attention of our reader to the Prospective of the Harrisburg Weekly and Daily Telegraph. We agree with Mr. Berger, who asserts that every person should support their own country paper, after that, if they desire a paper published in cities, it is right and proper they should take it. The Daily Telegraph is a most excellent paper, containing all its interest of the proceedings of Congress and the State Legislature. It is a sound Republican paper, and advocates, with energy and ability, the doctrine of Protection to American Industry, and "equal and exact justice to all men." We recommend it to our readers. See Prospectus.

EGGS.—We understand that our highly esteemed friend, Joseph Baker, Esq., of Linden Hall, this county, was in town on Tuesday, having brought with him to market 16 doz. of eggs. The Squire must feed his hens hard, lime and a little oil cake or meat, or they would not lay in winter. How is it Mr. Baker? We wish we knew some way by which we could induce all the Republicans and honest Democrats in Harris tp. to shell out and subscribe for the Republican. If buying wood and coal burnt lime from J. R. & C. T. Alexander, of the Sunny Side, Elms Kilm would have any effect, we would purchase their whole supply before night. We know the subscribers would be good, and we know equally well that the Messrs. Alexander's Lime is a good article and hard to beat.

COWS AND CALVES.—We learn from our exchanges that there was more activity in the New York Market within the last few days in regard to prices of cattle and especially cows and calves. Sales of Springs at $40 to $50, and cows and calves at $20 to $30. This is reliable news. Farmers to Centre think of it. One cow and calf will pay all your taxes twice over.

WEST INDIA ISLANDS.—We are informed that the Secretary Seward has submitted to the U. S. Senate, the correspondence in the negotiations for the purchase, by the United States, of the Danish West India Islands. Secretary Seward, it would seem, has a mania for acquiring territory. He wants the American flag to spread its folds and civilization to benefit the whole world. Seward used to be right, but—well, no matter now, IN WISDOM, of Hardware articles, are always right, and always to be found at the sign of the "Big Anvil." Let Seward buy Territory and IRWIN & WILSON supply the country with Hardware, Stoves, &c., &c. We have no objections.

THE NEW JAIL.—The Watchman boasts of our new Jail, and says it is the best jail in the country and has fewer prisoners, than any jail in the State. We can tell the Watchman the cause. In the first place, our Democratic Commissioners made the tax payers come down with the stamps in the shape of taxes to the tune of about $60,000 to build it. Good for the tax payers we say. They had no business to vote for Democratic Commissioners.

We account for the fact of the small number of prisoners in it in this wise. The people are all becoming intelligent, have concluded to vote the Republican ticket, and to buy their Boots and Shoes from Graham & Son, at the Bellefonte Shoe Store. Put a pair of Graham and Son's boots or shoes upon the feet of every man in Centre county, and then induce him to leave the Democratic party, as at present organized, and we will wager the price of a good pair of Calfs Boots to be made by Graham and Son, that he won't steal and will feel good that he could not steal if he would. It is a sure way to empty the jail and reform society. Try it. The thieves will be all non est.

MUSICAL CONVENTION.—A Musical Convention will be held in the German Reformed Church at Jacksonville, commencing this (Wednesday) evening, to continue Thursday and Friday, and close with a Concert on Saturday night, in the Presbyterian Church. We hope all the friends of the church, of good morals and christianity, will make it their business to attend. The proceeds are to be applied to the church.

Since writing the above, we have learned from the Democratic Watchman, that the Protestant religion is a failure, and must go down to be superseded by Panteism or some otherism that will be more suitable to the character, taste and habits of the present infidel Shamocratic party. If the Watchman is correct, what is the use of our christian friends of the Reformed and other Protestant churches, working to advance the cause of Christianity and civil liberty upon this continent, and throughout the world? Thank God, Protestantism is not a failure, notwithstanding the crazy ravings of infidel and rebel writers. Therefore, let the Convention and the Concert go, and again we urge upon every person who can possibly do so, to attend—May it be a grand success.

TWO PICTURES.—There is so much of the soul of poetry in the following verses, so much that will be interesting to every mothers heart, and yet so much that tells of the hard fare of poor little motherless children everywhere, that we cannot refrain from printing it, with the prayer that all may look after the fatherless, the widow and the orphan, knowing, as we do, that God does "pity and help them."

"A row of bright little faces,
A patter of daisy feet,
And lowing cries of the children,
Mother's warm kisses to meet,
Three little chairs by the wall,
Three little curls tucked in,
Each on its pillow so small,
Ah? who cannot read me this riddle of joy?
They're the own darlings, they're my little boys!"

Three little ten-stained faces,
Little hair, unbrushed feet,
Sprinklingly blowing stealing,
In terror, lest blows they meet.
Have dry bones on the table,
Cold, hard bread by the wall,
Straw, and a scanty, torn blanket,
That will hardly cover them all,
No kisses to light on their little brows,
God pity and help them! They're motherless now."

The Emporium Independent, after copying our article, noticing the death of Jas. A. Patten, killed on the Railroad near Lock Haven, says:

"The above which we clip from the Bellefonte Republican is worthy the attention of the authorities of Clinton county, in which the fatal calamity occurred. That calamity is to him, there is not a shadow of doubt, that the blundering should not go unrebuked, and unpunished. Having made some inquiries concerning this matter, we learn that the unfortunate brakeman met the Mail Train some 47 miles east from his own train, and that there was no siding where trains could pass, between the two trains approaching each other. For what conceivable purpose they had been going forward, in that locality, as one or the other would be compelled to back up to a switch or siding, before they could pass each other. If any calamity ever descended a thorough examination, we claim that this one does. May we soon hear that the authorities of Clinton county do not wink at such wanton carelessness in the destroying of human life."

cial the press and the people alike seem to think that, when they have buried him and left him, there is nothing else that requires either attention or action. So far as he is concerned there is naught that can affect him, but unless an example be made of those, if any, who are guilty of such gross and fatal carelessness, other lives must, in time, be lost in similar ways.

If the Railroad companies do not cause strict inquiries to be made in such cases and either demonstrate that their employees are innocent, or that they have taken measures to punish and prevent such wanton neglect, they will earn and receive, justly, the condemnation of all right-minded men, and get only such patronage as the public necessities compel people to afford them.

Our Western Letter

CHICAGO, Jan. 23, 1869.

DEAR REPUBLICAN: Please don't accuse me of undue familiarity, on short acquaintance, for I like you, and that's why I address you as dear REPUBLICAN. It is a clear case of love at first sight, for I have only seen you once. I like you because you are a new, clean looking sheet. Such white paper, clear type, and so well printed. When I opened you, after having travelled hundreds of miles over mountains and plains, you smelled so fresh. There was just one breath of pure, sweet mountain air confined in your folds, and I caught it. You were nicely sprinkled with clear spring water before you were printed, and as I sat before the fire reading, steam arose from you, and in it I saw that great spring from which that water came, and I fancied I heard the thud of that water wheel, the old wheel, you know, just down beneath the hill. I like you because you have exposed the cause of human freedom: because you are the champion of "equal and exact justice to all men;" because you honor the men who saved the country—the men who fought for the old flag! Stand by your principles, stand by the nation's defenders, and you will not lack friends, for old Centre has regiments of heroes, and they will stand by you.

I wish I were a little boy, would you believe it? I was a little boy once! If I take two hundred copies of you and "see" the papers" to your patrons. I could do it and not go amiss, for I could name most of your patrons in Bellefonte, but guess I won't.

But I can't carry papers now, and must content myself with scribbling a few lines for you. Don't say that my letter is too gossipy, and don't contain anything solid. I ain't a "heavy weight," I know Old Br—ains will do the "heavy business" for you, and he has a well trained and efficient "second." You may put me down among the "light weights" in the newspaper. If I fail to "come to time" in that capacity, kick me outside the ropes.

Have you ever heard of Chicago? Is there a man, woman or child, in Uncle Sam's vast domain who has not heard of Chicago? Western children are born crying Chicago! All women are divorced in Chicago. Western old men slip Chicago with their latest breath! And I have even seen Eastern men—Bellefonters—surprised at Chicago!

On your map Chicago is a little black dot, away down along Lake Michigan's shore. The dot ain't any larger than the one that indicates the location of Bellefonte or Milesburg; but I assure you Chicago is a larger town than Bellefonte, and a trifle more lively than Milesburg, unless you take Milesburg when the canal is open!

Chicago is on Lake Michigan. Many enthusiastic Chicagoans would tell you Lake Michigan is located near Chicago, and endeavor to make you believe that Chicagoans dug the lake and furnished the water to fill it! But let me whisper in your ear, they didn't. Lake Michigan's waves rolled and her breakers foamed and dashed before the first hog was killed, or the first real estate office was opened in Chicago! And her breakers will dash and foam, and her waves will roll on when the last real estate man lies beneath the ground, about which he has lied so much, and the last hog has grunted his last grunt!

Speaking of hogs reminds me that this is hog harvest in this section. When I awake mornings, first thing I see is a lot of hogs—don't think I sleep in a hog pen, for I don't. During the day I see nothing but hogs—hogs—hogs—and at night I dream of hogs. Association has brought me so far that when I get cross my bristles raise and I grunt; but it don't come natural, and I don't think I'm much of a hog after all. I know some men who would be "in their element" here just now, and would bring 121 cents per pound, dressed—undressed they would hardly be in marketable condition.

Chicago is a lively town of some dimensions. Three hundred thousand people live here. Thirty years ago there were not so many. Thirty years hence the population will have increased somewhat, for it is a wonderfully productive town in that line. I am at a loss to know whether children or dogs are most numerous. I have never counted either, but I think it must be "nip and tuck." If any difference, I think "nip" has it. Speaking of children always reminds me of the hundreds of dirty little newsboys and boot-blacks who infest Chicago. They are as numerous as wood-ticks in Virginia, and sharp and saucy as boys can be. At the newsboys home—a charitable institution—the other day one of the matrons sent one of these little imps out to wash his face. Johnny soon returned with the lower part of his face clean and dry, while the upper portion was streaked and worse looking than before. "Why did you not wash your face," said the matron. "I did wash it," said Johnny. "Then why did you wipe it clean all over?" "I did wipe it as high as my shirt tail would reach," was Johnny's answer.

Now, my new friend, I'm getting tired of this talk, and as an item of good news to your readers I will say, I am going to stop. I hope you'll be a good pal. Above all things, get up a spicy local department—the life of a country paper. A little fun makes it all the better, for people are not so old fogy-ish as they used to be, and they like fun—that is, real fun—funny fun.

Good-bye now. Don't fail to come to me every week, you know, for to me you are news from home.

Yours Truly,
EM QUAD.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. THE DAILY & WEEKLY TELEGRAPH. For 1869. Prepare for the Gubernatorial Campaign. The Republicans of Pennsylvania achieved a glorious victory in October and November, by electing their State and National candidates, notwithstanding the immense frauds committed by our political opponents. It now remains with the people to see that the standard bearers of our glorious party are properly sustained in their efforts to establish confidence in the stability of our institutions, renewed activity in all branches of industry, and the restoration of unity and good fellowship throughout the entire common country. That the TELEGRAPH has contributed its full share to the glorious victories recently achieved by our party, even by our own opponents. Look at the result in our own county, where the editor labored night and day during the campaign, through the paper and personal visits to our Republican friends in the county—his unprecedented majority of twenty-one hundred and ten was the result. In our neighboring counties of Perry, Lycoming, Union, Snyder and Northumberland, where upon six thousand copies of the TELEGRAPH were weekly distributed. THE GUBERNATORIAL CONTEST. While personally we desire rest from political turmoil, at least for a while, we cannot close our eyes to the fact, that our vigilant opponents are already preparing for the Gubernatorial contest next year; and we believe that in time of peace we should prepare for war. Let us exert our political friends to make preparations for coming contingencies at once, and CIRCULATE THE NEWSPAPERS among your neighbors. For a true and reliable paper for your county that is preferred to those printed in other counties, you have done this. Let your friends desire a true and reliable Republican journal from abroad, we would recommend to you either the WEEKLY OR DAILY TELEGRAPH. They are published at the seat of our State Government, and will contain full reports of the doings of the NATIONAL and STATE LEGISLATURES. They will sustain our triumphantly elected leaders in the establishment of "PEACE" all over the land with all the power they can command. It of course has its price, but the contributions are made for office; but when once made, the TELEGRAPH has never failed since it has been under our control. Let the candidates presented with the same energy and zeal as though it were their own personal friends were on the ticket. TERMS OF THE DAILY: 1 copy, one year, in advance, $6 00 5 copies, in one package (per copy), 5 00 10 copies, one year, in one package (per copy), 10 00 1 copy during the session of the Legislature, 1 50 10 copies during the session of the Legislature, 10 00 TERMS OF THE WEEKLY: 1 copy, one year, in advance, $1 50 1 25 per copy, in advance, 1 25 10 copies, one year, in advance, 10 00 Clubs of from 20 to 50 will be furnished at lower rates. These terms will hardly pay for the cost of the white paper on which the TELEGRAPH is printed, and the CASH MUST ACCOMPANY THE ORDER. Address: GEO. BERGMAN, Harrisburg, Pa.

THE TOLEDO BLADE. GREAT ENLARGEMENT! GREAT ENLARGEMENT! The proprietors of the TOLEDO BLADE, encouraged by the unparalleled success which has attended their efforts to establish a FIRST CLASS NATIONAL NEWSPAPER, announce that they have just enlarged the BLADE to a Mammoth Sheet, of eight pages, containing fifty-six columns of type. They spare no effort to furnish their readers the best and cheapest paper in the world. THE NASBY LETTERS. The rich, racy, rollicking humor of the Letters of "Rev. Prolongus V. Nasby, P. M.," which in former numbers of the BLADE were so successful, and which have been so successful in their mercenary exposure of the hierarchies of political demagogues of all parties, and, without their profound philosophy and unanswerable arguments, have rendered them the most popular political literature ever published, in this or any other country. The new Letters are written expressly for the BLADE, and will be continued regularly in its columns. Among the new attractions already engaged for 1869 is an original sketch of the brilliant and popular author; Miss OLIVE LOGAN, entitled, "NO WEDDING RING." We shall also shortly commence the publication of A NEW STORY BY NASBY, ENTITLED THE WHITE SLAVE'S STORY! "Complete circles pronounce this one of the best stories that ever appeared in the periodical press of the country. We intend to continue during the year the publication of the BLADE, from the pens of the best writers, and will also have regular contributions on topical general-interest from writers of national reputation." In short, it is constant aim to make the TOLEDO BLADE A PERFECT FAMILY NEWSPAPER. RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION. Single Copies, per year, in advance, $2 00 And at same rate for shorter time. Clubs of Five, in advance, $1 75 each. Clubs of Ten, in advance, $1 50 each. With an extra copy to every person getting up a Club. PAY! PAY! PAY! PAY! PAY! I will be sent free to any address. For a copy, and at the same time give us the address of a dozen or so of your friends to whom we will send copies free and postage paid. TRY THE BLADE A YEAR, and we are sure you will never consent to do without it. MILLER, LOCKE, & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

ADMINISTRATORS NOTICE.—Letters of Administration on the Estate of F.
