JACOB D. MILLER .- From our advertising columns our readers will learn that J. D, Miller, is firmly established in the Book and Stationery business on Allegheny street, next door to the law office of the Messrs. Blanchard. Mr. Miller deserves success, and we are happy to state is being well patronized. The more books, the more intelligence. Call and see him.

ARCADE RESTAURANT .- In another column will be seen the advertisement of G. M. Peck, proprietor of the Arcade Restaurant, Bush's Arcade Building. Mr. Peck is well known to our citizens. suffered all the horrors of the Rebel prisons hells. He should be well patronized. His table is supplied with the choice of the market. Meals at all hours. Prices moderate. Ye weary, bungry, thirsty ones give him a call. See advertizement.

DISTRUCTIVE FIRE IN ALTOONA-LOSS ESTIMATED AT $25,000 .- A destructive fire occured in Altoona on Railroad street, Friday morning. The fire broke out in the rear office of the Vindicator. at 1:45 A. M., and raged until six o'clock before the flames were subdued. The Vindicator building was burned, together with the grocery store of J. Berkowitz. The office and frame dwelling of R. A. O. Kerr was destroyed, and the flames also communicated to the banking house of Mr. Kerr, which was slightly damaged by fire. The total loss is estimated at $25,000:

OUTRAGEOUS TREATMENT OF SOLDIER'S ORPHANS AT THE JACKSONVILLE INSTI-TUTE. -This flourishing Institution, under the kindly and beneficent superintendence of Rev. D. G. Kline has, of late been very roughly treated by that formidable monster, Measles. At last accounts about thirty were down. Under the efficient treatment of Dr. Jacob Rhoads, the malady will soon be expelled from the premises, so scared that its return may be considered doubtful and then the little ones may again attend to their studies, as heretofore. It is not hard to appreciate the situation of the attendants, where so many, at once, are stricken down.

Public Sale .- There will be a public sale of horses, colts, cows, young cattle, breeding sows, shosts, wagons, Kirby Reaper. &c., at the residence of Jacob Kling, in Porter tp., on Saturday, the sixth of March next.

There is money chair, and appointing Mr. Berry, Secand bargains in both these sales.

THE STOLEN MEAT .- It is now, we believe, a settled fact as to who broke open the smoke-house of Daniel Stover, on the Willow Bank farm. Our efficient police force, it appears, were toe sharp for the thief. They have been on the alert ever since the theft was committed, and at last succeeded in obtaining evidence sufficient to warrant the arrest of Alexander Delige. Delige had been in town for some time, looking out for well filled smoke houses, &c. He is a bad colored man-an old jail bird. But judging from the character of the evidence against him, we presume he will now be sent where all "bad niggers go,"to remain for seven, perhaps ten years. As he is, however, entitled to a fair tria! first, we shall say nothing to prejudice his case. Col. Shortlidge and his efficient staff officers deserve great credit for their untiring vigilence at all times, and for their action in this matter. We doubt not but the clothes line thieves will yet be fereted out and cent un.

INCOME FOR 1868.—All persons should call upon the Assistant Assessor, of U. S. Revenue, of their respective districts (with a detailed statement of their income from January 1st to December 31st 1868.) before the first of March next. It will save a great amount of trouble, it attended to promptly. Delinquents are liable to an assessment, with a penalty

Guardians, Trustees, Executors and Administrators, and persons acting in any other fiduciary capacity, are required to make returns of the income belonging to minors or other persons for whom they act.

LIBERTY TOWNSHIP ALWAYS AHEAD .-Mr. Livingston is well known to all the | The Republicans of Liberty township, met in convention in the school house, at Eagleville, on the 29th ult., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various township offices, to be voted for at the ensuing spring election. On motion, Jno. T. Clark, was chosen president ; Jas. Galbreath, vice president. and W. H. Snyder, secretary. After a short address by the president stating the object of the meeting, and a few preliminary remarks by W. F. Courter, Robt Martin and others, the house proceeded to ballot for candidates, which resulted in the nomination of a good ticket.

On motion, the nominations were made unanimous. After which, at the the suggestion of Mr. Courter, a fund was contributed, and placed in his hands to pay expense for printing tickets. The house adjourned in good order

THAT OYSTER SUPPER .- A magnificen colletion, consisting of oysters, ice cream, cakes, &c., was served up at the house of James H. Rankin, Esq., under the auspices of the I. O. of G. T's. The object was to raise money. So far as this went, it was a decided success. May they have many more, and similar successes, Accident.—We are sorry to learn as none are more deserving of patronage. indifference, or partly, rather, "to see ing to do, as the expenses are heavy, and more sacrifice required than some are willing to incur. It is hoped that the benevolent will come to the rescue.

> TOBACCO STORE'-Capt. Fryberger who class tobacco store in the Conrad House, Allegheny street, has opened another extensive establishment in the corner lepot on the first of March. Mr. Walin both stores.

> PENNSYLVANIA R. R .- Arrangements have been made by this enterprising company by which all persons wishing to go west, North-west, South or Southwest, can procure through tickets, via Salt Lake City, Mobile, New Orleans, St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnatti, &c. &c., at the Bellefonts ticket office. This will be a great saving to persons wishing to nove or travel West. We think it would ilso be an advantage both to the travelng community and the Railroad Compary if the managers of the road would reduce the fare. We are satisfied that it would not lessen the dividends of the Railroad Company, because the travel would be increased. Be this as it may, we are thankful for the privilege of pur> chasing through tickets in Bellefante. WE had the pleasure, the other day for the first time, of seating ourselves in the new and elegant cars of the day express train, put on the B. E. V. R. R., on the 1st inst. We were kighly pleased with the general order and geatness of the cars-the manner in which they were kept-the gentlemanly demeanor and obliging disposition of the Conductor, Mr. Stevens, and his entire crew, all of which were conducive to the comfort and cheer of the passengers. The B. E. V. R. R., with its two daily trains each way from Lock Haven to Tyrone, is one of the most elegantly equipped and conducted roads in the State. Those having charge of the trains are gentlemanly and accommodating, looking carefully to the safety and comfort of passengers, which speaks well for its present administration and superintendency. Adjourned to meet on Tuesday evening next, at 7½ o'clock, in same room. All are asked to attend who feel interested in the work. How to Make "Hard Times."-W have noted this recipe going the rounds of newspaperdom, frequently heretofore, but like many other things, it loses nothing by age. On the contrary, it is especially applicable to the present condition of affairs. Paste it in your hat. "A Good way to make Hard Times,' is to refuse to pay all little bills, although you have the money in your pocket !push men to pay you who haven't the money, although you can get along without it -if a man don't meet his obligations just at the time they become due. report that he is about to "burst"-cut down the wages of your bands before it is necessary-keep back all your market until the prices get up to 'starvation rates'-use money in speculations that you should pay your creditors withforget that unnecessary retrenchments increase hard times instead of bettering them-carry a long face and talk long and mournful of evils to come-do those and other acts like them and hard times' will surely come, however little

A Word to Young Mrn .- Young men should understand, says the Harrishurg Telegraph, that their future, under Providence, depends upon themselves; and Provide nce always helps those who help themselves. Success in life depends upon industry and perseverance. The world, it is said owes every man a living and so it does - if he earns it.

Good or bad habits are soon formed and are not likely to be changed. The community soon find out what a young man is, and treat him accordingly. The steady and industrious can always find employment. No man is long without work who really wants it.

The young man who spends his leisure ours in idleness and dissipation cannot expect prosperity or happiness in after life. FASHIONABLE RELIGION .- Fanny Fern makes the following sharp thrust at fashionable religion: Our Catholie brethren have set us, at least, one good example; their churches are not silent as the tomb on week-days. Their worshippers do not do up all their religion on Sunday. It may be only for a few moments they step in through that open church door, on a week-day, to kneel and lay down burdens too heavy else to be borne. I like the custom. I should rather say the reminder, and the opportunity thus afforded them; and I heartily wish that our protestant churches could thus be opened. If rich Christians object to the promiseuous use of their velvet cushions and gilded prayer-books. at least let the aisles and the altar be free to those who need God on the weekday-for the poor, the tried, the tempted -for those who shrink, in their shabby habiliments, from the Sunday exhibition of fine toilettes, and superfine Christianity. Were I a minister, and obliged to preach to paniers and diamonds and satins, on Sunday, I think I should have to ease my heart in some such way as this to make my pastoral life endurable, else my office would seem to me the most hollow of all mockeries. "The rich and the poor meet together, and the Lord is the Maker of them all," should be inscribed out side my church door, had I one. I could not preach to those paniers and their owners. My tongue would be paralized at the sight of those kneeling distortions of womanhood, bearing such resemblance to organ-grinders' monkeys. I am not sure that I should not grow hysterical over it, and laugh and cry at the same breath, instead of preach ing. I can never tell what vent my dising of a few young men was held in the gust would take; but I am sure it must have some escape valve. You may say that such worshippers (Heaven save the

MESSES, EDITORS:-I have had the pleasure of examining every number of the Republican, as it issued forth from the press, and found its way to my sanctum; the doing of which has afforded me no small degree of satisfaction. After the careful perusal of its several numbers, I am prepared to say that I like the Republican, and intend making it my constant companion, and enclose herewith, the amount of one years subscription. It may be well enough to state why I think favorably of the Re-This is one of the best hotels in our ro- publican. The elevated tone of its dicussion, adresson of the reading and thinking community, instead of indulging in the basest of appeals to the basest of men's passions; of which indulgence, too many of our public journals are guilty; thus catering to the depravity, ignorance and prejudice, instead of enlightening and elevating mankind, and thereby perverting, what should be the true object of public journalism. The vigorous manner in which it attacks, and denounces the pernicious doctrines, which, advocated by the democracy, led to rebellion, and which rebellion has virtually settled forever; but to which the blind democracy yet cling, like a drowning man to straws, feeling assured if they let go their present hold or position they sink to rise no more ; causes it to meet with many a hearty welcome. There is no doubt, that if the presen fearless and vigorous course of the Republican be continued in the advocacy of the right; it must meet with unexampled success, and will do much to redeem once again old Centre from its present political thraldom, and the misrule of the Court House 1ing, who manipulate the demosracy of the county, and especially that of Pennsvalley, for their own aggrandizement and the filling of their own coffers, at the people's expense. Prophesying for the Republican a grand success, and that ere long it will occupy an advanced position among its compeers of the State, we heartily extend to it the earnest friendship and support of this portion of the county and will with pleasure, occasionally communicate the state of our health in general, and especially the state of our political health which seems just now to be tolerably

It is said that the first question propounded by Bostonians to visitors to the "hub" is "have you seen the organ ?" On visiting Chicago the first question to the stranger is "bave you seen the tunnel?" This refers to the great tunnel under the river. I heard an Indiana "having eyes, they see not; having ears, Hoosier say that on last Sunday he visthey hear not." They are ossifiedited one of our fashionable churches. When the "sassy passer" came around Hoosier dropped in a dime. The large amount of the contribution attracted the attention of the money getting brother who leaned over and whispered, "your'e a stranger ain't you?" "yes," answered our friend. "Have you been through the tunnel?" Now this tunnel is no small affair; passing as it does under the busiest, dirtiest, most stinking river in the world. The entire length of the tunnel is 1,603 feet. There are two roadways for vehicles and one for footpassengers. There should be one for velocipedes! The contract was awarded on July 19th, 1867, for sum of $328.-500. This amount did not, however cover the cost of building. Only eighteen months from award of contract to completion of tunnel, it being opened January 1st 1869.
