FARM FOR SALE -Bond Valentine of fers his splendid farm, of 195 acres, with in one and a half miles of Bellefonte, for sale. For full particulars, inquire of Mr. Valentine, or at the office of the RE-PUBLICAN.

Town Lors .- John Cole. Esq., advertises forty-two town lots for sale in Coleville near the fair grounds. Here is a fine opportunity for our workingmen and mechanics to procure for themselves a home.

REMOVAL .- On the 1st day of April. Jesse Klinger. Justice of the Peace, re moved his office to the basement room in the Vandyke building, on the North side will not repair them, let the city of the diamond, directly opposite the fathers take the work in hand. Court House. He dispenses justice without fear, favor or affection.

LIVERY STABLE .- Isaac Lose & Son have entered into partnership in the livery business Isaac is one of our oldest, as well as one of our best citizens Lose & Son have determined to keen the hest of stock, and to hire it out at reason ble rates. They should be well patronzed. See advertisement.

JOB WORK .- If you want posters, hillheads, letter heads, paper books, profes sional carde, circulars, plain or fancy printing, call at the office of the Belle fonte REPUBLICAN. We will do your appointed time. Prices as reasonable as at any office in the District.

The would be gentleman who purloin ed three tickets for the B. A. L. S. entertainment, from a show case, in a certain store in this town is known, and if he does not wish his name to appear before the public, will do well to remit the price of the same, by mail, to the Treasurer of the B. A. L. S., before the next i-sue of this paper,

PINE GROVE MALLS ACADEMY & SEMI-MARY -We are pleased to learn that this school, which was formerly under the direction of Prof. Thomas, is to be reopened to-day, by Mr. B. F. Hughes, formerly of Gettysburg. Since this school was closed by Prof. Thomas, the people have felt the need of such an institution in their midst, and now, that it is to be re-opened, we wish to express our hopes of its success.

Boots & Shoes .- Pat McAffrey & Co have just received a large stock of boots and shoes for the Spring and Summer trode. Mr McAffrey is a practical workman, and when be does buy city made of Raukin & Irwin. is hard for city dealers to impose on practical worksien in this respect. Pat is determined not to be undersold. He sells cheap, and guarantees his work .-He is always ready to wait upon customers. Give him a call.

LONEBARGER & HENRY. -By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that Loneberger & Henry have entered into partnership in the tin-ware and stove business. They have removed their store to the room formerly occupied by G. W. Fairer, in Bush's Arcade Building. Both of these gentlemen are so well known in this community, that no encomiums from us are necessary -They are sole agents for the sale of "Our O'd Home," and Good Manners" cookstoves—the most complete cook-stoves. we think, that have ever been offered in this market. Call and examine for your

FROM CENTRAL CITY .- The Central City Righ School closed March 24 Tre examination was a perfect success. The school bas been under the tuition of F. W. Campbell, a worthy and officient teacher. This being the cose of the first graded school of Boggs up , the house was crowded with citizens from different parts of the county, and after listening to the exercises, consisting of declamations, songs and the reading of a paper, Edited by the school, all felt amply compensated for their visit. The school is an honor to the township. The scholars acquited themselves bonorably; in fact, beyond the most sanguino expectations of those present. W. G.

Bunnsides & Thomas .- This firm have now received their Spring stock of boots and shoes, which are warranted, and are front of Loeb. May & Loeb's store to superior to all others, having been made wipe his note on a piece of carpet which to their special order. Leather, fish. groceries, findings, and a thousand otner things. They are prepared to offer a better stock than any other house in the trade. The many friends of this popular establishment know, from past experience, that they are never swindled, and with their instruments, he itepped up their goods are always what the proprietors claim for them. They never misrepresent an article to effect a sale .-We would advise our readers to go to this well known establishment to make their purchases, if they want to save money' and get good articles.

Masks.-If we could only read each other's hearts, we should be kinder to each other. If we knew the woes and bitterness and physical annoyances of our neighbors, we should make allowances for them which we do not now .-We go about marked, uttering stereotyped scutiments, hiding our heart pangs and headaches as carefully as we can: and yet the wonder that others do not discover them by intuition; we do not so conceal our resentments and our dislikes. of which we are prone to be proud. Often two people sit close together, with "I love you" in either heart, and neither knows it. Each thinks "I could be fond; him for gold pieces, telling him greenbut what use of wasting fondness one backs were "played out." We commend who does not care for it?" And so they him to the mercy of the Editors of the part, and go their ways alone. Life is a manager of the Editors of the part, and go their ways alone. Life is a manager of the Editors of the manager of the Editors of the part, and hope they may manager of the Editors of the part, and go their ways alone. to their degreest. And though there is succeed in getting him to subscribe for need of much masking, would to Heaven their spicy and well-filled paper. We we dired to how plainly our real faces have no further use for him in this counfrom bir h to death, for then some few, at ty; and we are really glad he is gone, for least, would truly love each other. This he almost invariably votes the Democratic ticket .. is old, but true.

Hogs.-What has become of the hog-1w? No grunter should be permitted to run at large

Nor Yer .- We notice that no effort has er been made to repair the fence around the Court House. What do the Court House officers mean?

CLEAN UP -We hope our Street.Commissioner will lose no time in cleaning up the streets and alleys of our city .-A clean city is always a healthy one.

WE notice that the Reaver Radical i publishing a highly interesting (?) and somewhat amusing history of Dr A. W. Atchison, late of the 140th Pa Vol's.

Coming.-"Winter lingers in the lap of Spring," nevertheless the time for Spring is here The cold stormy weather will soon be over. Work in the gardens will soon commence.

New Pavements .- In many parts of he city the payements are in as terrible condition. If the owners of the property

Nor Room -We have not room to report the proceedings of the Temperance neeting held in the Court House April 5th. The audience was not as large as it should bave been. Rev Jas Mullen de livered a most excellent address.

A sprightly, spunky youth, name

Will. Whipple, of beaver, sprunga bloody leak in the back of his left forcarm while racticing on a turning pole at the Naional Hotel last Friday afternoon. The oreach in the flesh was about two inches ong, one inch wide, and down to the hope, when we saw it, immediately afteward. Will had an idea that a smail work according to promise, and at the steak was torn out of the place, and was afraid to go home with such a rent in him for fear he would scare his mother. Dr. Boardman came, however, coueczed the gash into homeorathic dimensions, and persuaded the boy to go home and have a few ball cover stirches put into it, and have it tied up. He is getting well without a whimper .- Beaver Radical.

REAL ESTATE AGENTS .- In another column of the REPUBLICAN will be seen the advertisement of Messrs. Rankin & Irwin These gentlemen are Agents of a number of the most reliable Life and Fire Insurance Companies in the United States. They also deal extensively in real estate—selling forms, houses and lots. Western and Southern lands. &c -They are clever men, and attend punctually to business. Mr. Rankin in addition to the real estate and insurance business, is engaged in the practice of the law. He is a good lawyer-a safe counseller, and an honest man. Persons, therefore, wishing legal advice-their lives or property insured—or those who have real estate to sell, would do well, and save money, by calling upon the firm

Nor WELL POSTED -The man who White wheat per bushel doe't take the papers was in town this week He called st our office to get some p stage stamps prin ed saying that they wanted to charge him three cen's apiece for them at the post office and he wouldn't stand no sich imposterin." We tried to get him to subscribe for the REPUBLIC-AN, but he said he couldn't afford it-only had three dollars, and was entirely out of smoking tobacco and whiskey From our office, he started out to see the town. He stopped in front of Patton's jewelry sore, and set his "bulleye" by the watch sign over the door, then stepped into F. S. Wilson's drug-store, and called for a Hams, g'ass of gin and sugar. Being told of Lard, per lb. his mistake, he passed on, stopping in Eggs. was hanging out, from there he passed Dried Beef...... round to Breckbill's furniture ware room where he examined a cradle, and inquir ed the price of "that doughtrough." Secing Capt. Cook, Cyrus Strickland, and some engineers at work on the street and inquired "what they'd charge to take his picture." Passing by Captain Fryberger's tobacco store, he attempted to shake hands with the "big Ingin" in front of the door, whom he took to be a squaw, and inquired of her whether she didn't feel cold, with her neck all bare this weather. Noticing the omnibus, belonging to the Brokerhoff House, he inquired where the circus was, and while traveling in search of it, he encountered a boy on the street, distributing Ayer's medical almanac, and paid him twentyfive cents for a copy. He bought a twoquart crock at Captain Runkle's grocery G. A. Salt store, and took it down to the gas-works to get it filled with gas, enying, he bad "heerd it was a darn sight cheaper'n taller or coal ito." When we last saw him. he was taking the overland route for Tamaque, Pa., with a pocketful of five-cent nickels, which some sharper had put on

THE advantages accruing to our farmers by the introduction of superior breeds of stock of every kind, are just beginning to be appreciated by our people. Good stock is kept, and reared more easily and cheaply, than the deteriorate I and comoon steck which our farming community generally possess. When grown, it is worth twice as much. Our farmers are just beginning to see this. They are beginning to offer some encouragement to mporters of good stock. All such, who apply soon, are offered the very best hances to improve their stock of hor-es, as will be seen by referring to the advertisement of W. D. Rikard, of the Cumnings House, who has imported a horse of the finest blood and quality ever inroduced here. Let all our horse raisers make it a point to see Lew Pettit before

JUBILEE -It is with pleasure we chronicle the great success of our Lucheran triend, in their jubilee and collation, held in the Academy, in Bualsburg, on the 25th and 26th of March On Thursday evening, as soon as the doors were opened, the people commenced flocking in by scores, until the large lecture room of the Academy building was crowded to overflowing. Every face was overed with smiles, and every beart swelled with emotion, while the class of outhful singers sung a number of beautiful christian song . The sweet voices of the youth, in unison with the harmonious strains of the musical instruments, were not only delightful, but charming Tears of joy were seen streaming down many a cheek, while the performers sang of happiness—of God—of Je:sus—of life everlasting-of heaven, the christian's home.

At the same time the upper schoolroom of the Academy was crowded, and collation consisting of chicken, ham, ice-cream, apples, pies. and cakes of every variety. A very large and fine cake, presented by Mrs. S. II. Stover, for the oc ession, was placed upon the "bidding Jiand," and the bidding commenced in ties of his appointment, at his office in Belle-mond carnest. Many and numerous were fonte, on Saturday, April 17th, 1869, at 10 Don't KILL THE BIRDS -We scarcely good earnest.
