Is there a boy in Chillicothe, whose name is "Ui Damver?" We hear very loud calls for him occasionally from the little boys who congregate ab ut the corners, and particularly when a dispute arises concerning any game in which they may chance to be engaged. We judge, from the frequency of these calls for him on occasions of this kind, that he must be a little fellow of vast judgment and wisdom, who is called upon to act as umpire. We hope "Uli" will always appear promptly hereafter, so that these little boys won't have to call him so often. The older citizens of the place will feel particularly relieved if he will only do so .- Chillicothe Gazette.

From the frequent calls for "Uli" by the boys of Bellefonte, we judge that "Uli Damyer" must have removed from Chillicothe to this place. We do not think "Uli" is a good boy, nor do we think that he "is a little fellow of vast judgment and wisdom," and, moreover, | such examination as any other witness. we think he is not fit to act as "umpire" to testify; but the party calling for such caw catcher struck the horse throwing it on any question. Mr. White was one of the earliest settlers of Philipsburg, having located here in 1824, when our now flouri hing town was a howling wilderness, inhabited by wild animals many of which were made to b te the dust by his unerring rifle. The small party of settlers endured the hardships and privations incident to a new settlement for many doing one for the other, and looking to each other's welfare The subject of this notice was a man of more than ordinary mind-strong in his attachments, untiring in his efforts to accomplish his end. Ever kind and benevolent, his hou e furnished a shelter for many a poor homeless mortal. His truth and honesty were doubted by no one. The deceased raised a family of children among whom were two sons--young men of respectability--the pride and hope of a fond father, both of whom fell in the defense of their country in the late rebillion, one at Octtysburg, the other at South Mountain; and the parent. at his advanced age, was only prevented joining the army by the persuasion of his friends, so strong was his love for his country and his zeal in a good and just cause.
