Some folks are always fretting, Will their troubles never ceuse ? Will nothing ever bring theme The blessed boon of peace ?

To peace and true contentmen's The way is very plain, And if you'll pay attentiom The source E'H explains

Emith's home was all confusion, His wife would scold and fret, And such a scene I really think I never shall forget.

His wife would spank the children, And chase them off to bed ; Set down, and cry as women do, And wish that she were dead.

She'd call her husband awful names, A "nasty, horrid man," And if he "did'nt change his ways,' She'd "go right home to 'mam.'"

When Smith returned to bed one night, He thought the matter o'er ; No vowed he'd end this foolish fight-Have peace at home once more Fre long the neighbors noticed His wife had changed her, tone, And Smith was "gay and happy,". For he'd bought an "Our Old Home.".

Now his wife is every smilling, And all he wrath has flown And she calls her husband "darling," For he's bought an "Our Old Home." Smith says his "wife has really The sweetest temper known, And everything is lovely Since he's bo't an 'Our Old Home.'.'3 And now he takes his comfort; He's found happiness at last, And sunbeams bright and glancy Around his way are cast.
