DIVINE SERVICE .- Rev. J. H. Barnard, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian Congregation in this place, preached, morning and evening, in the Court House, on Sunday last. His subject in the morning was, the "Cross of Christ." The sermon was an able one, and delivered with great carnestness and eloquence. The house was crowded; we think we have never seen the Court House so full. Mr. Barnard has many friends in this community. and their prayers and good wishes will followihim to his home in Wankesha,

THE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE. - Daniel Ley--den, Esq., contractor of the new public school-house, has completed the mason an ornament to the town. The contract price for building it is, we believe, $13,-000, but it will cost, when finished, from $15,000 to $20,000. The school-house and churches in a town are always the true indices of the character and enterprise of the citizens. What then must be the opinion of strangers who may visit our town, six months hence, when completed? Mr. Leyden deserves great ertions have, in any manner, aided in credit for the energy with which he is keeping alive the spirit of improvement, pushing the school-house to completion. We hope it will be ready for the occupancy of the schools at the opening of the next session, for our schools, scatterschools to prosper in poor and illy vengilated rooms.

In the history of the 49th Pa. Vol., of last week's issue, it should read Maj. Miles, not Maj. Miller, as it occurs.

Correction -In noticing the time of ie holding of the Sabbath School Conention, in our last issue, we should have said the 25th, 26th and 27th of May, instead of June.

reason that it will afford the many friends of the Rev. gentleman, in this to look at her fashion places. county, great pleasure to read it. Long NERDED .- Bellefonte has long needed just such an establishment as business in all its branches, and having room, in the Bush & McClain building,

We will have in one and a half miles of Bellefonte, for store. The ladies of Centre county are more to say of these gentlemen when we have time to pay them a visit and fully book ourselves. Our farmer friends are jubilant over the prospect of fine crops of grain, and no doubt, in imagination, they already hear the song of the reaper, burdening midsummer breezes with its music. mection with our business. As we do not address these few words, cannot plead | Certainly everything does look very promising in our broad valleys, and, if no blight comes, we may expect an abundant barvest. Fruit, also, promises well. No accounts of frost-killing, to any extent, have yet reached us, Hope no frosts may come to blight our prospects

Our Presbyterian friends, of the Old School Branch, certainly deserve great credit for liberality, there being three new churches now being built in this county, within ten miles of each other. One of these, a neat frame structure, is situated on Buffalo Run, near the residence of Rob't Hunter, Esq., another stone building, is in process of erection at, or near, the Branch, in Harris tp. and last, but not least, is our own substantial stone structure, which is being speedily pushed to completion, on Spring street, in this borough. Can any other section boast of such liberality? May each prove an ante-room of Heaven to the waiting souls of its worshippers, and in the distant future, they will stand as it monuments to the memory of their liberal-hearted founders, long after they have gone "over the river."

TEMPERANCE. - We negleted last week to notice the fact that Rev. P. Coombe preached on the sinfulness of the license system, in the M E. Church, on the merning of the 9th inst., and in the Court House in the evening of the same day, to a large and intelligent audience. Ou Monday night, the 10th inst., he lectured in the Court House, on "The overthrow of the License System, and the fulfilled their appointment. With all, we hope you and the community generally, to beautifolks in Bellefonte may all be in possession of good health. This has been an unusually cold, wet Spring. There has been some very nice weather, but there has been more cold rain here than has ever been known by old citizens, but no freezing for several weeks. Some of the farmers planted their corn three weeks ago; but I have not planted mineyet. I have sown 214 acres of oats, and have 22 acres plowed for corn. It goes more like plowing here, than in Half Moon. We have plowed over forty acres this Spring, with two plow shares, that were used for all the farming done last year; and but few of the horses ever have a shoe on. I bought two horses, six and ten years old, respectively, and neither of them ever had a shoe on; so you can judge, for yourself, of the farming. The wheat, in general, looks fine, although some of it was hurt by the winter. Wheat, at this time, is worth $1 40 per bushel; corn 80 to 90 cents, and oats 55 cents.-There is a fine prospect for peaches and cherries; the trees are in full bloom, and very full. Apples will be a light crop in this neighborhood, there being but few blossoms. We have bought some green apples, for which we paid 50 cents per. bushel. Dried apples are selling at 8 cents per pound. There is a good quality of fruit here Stock sells high. Good horses sell for $150 to $500. Cattle are high. Milk cows range from $40 to $75. The valuation of property by the Assessors is very high. I have three horses, valued at $80, each, and three cows at $25 each, and one at $25, making, in all, $330. and all my tax will be about $4. Then my household goods was valued at $50, and every man has $50 exempt.— Then I have two days to work on the road, which includes all my tax this year for the different purposes. Labor, per. month, is $18 to $20, and they are offering : 2 per day for wheat harvest. There is nothing of particular importance, at this time, to communicate. It

$25 to bring my goods. We have got set down amongst a nice, quiet, kind set of people. All appears to be going along swimingly. I have not been this long in a place, for many years, without hearing of some stealing, which I have not heard of since I came out here. There was a man in Somerset failed in getting money to make some payment, this Spring, which caused him to hang himself. Another man, in Bedford co., named Emerick, hung himself, for some

Died .- Col. Andrew Gregg, one of he oldest and most respectable citizens of Centre county, died at his residence, in Central City, on Friday, the 14th inst. His remains were followed to the tomb, in the Bellefonte cemetery, on Saturday, by a large concourse of people-his admirers while living-his mourners since

Col. Gregg represented this district, six years, or two terms, in the State Senate. He was an honest and upright member, a good worker, and always true to his friends. In the business relations of life, he was honest and generous to a fault: No living man can say that Col. Gregg ever wronged him, while all will bear testimony that the poor and the needy always found a willing friend in -him. He was, emphatically, the noblest work of God-an honest man.

TRUE .- There is more business done n Bellefonte now, in one wook, than was lone in six weeks, ten years ago. The ailroad has been a great benefit to us; but the first cause of our prosperity is, that our farmers are independent, and becoming more wealthy every day. Our nechanics and laboring men are prospering, and the population increasing pidly. Under these circumstances, we old that a merchant who does not adertise in the REPUBLICAN does not understand his business, and will have so few customers, that he will be compelled otake advantage of them to make a living. Again we say to the consumers. o farmers and others, examine well our dvertising columns before you purchase. A man that will not invite you, through the paper, to call and examine his stock, is a little hit ton stingy, er old-foggyish for youto expect to realize any advan tage in the way of a deal. The men who advertiseare the most liberal-minded, and the men who desire to increase their busi ness, and accommodate their customers Obey this advice. Subscribe for, and read the REPUBLICAN, that your days may be long in the land, and the sharpers occupation gone.

THE SOLDIERS' GRAVES .- Gen. Logan, the Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has designated and set apart the 20th day of May, inst., for the purpose of strewing flowers upon, and beautifying the soldiers' graves .-and beautifying the "old grave yard," where sleeps so many of our relations Dalton, Wayne county, 0, May 9, 69. and friends, those who were near and FRIEND W.
