Re-nomination of Gov. Geary.]

The State Convention, which met on the 23d inst, re-nominated Gen. JNO. W. GEARY, on the first ballot. The Convention, also, by acclamation, declared Hon. HENRY W. WILLIAMS the nominee of the party for the Supreme Judgeship. Gov. GEARY received 122 votes on the first ballot .-Only 11 votes being cast against him. Gen. J. F. HARTRANFT, who was our first choice, refused to let his name go before the convention. His object and aim was to unite and not distract the party. The people have honored him; but higher honors await him.

Gen. GEARY has made a most excellent Governor. He has greatly diminished the taxes, and paid off more of the Democratic State debt than any of his predecessors. We have not room to say more this week.

THE Harrisburg Telegraph says. The result is gratifying to us; that the nomination has our cordial concurrence; and that the nominee will receive from us a cheerful, constant and ardent support, as doubtless he will from every other Republican paper and voter in the State.

The candidate we present, for the second time, to the voters of Pennsylvania, for the highest office in their gift is, fortunately, not unknown to fame. He has filled many public station; his integrity has never been questioned: and to the forecaste of a satisfactory and brilliant. In the Mextion of the Union, he exhibited all the

His nomination seemed to be an act due to his faithful discharge of duty and demanded by the interests of the party. Popular opinion indicated him as the choice of the party above all others, and in bowing to that plain expression of the public will the Convention laid the foundation of a victory which will secure the ascendancy of the Republican party in Pennsylvania for many years.

We enter upon the campaign buoyed by the certainty of victory, while our opponents, dispirited by many defeats and divided in sentiment as to a candidate almost beyond the possibility of agreement, although they may make a desparate struggle, will make it without a hope of success. Victory is certain-the re election of Geary by a majority of thousands is as sure as though it had already been accomplished.

SOLDIERS REUNION .- The Soldiers of Centre county have arranged to have a Reunion on Saturday, July 3d, 1869, in commemoration of the 4th. The programme includes a demonstration at the Court House, at 21, p. m., and a Banquet at the Brockerhoff House, at eight p. m. The programme at the Court House, will include the usual reading of the Declaration and an address-both by veteran soldiers-to be interspersed with songs by the Philharmonic Society, in their respective papers. and music by the Bellefonte Band .-At the Banquet, a regular series of toasts, speeches and songs will be added to the more solid entertainment furnished by our hosts, Messrs. Hous-EAL & KROM.

Tickets to Banquet, $1.50. The public are invited to the entertainment at the Court House. All soldiers are respectfully invited to participate in the Banquet.

We hope all the soldiers of Centre county will unite in making this a complete reunion, and have a gay and festive time.

The Registry Law.

Justice Sharswood; of Philadelphia, as has already been announced, has just made a decision in a case arising inder the Registry Law. As usual with jurists, he covers a ream to say therein, doubtless lies the wisdom. A following points: Nisi Prius, I am undoubtedly bound to act according to my own conviction, under my oath to support the Constitution; yet upon a question of this character and magnitude, I would hesitate an act of the Legislature, if my decisbefore the Supreme Court by an ap-

Under the terms of the Constitution my legislative act which destrovs or impairs either the freedom or the equality of elections is null and void. It is the manifest duty of the judicial power so to construe them as to give them value and effect as an expression eignty, and paramount, therefore to any act or resolution of the Legislature or any other department of the Govern-

Basing himself on the Constitution, Judge Sharswood argues that making one rule for Philadelphia and another for other places, is a violation of that instrument; and he urges that no restriction whatever can be placed by the Legislature upon the exercise of the elective frankcise. The tendency of his argument is to leave the regulating of franchise to the Constitution alone, and that legislative regulations and explanations are mere waste of time and pa-

MESSRS. EDITORS:-It is often said verrified in the last Watchman, and the last National, one a Copperhead sheet, the other a Radical. The Editors of both these papers, signed, with other citizens, a letter addressed to Gov. Curtin, inviting him to meet his neighbors at the Court House to receive "some manifestation of their high esteem and regard they held him in as a citizen, Philanthropist and statesman," before he left them on his mission to Russia. The meeting was held without the distinction of political parties. The Governor was addressed by one of the oldest active Democrats of the county, Mr. James Macmanus, in very appropriate remarks. You published the letter of invitation, and Gov. Curtin's answer, in the REPUBLICAN in time for the Watchman and the National to have inserted them from your paper. You also published the proceedings of the meeting in time for those antipode journals to transfer the proceedings of the meeting to their columns, or to have given the meeting a passing notice, at least, for the information of their readers.-But no! Not one word has either of these Editors said about the meeting

As respects the Watchman, it is Meekish, and in this changeable weather might give trouble to procure the consent of the "Ring" that directs him in matters of this kind. But as respects the National, it is different, he knows what the personal friends of Gov. Curtin have done for the National, and now they find MEEK and KINSLOE in juxtaposition in this omission. What's up? Here they act together—is it to go further? The National cannot blind any body, for his dereliction of friendship, professed, in neglecting or refusing to notice the proceedings at the Court House by publishing the unauthorized and uncan be manufactured in that city at called-for communication signed "Lock very low rates. That a body of men so intelligent as those who folspirit of proscription, is wonderful, and only proves the danger of ever allowing prejudice to over-rule, in any instance, the innate sense of right.

The official guillotine still finds a few victims occasionally. Some twentyfive or thirty regular clerks, and all the temporary clerks in the Qartermaster General's office, were discharged a few days ago on account of the insufficiency of the appropriations made by Congress for the present fiscal year.

About the same number were also discharged from the Adjutant General's, Surgeon General's, Pension and Land offices. The force at present employed in the Public offices is, in many instances, insufficient to keep up the current work, and there are many old claims being presented, growing out of the war, which owing to the length of time which has elapsed, and the difficulty in obtaining the necessary proof, require a very patient and laborious investigation. Indeed, the latter class are numerous enough to warrant the appointment of a separate commission, to continue for a year or two, to adjust the same. The famous Cincinnati Base Ball Club, familiarly known throughout the country as the "Red Stockings," arrived here last night, and are stopping at Williard's. They are enquestionapaper, referring to the Convention and bly the finest and most gentlemanly looking set of Base ball players ever seen in this city. GRANDFATHERS' STOVE." Our grandfather's stove, what a funry old thing, So deep, so wide and so tall; Now the people would say, who are stylish and gay,

"It was only a hole in the wall." It matters not what, it was pleasant to see When night's mantle was flung over all; Grandfather take down his good book and By the light from the hole in the wall. As the sturdy young men rolled in the great logs, They would laugh at each wintry squall, Whilst grandma would sit on her old chair By the light from the whole in the wall. The girls then wore home spun, and so their beaux's, For pride was a principle small; and courting was done and hearts have

By the light from the hole in the wall. The neighbors were friendly whorever they'd meet, With a word of true kindness for all; And joy was complete to hear voices so swe Ring round that old hole in the wall.

In those days we know, folks cared not fo show, Of improvements knew nothing at all; But 'twas really no joke, when great cloud: Rushed out from the hole in the wall. But those days are now o'er, we shall know them no more.
