

Local Department. BELLEFONTE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, June 30, 1899.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style...

DIAMOND DRUG STORE.—F. S. Wilson has just returned from the city with another large assortment of "fancy articles," perfumery, drugs, chemicals, &c.

EVERY Republican throughout the county should send us all the items of interest occurring in his particular neighborhood. With this assistance from our friends, we can build up a paper that will be taken in every household...

ANOTHER HOR.—Pleasant Gap is becoming notorious for its social parties, and for "tripping the light fantastic toe." The Pleasant Gap Hotel is, or is fast becoming, the summer resort of the "gay and festive" youths of our town and country.

WANTED.—One hundred and seventy-five young men, of all shapes, and sizes, from the tall, graceful dandy, with hair enough on his upper lip to stiff a barber's cushion, down to the stuff-necked, carrot-headed upstart.

PROMPNESS.—About two weeks ago, Isaac Haupt, Agent for the York, Pa., Live Stock Insurance Company, insured a horse for Abraham Stewart, a worthy mechanic of this place.

SEAK TRIBUTES.—The "professors of the accumulative art," are doing a flourishing business in various localities in this county. No distinction is paid to persons, places or hours of the day.

BURGULARY.—A daring burglary, or theft, was committed at the residence of W. K. Williams, near Locust Mills, in Huston twp., on Thursday morning, 17th inst., about 2 o'clock, the particulars of which are as follows: Oscar, son of the above named Williams, who resides in Harrisburg, and is a silver-smith with trade, had arrived at home on a visit, having with him a quantity of jewelry.

MR. DEAN.—You excellent communication was received too late for this number of the REPUBLICAN.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

DIAMOND DRUG STORE.—F. S. Wilson has just returned from the city with another large assortment of "fancy articles," perfumery, drugs, chemicals, &c.

EVERY Republican throughout the county should send us all the items of interest occurring in his particular neighborhood.

ANOTHER HOR.—Pleasant Gap is becoming notorious for its social parties, and for "tripping the light fantastic toe."

WANTED.—One hundred and seventy-five young men, of all shapes, and sizes, from the tall, graceful dandy, with hair enough on his upper lip to stiff a barber's cushion, down to the stuff-necked, carrot-headed upstart.

PROMPNESS.—About two weeks ago, Isaac Haupt, Agent for the York, Pa., Live Stock Insurance Company, insured a horse for Abraham Stewart, a worthy mechanic of this place.

SEAK TRIBUTES.—The "professors of the accumulative art," are doing a flourishing business in various localities in this county.

BURGULARY.—A daring burglary, or theft, was committed at the residence of W. K. Williams, near Locust Mills, in Huston twp., on Thursday morning, 17th inst., about 2 o'clock, the particulars of which are as follows: Oscar, son of the above named Williams, who resides in Harrisburg, and is a silver-smith with trade, had arrived at home on a visit, having with him a quantity of jewelry.

MR. DEAN.—You excellent communication was received too late for this number of the REPUBLICAN.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

DIAMOND DRUG STORE.—F. S. Wilson has just returned from the city with another large assortment of "fancy articles," perfumery, drugs, chemicals, &c.

EVERY Republican throughout the county should send us all the items of interest occurring in his particular neighborhood.

ANOTHER HOR.—Pleasant Gap is becoming notorious for its social parties, and for "tripping the light fantastic toe."

WANTED.—One hundred and seventy-five young men, of all shapes, and sizes, from the tall, graceful dandy, with hair enough on his upper lip to stiff a barber's cushion, down to the stuff-necked, carrot-headed upstart.

PROMPNESS.—About two weeks ago, Isaac Haupt, Agent for the York, Pa., Live Stock Insurance Company, insured a horse for Abraham Stewart, a worthy mechanic of this place.

SEAK TRIBUTES.—The "professors of the accumulative art," are doing a flourishing business in various localities in this county.

BURGULARY.—A daring burglary, or theft, was committed at the residence of W. K. Williams, near Locust Mills, in Huston twp., on Thursday morning, 17th inst., about 2 o'clock, the particulars of which are as follows: Oscar, son of the above named Williams, who resides in Harrisburg, and is a silver-smith with trade, had arrived at home on a visit, having with him a quantity of jewelry.

MR. DEAN.—You excellent communication was received too late for this number of the REPUBLICAN.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

DIAMOND DRUG STORE.—F. S. Wilson has just returned from the city with another large assortment of "fancy articles," perfumery, drugs, chemicals, &c.

EVERY Republican throughout the county should send us all the items of interest occurring in his particular neighborhood.

ANOTHER HOR.—Pleasant Gap is becoming notorious for its social parties, and for "tripping the light fantastic toe."

WANTED.—One hundred and seventy-five young men, of all shapes, and sizes, from the tall, graceful dandy, with hair enough on his upper lip to stiff a barber's cushion, down to the stuff-necked, carrot-headed upstart.

PROMPNESS.—About two weeks ago, Isaac Haupt, Agent for the York, Pa., Live Stock Insurance Company, insured a horse for Abraham Stewart, a worthy mechanic of this place.

SEAK TRIBUTES.—The "professors of the accumulative art," are doing a flourishing business in various localities in this county.

BURGULARY.—A daring burglary, or theft, was committed at the residence of W. K. Williams, near Locust Mills, in Huston twp., on Thursday morning, 17th inst., about 2 o'clock, the particulars of which are as follows: Oscar, son of the above named Williams, who resides in Harrisburg, and is a silver-smith with trade, had arrived at home on a visit, having with him a quantity of jewelry.

MR. DEAN.—You excellent communication was received too late for this number of the REPUBLICAN.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

DIAMOND DRUG STORE.—F. S. Wilson has just returned from the city with another large assortment of "fancy articles," perfumery, drugs, chemicals, &c.

EVERY Republican throughout the county should send us all the items of interest occurring in his particular neighborhood.

ANOTHER HOR.—Pleasant Gap is becoming notorious for its social parties, and for "tripping the light fantastic toe."

WANTED.—One hundred and seventy-five young men, of all shapes, and sizes, from the tall, graceful dandy, with hair enough on his upper lip to stiff a barber's cushion, down to the stuff-necked, carrot-headed upstart.

PROMPNESS.—About two weeks ago, Isaac Haupt, Agent for the York, Pa., Live Stock Insurance Company, insured a horse for Abraham Stewart, a worthy mechanic of this place.

SEAK TRIBUTES.—The "professors of the accumulative art," are doing a flourishing business in various localities in this county.

BURGULARY.—A daring burglary, or theft, was committed at the residence of W. K. Williams, near Locust Mills, in Huston twp., on Thursday morning, 17th inst., about 2 o'clock, the particulars of which are as follows: Oscar, son of the above named Williams, who resides in Harrisburg, and is a silver-smith with trade, had arrived at home on a visit, having with him a quantity of jewelry.

MR. DEAN.—You excellent communication was received too late for this number of the REPUBLICAN.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

DIAMOND DRUG STORE.—F. S. Wilson has just returned from the city with another large assortment of "fancy articles," perfumery, drugs, chemicals, &c.

EVERY Republican throughout the county should send us all the items of interest occurring in his particular neighborhood.

ANOTHER HOR.—Pleasant Gap is becoming notorious for its social parties, and for "tripping the light fantastic toe."

WANTED.—One hundred and seventy-five young men, of all shapes, and sizes, from the tall, graceful dandy, with hair enough on his upper lip to stiff a barber's cushion, down to the stuff-necked, carrot-headed upstart.

PROMPNESS.—About two weeks ago, Isaac Haupt, Agent for the York, Pa., Live Stock Insurance Company, insured a horse for Abraham Stewart, a worthy mechanic of this place.

SEAK TRIBUTES.—The "professors of the accumulative art," are doing a flourishing business in various localities in this county.

BURGULARY.—A daring burglary, or theft, was committed at the residence of W. K. Williams, near Locust Mills, in Huston twp., on Thursday morning, 17th inst., about 2 o'clock, the particulars of which are as follows: Oscar, son of the above named Williams, who resides in Harrisburg, and is a silver-smith with trade, had arrived at home on a visit, having with him a quantity of jewelry.

MR. DEAN.—You excellent communication was received too late for this number of the REPUBLICAN.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

DIAMOND DRUG STORE.—F. S. Wilson has just returned from the city with another large assortment of "fancy articles," perfumery, drugs, chemicals, &c.

EVERY Republican throughout the county should send us all the items of interest occurring in his particular neighborhood.

ANOTHER HOR.—Pleasant Gap is becoming notorious for its social parties, and for "tripping the light fantastic toe."

WANTED.—One hundred and seventy-five young men, of all shapes, and sizes, from the tall, graceful dandy, with hair enough on his upper lip to stiff a barber's cushion, down to the stuff-necked, carrot-headed upstart.

PROMPNESS.—About two weeks ago, Isaac Haupt, Agent for the York, Pa., Live Stock Insurance Company, insured a horse for Abraham Stewart, a worthy mechanic of this place.

SEAK TRIBUTES.—The "professors of the accumulative art," are doing a flourishing business in various localities in this county.

BURGULARY.—A daring burglary, or theft, was committed at the residence of W. K. Williams, near Locust Mills, in Huston twp., on Thursday morning, 17th inst., about 2 o'clock, the particulars of which are as follows: Oscar, son of the above named Williams, who resides in Harrisburg, and is a silver-smith with trade, had arrived at home on a visit, having with him a quantity of jewelry.

MR. DEAN.—You excellent communication was received too late for this number of the REPUBLICAN.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

DIAMOND DRUG STORE.—F. S. Wilson has just returned from the city with another large assortment of "fancy articles," perfumery, drugs, chemicals, &c.

EVERY Republican throughout the county should send us all the items of interest occurring in his particular neighborhood.

ANOTHER HOR.—Pleasant Gap is becoming notorious for its social parties, and for "tripping the light fantastic toe."

WANTED.—One hundred and seventy-five young men, of all shapes, and sizes, from the tall, graceful dandy, with hair enough on his upper lip to stiff a barber's cushion, down to the stuff-necked, carrot-headed upstart.

PROMPNESS.—About two weeks ago, Isaac Haupt, Agent for the York, Pa., Live Stock Insurance Company, insured a horse for Abraham Stewart, a worthy mechanic of this place.

SEAK TRIBUTES.—The "professors of the accumulative art," are doing a flourishing business in various localities in this county.

BURGULARY.—A daring burglary, or theft, was committed at the residence of W. K. Williams, near Locust Mills, in Huston twp., on Thursday morning, 17th inst., about 2 o'clock, the particulars of which are as follows: Oscar, son of the above named Williams, who resides in Harrisburg, and is a silver-smith with trade, had arrived at home on a visit, having with him a quantity of jewelry.

MR. DEAN.—You excellent communication was received too late for this number of the REPUBLICAN.

Mr. DANIEL DEAN, of this place, recently had his new dwelling house finished and painted in a very beautiful style, which makes it an ornament to that part of our young city.

DRY GOODS. DONT. NEW DRUG STORE. DRUGS, &c. GROCERIES &c. ROBERTY AND PROVISION STORE. COFFEE, Tea, Sugar, Molasses, in short everything usually kept at a Grocery Store, for sale low, at M. RUNKLE'S.