Soldier's Reunion .- A reunion of the soldiers of Centre county, in commemoration of the Fourth of July, was held in this Borough, on Saturday, July

The exercises in the afternoon, at the Court House, were opened by Capt. A. B. Hutchison, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangement, who called the assembly to order, and announced the following officers of the meeting :- President, Gen. W. H. Blair; Vice-Presidents, Cyrus Strickland, Capt. M. Runkle, Col. Geo. A. Bayard, Israel J. Grenoble, Col. C. L. Greeno, J. C. Bathgale, Col. R. McFarlane and James I. McClaskey; Secretaries, Capt Isaac Lytle and Jacob Zimmerman. Gen. Blair, upon assuming the chair addressed the assembly in cloquent and patriotic terms, alluding, especially, to the grand record made by the officers and soldiers of Centre county, who had, in proportion to the population of the county, been more numerous than in any other locality, and who had formed portions of the most efficient and most distinguished of the regiments of the State. He referred to the fact that no volunteer officer of our county had been sent home in disgrace, and that our soldiers had honorable part in every campaign and battle of the war for the Union, in forcihle and fitting terms. He paid a deserved compliment to the great War Governor, whose influence and example had contributed so much to this grand record, and closed his address amidst the applause of the audience.

An overture by the Bellefonte Brass Band was then very creditably perform-... A prayer, appropriate to the occasion, was offered by Rev. B. McGann, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal church. The Philharmonic Society then sang the grand chorus, "O, hail us ye Free," in so excellent a style as to win the plaudits of the house.

The Declaration of Independence was read, in unusually good style, by Capt. Jas. P. Smith, of Millheim, late of the 49th Pa. Vol's.

At the close of the reading, the Philharmonic Society sang the "Star Spangled Banner," Mr. E. M. Blanchard as solo, with the society joining in chorus. All agree that they never heard the National Anthem so well sung.

After music by the Bellefonie Brass Band, Gen. Blair announced that the orator of the day, Gen. Harry White, was prevented, by unavoidable circumstances, from fulfilling his appointment as orator of the day, and introduced Capt. A. B. Hutchison, who had been selected by the committee to take his place. Capt. Hutchison proceeded to address the audience present, in a speech of less than ha!f an hour's duration, which was very warmly applauded by his audience. It was entirely appropriate to the occasion, and pronounced by all, an unusuelly happy effort. As it was prepared within a few hours, and entirely extempore, it was a remarkable and gratifying success. The song, "E Pluribus Unum," was not given, as a sudden illness of a lady Philbarmonic Society, but the audience were entertained by the Bellefonte Band, and the meeting adjourned to re-assemble at the banquet in the evening.

The banquet at the Brockerhoff House came off, according to the Programme, at 8 o'clock, p. m. A delay of some minutes was experienced, in consequence of the shock of a bolt of lightning which struck the flagstaff on the Reynolds Bank building, just opposite the Brockerhoff. A wire leading to the Garman House, put up for the purpose of strengthening the flagstaff, carried off in all, twenty-five buggies and four carthe current of electricity, and saved the building from damage.

Gen. Blair took the chair at the tables and, first in order, the company proceed ed to dispose of a most excellent supper provided by the Proprietors of the Brockerboff. All agreed that, as a triumph of the culinary art, this banquet surpassed all others in the history of Bellefonte.-After the entables were disposed of, Messrs. Blanchard, Harris, Hibler and Regular toasts being then in order, and most excellent champagne on the dependence was read, a speech was made, tables, the Chairman announced the first and listened to attentively by all. Smith replied in a The people enjoyed themselves to the brief, appropriate and eloquent speech, full; indeed, there was quite a joyful deserving and winning the applause and time. All felt rejoiced that the war was congratulations of all the company.

Then, after a song by our musical friends before named, the Chairman announced the next toast, "The Soldiers of Centre county," calling upon Gen. Beaver to reply. Gen. Beaver responded in a most eloquent, entertaining and appropriate speech, facetiously declaring, thanks of the people for the part they however, that the Chairman had stolen took, in celebrating the natal day of nent features of the annual meeting .-his thunder in the afternoen. The next regular toast, "The Veteran Reserve Corps," being given, the Chairman called upon Lt. Barr to respond, his substitute, who happily replied to the sentiment, giving a graphic descrip- will be attended to next week. tion of the services of the Reserve corps.

Capt. Isaac Lytle responded to the next regular toast, "The Christian and Sanitary Commissions," in a very brief but appropriate speech, and elicited hearty applause.

After another song, the sixth toast was given, "The Ladies," to reply to which, the Chairman called upon Capt. Chas. H. Hale, who met the demand in excelthey deserved.

After more singing, volunteer toasts vere in order, and several were offered and responded to very happily. Mr. H. O. Kline replying to the toast, "The private Soldiers, they win the honors which others wear," and Capt. Hutchison to he toast, "The Volunteer officers." "The Regular Army-on many a field our fallen Comrades." All the exercises of the day and evening passed off harmoniously and to the gratification of all concerned, all agreeing that the celebration of the 4th, by he soldiers, was a grand success. The Brockerhoff House also won and deserved the plaudits of all who had an opporunity to share in their hospitality.

The Primary School of this place made very favorable commencement on Monday, the 5th inst., under the superintendance of Miss. Hannah Thompson. The scholars, no doubt, will improve rapidly nder her charge. But ter scholar labor under a great disadvantage here at this time-the want of a large, well-ventilated and well-furnished school-building. The present school house contains but one poor room. The primary school has to be taught in the latter part of the summer, consequently the terms for the higher grade will run Ribbons, trimmings, Buttons, Braids, etc. into the spring months. Large scholars cannot remain on account of their work, and the teacher, comparatively speaking, has nothing to do for one mouth, at least. But I am glad that the citizens are getting around to their interests. A meeting has been called for Monday, the 12th inst., to take into consideration the propriety of erecting a first-class school building. The building to consist of two rooms on the first floor, soth at the higher grade and primary school can be taught at the same time.
