

BELLEVILLE REPUBLICAN.

W. B. BROWN, Editor. A. E. HUTCHINSON, Editor.

Terms, $2 per Annum, in Advance.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 4, '69. REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, Gen. JOHN W. GEARY, Cumberland. FOR SUPREME JUDGE, HENRY W. WILLIAMS, Allegheny.

ADVERTISING.—The BELLEVILLE REPUBLICAN has a larger circulation than any other Republican paper published in the county. Our merchants and business men will please make a note of this.

Republican County Convention.

The Union Republican voters of Centre county will meet at the regular places of holding Borough and Township elections, on Saturday, the 7th day of August, 1869, between the hours of 2 and 7 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention to be held in the Republican Club Room, in the Town of Belleville, on Wednesday the 11th day of August, 1869, at 1 o'clock, p. m. It will be the duty of the Convention to nominate

One candidate for Assembly. One candidate for Sheriff. One candidate for Prothonotary. One candidate for Register and Clerk of the Orphan's Court. One candidate for Recorder. One candidate for Treasurer. One candidate for Commissioner. One candidate for Coroner. One candidate for Auditor.

Each Borough and Township is entitled to a representation of three delegates—except the township of Boggs, Harris and Potter, each of which are entitled to four delegates.

WM. P. WILSON, Chairman Union Republican Co. Com.

To the Republicans of Centre County.

On next Saturday you will assemble at your several places for holding elections. Your voices in the selection of candidates for our various county offices, will then be heard. If all give this very important matter their attention, and use their best judgment in selecting, and energy in supporting, our nominees, we are sure of a complete and lasting victory in Centre county. As to the State, all we need is to get our voters all to the polls. Our victory over PACKER will be easy if only our people do not neglect the duty of voting.

But in this county, the contest will be very close. We have gained rapidly in Democracy since 1863 at every fall vote. It would be well for all Republicans to be at our delegate elections on Saturday. I know that, as under our new law—known as the Registry Law—all the Borough and Township officers must be elected in October, that full tickets be made in each and every township by the Republicans, to be voted for on the 2nd Tuesday of October next.

My official connection with the Republican party will close with the assembling of the Convention on the 11th of August. This last year has seen a great contest, and the grandest success ever known in the annals of the Republican party in the county, the State and the Nation.

All that is necessary to a complete and final victory of true Republicanism, is that we all give a reasonable share of our time, attention, and energy to the aid of our cause. Let every Republican in Centre county attend at, and attend to the delegate meetings next Saturday.

W. P. WILSON, Chairman.

In former times we heard a good deal about the "bloated bondholders," but with Twenty Million Packer for their candidate it is presumed that the Democracy will not say much on that subject. Either PACKER is an immense holder of Government bonds, or belonging to the SEYMOUR class, who never took a bond because by so doing they would support the Government, has his money well invested in something else that pays better. Whatever the fact is, the party is clearly entitled to all the good it will do them. Until further advised, we shall treat the Democratic candidate as the most bloated of the entire tribe of bloated bondholders within the limits of Pennsylvania, and intent on getting his coin for both principal and interest.

ASA PACKER showed his patriotism, when the war broke out, by going to Europe, and remaining several years. The whole male portion of Governor Geary's family, able to be in the army, was there fighting for the preservation of the Union. As to the Governor, every body knows his enviable record.

In Pennsylvania, the colored men admitted to the ballot by the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment, will be one eightieth of the whole number of voters. The Philadelphia Press asks if one colored man will not outweigh seventy-nine white men as the Democratic party continue to shrink.

The Katsyine Springs Hotel is now nearly completed. It has at present, sixty guests. Among these are Mrs. A. L. Phelps, the distinguished authoress and teacher, and Principal of the Patspec Female Seminary.

Meek's Travels Again.

He makes a third Trip into Pennsylvania—Forced to seek for Proof that he did not Lie on his Friends—The King Conspiring against the Country—The Hornets all on the wing.

Such a buzz among the horns of the "Court House Nest," has never been witnessed, as does at present exist in our romantic town. There is the black hornet, the white hornet, the waspish hornet, the sly hornet, the yellow hornet, the striped hornet, the Sugar hornet, the ring-tailed hornet, the bald faced hornet, the Gray hornet, and the MEER, or king hornet—all on the wing, with stings as sharp as needles and full of poison, ready to make war and inflict the severest punishment upon their country cousins who may have had the hardihood, or boldness, or ambition, to attempt to meddle with them in their snug and cozy nest. For six or eight years they have ruled with undisputed sway. They have their Court House nest, and the new jail nest, so completely fixed—and so extremely comfortable—and the MEER, or king hornet, has his eyes so intently fixed upon the money bags of the corruption ring in Harrisburg, that he, with all the others, have sworn, if horns can swear, that not a single county hornet shall invade their nest without suffering the most execrable torment for his audacity. The whole swarm, or hive, appear to be united with their KING, against the singing, or me-fa-sol-la hornet of Pennsylvania. It has been determined here, as in England, that "the King can do no wrong," and if his country-subjects will dare to dispute his authority they must be subdued; the music knocked out of them; their stings extracted, and finally crushed into the meyer. Now there are several kinds of mire that these horns detest; but the language of the King, at present, is, "save me from JAKE MEYER." The whole swarm have heard his petid in, or rather mandate, and have determined to save him. It will never do, they say, to let their King be Meyer'd. In return for their obedience and timely aid, the King, no doubt, has promised to divide the rich pickings of the BURNS nest in his Harrisburg dominions. It has been solemnly determined, in the Convention of hornsets assembled, that only those who stand faithfully by the King shall be rewarded. So, with renewed energy, they have all gone to work to repair and strengthen the nest. Some are WEAVING; some are at work on the HALLS; some are watching the WOLVES; some are for painting the jail part of the nest BROWN; some say the Treasury Department needs DOUBIN-S; some stand idly by and put in their LIP (by the TOX), and the whole swarm have determined to KEEP-HART and secure their HOUTER-A-MAN if they are compelled to run night and day over the country to secure certificates. It is really amusing to see them buzz and stir, FORSTEN they do not, being fighting horns, they despise loyal soldiers and make the WOOD-RING in declaring their detestation of all such. The Felice felicitous, or rather would be happy trade horns declare their detestation of the blacks, and swear by jehers that they will have the Prothonotary part of the nest, or KELL-HER.

But seriously, there is a nice fight going on between the pets of the Court House King and the people—the honest masses of the Democratic party. In our two last numbers we have shown how eager the King is for office, and how the MEER or KING hornet was willing to sell out or betray all the smaller lights, so as to make his calling and election sure. The low, personal attack made upon us by MEER, for no other reason than the publication of his travels and choice sayings, in Pennsylvania, is sufficient proof of the truth of all we published. Falseness never injures or riles a man; but truth, when it is told, cuts to the very bone. It was the truth of what we published, that hurt PETER. He knew what he had said to Judge HOSTERMAN. He remembered who he had maligned; and he, at once, upon seeing our paper, concluded that there must have been

"A ch'il among 'em taken notes." An' so there was, and 'faith' we printed 'em." On last Wednesday, as soon as PETER saw our paper, he harnessed up his blooded nag, and started, for the third time, to Pennsylvania. On Friday, in his Pant-De-Coe paper, he published what he alleged to be a certificate from Judge HOSTERMAN, proving that the report, as published by us, was untrue. But he makes the Judge prove too much. How can the Judge testify to what MEER said to SPANGLER? How can he, in that certificate, say that PETER did not, while conversing with Mr. SPANGLER, call Col LOVE—honorable man as he is—"Loopy fossi"? &c. Does MEER not care for the good will of Col. LOVE? It would seem not; else, why would he pass Mr. SPANGLER on his way to Judge HOSTERMAN, and again when he returned, and not procure the certificate of Mr. SPANGLER to prove that he had not vilified Col. LOVE? Simply because he knew he dare not put SPANGLER on the witness stand. Why did he not continue his third pilgrimage to Millheim, and procure certificates from the men with whom he had conversed, to prove the falsity of that portion of our report? He does so nothing. PETER is too smart for so nothing; but he makes Judge HOSTERMAN testify, in speaking of the report, "I have simply to say that it is false, and untrue, in every particular." Again, we ask, does Judge HOSTERMAN know what PETER said to SPANGLER, or

Democratic Aid to Rebels.

We have frequently charged the Democratic leaders with having been in full fellowship with the rebels during the Rebellion. The record of VALLANDIGHAM, Judge WOODWARD, HENRIE CLYMER, W. A. WALLACE, ASA PACKER and others, is too clear in this respect to need proof. Their whole course during the war proved them to be in open sympathy with the rebel slaveholders. Antagonists, themselves, and believing that "Capital should own labor," and that it would be better if the laboring men were deprived of the right of the elective franchise, it would have been almost impossible for them to be found aiding the Government and her noble defenders—the "Boys in Blue." Opposed to everything like true Democracy; opposed to a liberal Government, in which all men were declared to be equal, and treated as equals, it is not strange, we say, that they should array themselves against the Government, and throw the weight of their money, influence and sympathies in favor of the men who thought as they thought, and believed as they believed—JEFF. DAVIS and his co-workers in the rebellion.

To this day the masses of the Democratic party have not been able to account for the conduct of their leaders who assembled in Convention in Chicago in 1864-nominated Gen. McCLELLAND as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, upon a platform which declared the "war a failure" and its results nothing but "slaughter and disgrace." This, we say the masses of the Democratic party could never understand; nor could they ever understand the protest of the party leaders against conquest, the declaration of these leaders in favor of State Sovereignty; their assertions that the traitors could never be conquered, and they were struck dumb with amazement when they learned that their candidate, Gen. McClelland, was cheered vociferously all along the rebel lines. But they need doubt no longer. The course of their leaders have been fully exposed by E. A. POLLARD in his History of the rebellion, written from a Southern standpoint. POLLARD's history of the war has, up to this time, been the only work of the kind that MEER and others like him, would place any confidence in. Thus far they have adhered to POLLARD. Let them not desert him now, when he corroborates all the charges against the Democrats of aiding and abetting the rebellion. Honest Democrats, read the following paragraph which we copy from POLLARD, and then tell us, if you can, why you adhere to such a disloyal and treacherous party:

"Scarcely any Northern man of any political persuasion outside of fanaticism, doubted that if Johnson defeated Sherman, on the 1st of April '68. It was decided that ruin and disaster would follow if Coffee pot WALLACE was re-appointed. His appointment would never do. A new man must be selected. The fight waged warm, and bitter; but at last W. A. GALLBRATH, of Erie, whose best recommendation for the position, was that he had been "a virulent copperhead during the war," was appointed, and it was alleged by some Democratic journals that his appointment was "so many nails in PACKER'S coffin." Mr. GALLBRATH, no doubt, viewed the matter in the same light, as he has since declined the honor—absolutely refused to accept the position. In this he has shown to the world that he has a little sense left. His resignation, however, re-opened the old contest, and after a bitter fight, SAM RANDALL and BILLY McMULLIN again thrown overboard, and a Mr. MUTCHLER, of Easton—a man unknown to fame—was selected as the victim for martyrdom. The chairman having been selected; the first business of the Democratic State Central Committee will be to fix up a "schedule of prices" for services in the PACKER campaign. The Village Record recommends: "A cheer for Packer, three drinks: an offer to bet on Packer's election, $2 50; a discussion in his interest, $2 50; handing up a new vote, $7; getting out a coffee colored naturalization paper, $10; denunciation of the Register Law, $1 25; an argument to show that Packer commanded a corps in the Union Army, $100; a good article on his liberality, $40." To this the Harrisburg Telegraph adds: "Wearing a white 'store pipe' hat, 25c.; publishing crack editorials twice, 10c.; telling who William Mutchler is, and what kind of work his selection means, $500 12c.; all below the $500 going for lead pencils, to be used only in this particular work. There is nothing like having things systematized to make work effective, and business men work so much better when they know exactly what they may expect. Think of the enthusiasm which would be produced among the penniless politicians of the party, when they know exactly how much was to be paid for each display."

When it is known that PACKER was nominated simply on account of his $200,000, and has paid into the hands of the Democratic leaders already $200,000 to be used in the campaign, we think the Democracy of Centre county will be very foolish to deposit their votes for PACKER, until they first secure the money to which they are entitled per capita. The regular pro rata division of $200,000 among all the Democrats of the State would be, we think, without making a very close calculation, about seventy-five cents a head. We suggest, therefore, to members of the Democratic party, to make sure of their seventy five cents before casting their votes for PACKER. If they do not secure the money, the Court House Ring will be sure to seize it.

THE Bucks county Intelligencer, after naming Cass, Hancock and McClelland, as candidates before the Pennsylvania Democratic Convention for the gubernatorial nomination says: "Cass was supported by the Pennsylvania railroad influence, and by the western counties generally. He would have made a formidable candidate at the polls. General Hancock was evidently the choice of the masses of the party, who felt that his military record would be a great source of strength; Hancock would have got some Republican votes, and would have given Geary a great deal of trouble. But the party managers stepped over both of these and took up Packer, the very man that the Republicans wanted to see on the ticket."

SAYS the Chicago Post: "The nomination of Rosecrans for Governor of Ohio is a regular wet blanket on the Democracy. Poor Sam Cary is mad; Vallandigham is mad; Pendleton is mad; and everything is unlovely all around. Old Pap. Thomas being off on the Pacific coast, with no intention of returning, little Rosey will have to take the soundest thrashing he ever got in his life, next October, with no body to save him from complete annihilation. Rosey always gets whipped on the first day, and the first day is all there is of an Ohio election."

Democracy of the Whole Country.

Democracy of the whole country, Senator Sprague proclaimed the aphorism that nothing is more cowardly or mean than a million of dollars—except two million. If this be Democratic doctrine, what shall we say of the Democratic taste in selecting a twenty-million candidate and choosing him for that reason?

An effort is being made to have the Soldier's Orphan School at Orangeville, Columbia Co., Pa., re-opened. Some blame seems to attach to Col. McFarland, in the matter of its removal, as the Legislature has awarded Prof. Walker $5,000 damages.

The telescope of Pennsylvania College has been sent to Iowa for the purpose of making observations upon the eclipse of the sun in August.

The U. S. Government is having the battle-field at Gettysburg thoroughly surveyed.

The National Soldier's Orphan Home, at Gettysburg, has over eight hundred pupils.

"GRANDFATHERS STOVE." Our grandfather's stove, what a fun y old thing! So deep, so wide and so tall; Now the people would say, who are stylish "It was only a hole in the wall." It matters not what it was, it was pleasant to see When night's mantle was flung over all; Grandfather took down his good book and read By the light from the hole in the wall. As the sturdy young men rolled in the great logs They would laugh and then wrilly squall, Whilst grandma would sit on her old chair and knit By the light from the hole in the wall. The girls then wore home spun, and so did their beaux; For fire was a principle small; And courting was done and hearts have been won By the light from the hole in the wall. The neighbors were friendly wherever they'd see; With a word of true kindness for all; And joy was complete to hear voices so sweet Ring round that old hole in the wall. In those days we know, folks cared not for show; Of improvements knowing nothing at all; But 'twas really no joke, when great clouds of smoke Rashed out from the hole in the wall. But those days are now o'er, we shall know them no more. And all those old fashions have flown; Whilst the steam and gas are coming each day. To purchase the famous "Ola House."
