OUR TICKET. Union Republican Convention, a assembled in the Court House, . the 11th inst., placed in nomination a ticket of good and true men-a ticket that does honor to the convention that selected it, and to the Republican party which it represents.--

For assembly, we have JAMES P. COBURN. of Aaronsburg. Mr. Coburn is an educated man, possessing first-class business talent. He is qualified, in every particular, to represent Centre county in the Legislature. Mr. Coburn is exceedingly popular at home, having, by repeated acts of kindness, gained the esteem of his neighbors, of all political parties. He will be elect-

Confesses Its Error.

The Democratic Convention, on the 10th inst., by placing in nomination three soldiers, and ignoring the claims of their Democratic competitors, fairly admits that copperheadism is a delusion and a disgrace; that the course persued by the party during the war was disgraceful and wrong; that the trines, and to show their faith by their McClellan platform of 1864 was works, voted twice for P. Reader, the above is the ticket placed in nomination by the "Court House Ring." Look at it. Think about it. Read it over several times. Analyze it carefully.

" Black spirits and white, Blue spirits and gray;

Mingle, mingle, mingle, You that mingle may." Yes, mingle if you can, Democrats of Centre county; but one thing is certain, if you have any principle, or any consistency, you cannot support the ticket. Why? Because it does not represent the principles you have been cratic. To support this ticket makes turn-coats of every one of you without leaving your party. Do you ask how? The answer is easy. When the war for the Union was inaugurated, your leaders, the Democratic Watchman, and all the Democratic papers in the State and Nation took sides against the war -declared that the Government had no right to coerce the South. President Buchanan so declared in his message to Congress, and the smaller lights everywhere adopted it as the true Democratic doctrine. The result was, that to be a good Democrat you must be opposed to the war. In this ecunty, P. G. MEEK proclaimed the doctrine that the South was right in rebelling against the Governmentthat the rebels were fighting for their rights, their firesides and their homes, and at the same time declared that the Union army was composed of Northern hordes," "Lincoln hirelings." RANDFATHERS' STOVE." Our grandfather's stove, what a fun y old thing, So deep, so wide and so tall; Now the people would say, who are stylish and gay,
"It was only a hole in the wall."

t matters not what, it was pleasant to see When night's mantle was flung over all: randfather take down his good book and By the light from the bole in the wall. As the sturdy young men rolled in the great logs, They would laugh at each wintry squall, Thilst grandma would sit on her old chair By the light from the whole in the wall. The girls then wore home spun, and so did their beaux's, For pride was a principle small; And courting was done and hearts have been won

By the light from the hole in the wall. The noighbors were friendly wherever they'd with a word of true kindness for all; nd joy was complete to hear voices so swee Ring round that old hole in the wall. In those days we know, folks cared not for show,
Of improvements knew nothing at all; But 'twas really no joke, when great clouds

Rushed out from the hole in the wall. But those days are now o'er, we shall know And all those old fashions have flown; Whilst the solemn and gay are coming each

To purchase the famous "OLD HOME." Coming not only in couples, but in scores as hundreds of good and wise men and women have done before, to look upon this magnificent strve, which is acknowledged to be the best cooking stove of the age. Remember the place, JOHN S. LONBERGER'S,
