New FIRM -- It is with pleasure we call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of D. M. Wagner & Son Mr. Wagner is one of our oldest and mest successful business men, having done business in our town for over thirty years, and amassed a very handsome fortune. He says that he has been one of the most extensive grain dealers in the county. He also says that he has, during that time, employed some forty different young men as clerks, and sent them all out first rate business men, and now, having associated his son, W. S. Wagner, with himself in business, it is his intention to make him, if possible a better business man than the head of the Young Men's Christian Associations. -The Second State Convention of the Associations of Pennsylvania will meet at Williamsport, on Tucsday, November 2, 1869, at $7\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock, and close on Thursday evening. Delegations from all the Associations are expected, and the attendance of ministers and others interested in the cause, from churches in places where no such organizations have yet been formed, is also urged. Christian young men in these places are requested to consult together, and see that representatives are appointed. A cordial Christian welcome is assured to all who come. Delegates should be provided with credentials, and their names forwarded to Thomas K Cree, Pittsburg.

Arrangements for reduced fare on the principal lines of travel will probably be made. DEMOCRATIC CALAMITY.-We learn from our Centre Hall reporter that our distinguished friend and reader, Judge Hosterman, met with a decidedly aggravating personal and political loss, on last Sabbath evening. It seems that a vagrant set of unfeeling and unpolitic democratic scalawags, unborn of virtue, and devoid of Republican decency, did, with malicious aforethought and wicked intent, enter, and forcibly seize and convey beyond personal or political useand application, ONE BARREL of prime Stoverdistilled whiskey !!! The Packer fund should be drawn upon to supply this deficiency. It was money; it was votes; it was Democratic whiskey.
