JOB WORK—Posters, Circulars, Bill Heads, Cards, Paper Books, Job Work of all kinds, neatly executed at the Republican Office, at reasonable rates.

"BECKIE HARRIS"—Your poems will appear next week.

CHEAP—Good and cheap fruit cans for sale at Millsburg, by Wetler & Twitmer.

SAVES MONEY.—If you want posters, circulars, bill heads, cards, paper-books, first-class job work, plain or fancy, call at the Republican office. All work done at Philadelphia prices.

THANKS.—A thoughtful friend in Potter tp. will accept our distinguished thanks for an "elaborate" box of juicy, ripe, luscious peaches and pears. We will give a more extended "verbal" notice.

READY FOR THE FAIR.—The irrepressible Hostessman, of the Cummings House, has made his will, out of his last ration of coupons, and will be ready to receive visitors, callers, strangers or any man during the Fair or any other time.

We trust our friends will bear with us, and not criticize our leanness in "leaves" until after the election, when we will do our "level best" in that direction; and, as usual, lead the column of county journals. Politics, like the measles, must have its run, and we shall have it bad for a couple of weeks. Be patient until after the 12th of October.

WHILE we are busy noting the iniquities and "peculiarities" of Democratic sinners, it is a pleasure to pick up our pen and note the gentle domestic surroundings, handsome "little ones," delightful home, and now we come to it—"blessed" pears, where with our friend W. Keesh, Esq., is beautifully provided. K. let Joe and Jerry continue the chapter.

FORGIVE HIM.—We trust our hotel friend, Russell, of Aaronsburg, will forgive the little lying villain of the Reporter for his malicious but natural lying concerning the senior Editor of this paper. Said Editor neither tastes, touches or handles the arduous—a fact quite as well known to the "little Dutch villain" as to everybody else. The lie in this case is a piece with the other Man-chausseuses of that puerile sheet.

BIG POTATOES.—Mr. Henry Pennington of Patton tp. recently presented us with 25 Mammoth potatoes which filled a half bushel measure rounded up. We believe Mr. Pennington is, thus far, ahead of all competitors.

Mr. David Rothrock, of Spring tp., also presented us with an immense murrug weighing 22 1/2 lbs. Thanks, gentleman, and may your "ground-fruit" increase in size and number every year.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY produces perfect cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, "Cold in the Head," Catarrh and Catarrhal Headache, as hundreds of testimonials from well-known citizens and eminent physicians who have used it in their practice, abundantly testify. It is mild, pleasant and unobtrusive. The proprietor offers $500 for a case of Catarrh that he cannot cure. This remedy sent to any address by mail on receipt of sixty cents. Address R. V. FIEBCK, M. D., Proprietor, Buffalo, N. Y.

For sale by most Druggists everywhere.

R. R. MEYER at BALSBERG.—Another large and enthusiastic meeting was held in Balsberg, on Saturday last. S. H. Stover was chosen Chairman; S. Glasgow, and others, Vice Presidents, with Dr. C. P. W. Fisher as Secretary. Speeches were made by Messrs. A. Boyd Hutchison, of the Republican, Fortney and Blackard. It was arranged to raise 5 per cent. of the value of real estate in Harris tp. as stock. This will amount to about $70,000. The meeting was harmonious, and the utmost interest was expressed on all sides in the completion of the road.

"HALLOE! Jerry, where did you get those nice Boots and Hat I saw you wear at church last Sunday?" "Why, I got them at Zimmerman's cheap cash store, where they keep everything that's nice. My sister Jane got the prettiest Dress pattern there I ever saw, and she said they had such beautiful slipper patterns for Christmas presents, Zephyrs, and everything you can think of, and so cheap."

The above is a specimen of hundreds of little dialogues, about "Zimmerman's store" that occur every day on the streets between friends who have been there.

How to Vote.—At the coming election there will be four different tickets voted. One will be headed "Judiciary" for Judge of the Supreme Court, one headed "State" for Governor, one headed "County" for Senator, Representative, and the county ticket, and one headed "Township" or "Borough" for the township or borough tickets. Our friends in the various townships will find the whole very much simplified by having their township tickets printed. A couple dollars will pay for the tickets, and the trouble of writing will thereby be eliminated, and the work of the election officers greatly facilitated. Let the nomination of every candidate be made as soon as possible, as far as possible by the present week. This will let some one see to getting the tickets printed at once. This can be done by coming directly to this office, or sending by letter a list of the candidates, and the number of tickets wanted, and we will print them and send back by return mail. Let our friends in every part of the county see to these things without delay.

County Correspondence.

CENTRE HALL, Sept. 27, '69.
Local affairs are decidedly under the weather. The items, "fenny and foul," or "better as good," fly high, with little disposition to alight within halting distance. The cruel loss sustained by our worthy Judge, is really the only prime article fermenting in our midst, and that is now non est. The loss is from a party assembly. Kurtz, on his return from Bellefonte, last Saturday, convened a meeting at his office, and the result of his trip was made known. Perhaps it would be advisable to let the report of the gathering slip, for the present.

Fred has already divided up the $10 he received of the Ring, among the demimonde in the mountains. A little of it here, and more of it there, to catch a stray, weak Democratic voter. The whiskey is gone, and with it went our spirits, of course. Kurtz blames the Judge; the Judge, in turn, blames Love; and Love, meanwhile, swears it's Moyer's doings, and it is becoming generally believed that Moyer has the lion's share. No other accident to report.

On Thursday last there was much flutter and dazzle at Potter's Mills among the fashionable. The day was magnificent, and old Sol fairly laughed as he shot his rays down among the foliage upon the bright, fresh throng assembled for the purpose of holding a S. S. celebration. The school presented a magnificent appearance as it marched along under the leadership of its Superintendent, and the ladies of the little ones having received great attention, and exhibiting exquisite taste. The elder sisters were "gotten up" regardless of expense. The music far exceeded that usually afflicting celebrators, and the address of Rev. Mr. Hamill was listened to with interest and close attention. Following the address came marching to the beautifully filled tables. Here we found choicest groups of flowers, and tangled evergreens, delicious swaths of cakes, and the most wonderful of one-like pyramids, all attesting the luxurious taste of the ladies of Potter's Mills. The inner man satisfied, songs, chit chat and music followed, in agreeable succession, after which the bye-bye's were spoken, and another happy time passed down the "River of Time."

Among the most distinguished guests present, were Rev. Rob't Hamill, Dr. W. F. Wilson and Hon. S. L. Barr, of Tyrone, Wm. Thompson, and others. In other than political times, we would write you more extensively.

Special Notices.
Bellefonte, Pa., Sept. 26, '69.
To our Patrons and the Public Generally:
We hereby very respectfully give notice that on Monday, Oct. 4th 1869 our mode of doing business will be changed from a mixed credit and cash, to a strictly cash and produce system, and that on and after that date we will positively sell no goods whatever on credit.

Have you tried the credit system for nearly three years, and found it both unprofitable and detrimental to our lives and our customers, we have concluded to try the cash system, knowing that it will be beneficial to both parties, as it is usual to treat all who buy give us a call as pleasantly as possible, promising to always have on hand a complete stock of the most desirable goods in the market.

Thanking you for your liberal patronage we give you a cordial invitation to continue the same.
Yours Very Respectfully
