He will not subscribe one peuny until after the election, and only then a miserable pittance; and, if even that, which we greatly doubt it will be under protest. Unquestionably Mr. Moyer is committed to a programme which, if successful, will forever defeat a railroad enterprise through Pennsvalley.

If he wont give a cent for the enterprise now, in the time of its direst need, when, we ask in all carnestness. can he be expected to do so?

Let no man be deceived as to Mr. Moyer's views and designs in this Railroad matter.

If Mr. Moyer favors the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Railroad, as some of his organs and unthinking partizans contend, why did he use his influence with Mr. Wolf. Chairman of the Potter tp., Railroad Committee, to defeat the subscription of stock in that township?

We have before said that Mr. Moyer was heavily interested in Potter tp. real estate, while it was a matter of not the least consequence to Mr. Wolf.

James P. Coburn has done more for the building of the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Railroad than any other man in Pennsvalley, or Centre county.

Choose ye between these men, railroadists of Pennsvalley.

Model Moyer, alias Meyer, once sold a gentleman in Pennsvalley a melodeon for an amount exceeding $100. Some weeks after payment had been receivcight miles-stated the circumstances -got his change, and returned home.

Eighteen cents! More than a cent a mile. The purchaser had boarded model Moyer little less than three kent hotel 16 miles below Camden, Jersey If the reader don't know how that was, call on us.

The Eight Hour Law.

Workingmen should not forget that a Republican Legislature last Session nassed, and General Geary, signed a law, fixing eight hours as a legal day's work. The object of the law is to give the workingmen at least two hours each day to attend to their own private matters at home. To the poor man who has his little garden to work, his fire-wood to chop, and the dozen. other little matters to attend to, these two hours amount to something, and laboring men.

their continuous debaucheries. Let Mr. Packer conceives that in answering the demands of these leeches he is contributing to the cause of the Democratic party, and to his own per-sonal advancement. Unless some bold man tears the bandage from his eves and compels the change of his comfidential advisers. the 12th day October will tell a tale of disaster and ruin to the Democracy. Of the $75,000 already contributed, scarcely $10,000 i being applied to the ends for which the contribution was assigned-the balance is being drawn out; amongs whom? We do not desire to be misunderstood; we will support Packer and Persking. We swallow the whole as a sick man swallows a nasty medicine. But if the Democracy wish to elect either, the fools and thieves who have the custody of both must be driven from the lian, and mean and contemtily liar.
