MIGHT HAVE BREN WORSE,-We are sorry to learn that Jacob Carter Esq , of Ferguson to., met with a serious acci dent, a few days ago. He stuck a hatchet in a long po'e in order to reach it to the carpenter, who was at work in the upper part of the hulding. Before it re-ched the carpen'er, it fell, the bit striking Mr. Carter on the head, felling him to the ground. As good luck would have it, the hatchet was very dull. Our Annual County Institute will be held this year at Howard, commencing on Monday evening, Dec. 27th, at 7 o'-

All Teachers, and all who are preparing to teach, will be regarded as memhere of the Institute.

The law contemplates that Boards of Directors shall grant Teachers the time to artend the Institute, and count the same as teaching. Directors are reminded that this does not conflict with the affidavit required of the President of the Board. The plan adopted by a number of districts last year, of lengthening the term one week, by paying the Teachers for their time and requiring them to at tend the whole time, or forfeit all, is, perhape, preferable. We trust the Directors of Centre county will not be found VENISON.-We learn that, on Monday derelict in this respect, for the Institute, if properly conducted, is certainly henefit, not only directly to the Teachers, but indirectly to their schools. But whether allowed the time or not, it is a duty every Teacher owes to the profession, and we confidently expect every Teacher in the county, not unavoidably detained, to be present.

Teachers, let nothing prevent you from ittending; for paid attendance, at best, does not argue for profes-ional zeal; but percirate it.
