DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

Buchanan Floored!

The meeting of the Democracy on Monday. night was in more respects than one a rich affair. Every arrangement had been made and resolutions prepared a week beforehand, by our amiable and handsome friend, Col. Jos. W. Tate, endorsing the administration on Lecompton to the fullest extent. But when the day of meeting came, other counsels began to prevail. Judge Kimmell, Aleck Coffroth and Baer, had come to town loud and furious against the President's message, and the whole Lecompton concern. Towards evening of Monday the hitherto pleasant and smiling countenance of the Colonel began to sadden. He was evidently in distress. The handful of Douglas men had appealed to bim to strike out the Lecompton resolutions. He refused, declaring it would be fatal to the Democracy of the county. They became londer in their demands, and the Col. more obstinate. He adhered to his bantling with all the fondness of paternity. The pressure upon him at last became so great that he vielded, and the Lecompton resolutions were remorselessly exscinded. And before the meeting assembled, it was generally understood among the "knowing ones" that the ad-was badly committed, and displayed fearful gaps both in its fasts and its logic. When Mr. Meyers had concluded, Col. Tate came in, followed by an imposing committee on resolutions. The words Kansas and Lecompton were not in them from beginning to end. Besides some vague and meaningless cant about popular sovereignty, they contained nothing but flunkevish and silly compluments of a few Democratic office-holders. The disap- Bareley, dee'd. the programme was faithfully adhered to .-- and Meyers, of the Gazette, was called upon by Shannon to state the object of the meeting.

The defence of Mr. Meyers was too awkward, however, to conceal the Kansas swindle. His unlucky admissions of the Calhoun frauds were terribly damaging. He tacked both the ingenuity and courage for the position. The speech

Mr. Cessna then called on W. J. Baer, Esq. of Somerset, who was received with loud shouts. Mr. Baer declared himself in favor of both Buchanan and Douglas, but begged leave to differ with the administration on the subject of the Lecompton constitution. He lacked the nerve, however, to speak his sentiments boldly and frankly. He prevariested, seduce the administration men, had the effect however, of inspiring doubts among them.

Alcek Coffroth followed with more courage and audacity in the outset, against the administration, and their attempts to force the Lecompton swindle upon the people of Kausas. But receiving in one part of his remarks loud shouts of approval, which he supposed to come from the Black Republicans, he became alarmed, made an awkward attempt to back out, related a stale Somerset county anecdote, and wilted into his cravat.

The treason had now begun to do its work among the hitherto secure and confiding Democraev. It was evident to the "country mambers" that there was a "screw loose somewhere, and they began to call loudly upon Tate. Cessna, and other recognized leaders, for explanations.

Jas. B. Sansom Esq., editor of the Fulton Democrat, who is well known to be against the President's Lecoupton scheme, was then loudto the great disappointment of many present.

At this stage, Mr. Shannon took the floor, merely to address a knot of Black Republicans in a remote corner of the room. They "needn't tear heir shirts" about Democratic divisions here tornight. They would go away disappointed. He had seen some of them leave the meeting already with their tails between their legs.

. Col. Jos. W. Tate, in answer to repeated and vociferous shouts from all parts of the house, next presented himself. But the Col. was not equal to the crisis. His speech was an apology. He regretted that he could not make long speeches, and tell steries to make people laugh. He was not like his friend Cessna, who could pour out words for a week.

Jno. Cessna, Esq., followed next. He ful-ly approved of what had been uttered by his ciated with him in the Mercantile business, John friends. Baer and Coffroth from Samerset.

of the whole policy of James Buchanan in regard to Kansas, Utah and Nicaragua, and he believed the meeting agreed with him (cries of all right ! yes ! yes!) He referred to the time when he had been charged with being an enemy of James Buchanan, and be now wanted these gentlemen who had assumed such a defisition, and bumbly take their ranks in the party. He called upon the meeting to make these genflemen (evidently pointing to Cessna, Baer, Coffroth and others) "toe the mark to night," and there was a manifest disposition among the "faithful" who remained to carry out his purpose. But the Major was too late; the administration had been already defeated on the resolutions, and their was nothing left but to ad-

The meeting was a sad blunder from the beginning. No one will presume to deny that up to the night of this meeting there were not twenty Douglas men in the county, and now they are in the majority. You can hardly meet a Democrat that does not sustain Douglas .-Instead of putting the management into the hands of blockheads and tyros, had the opening speech been assigned to Maj. Tate, and had the resolutions been placed in his keeping, the administration would have come out with "colors flying." He would have marched boldly up to the question on one hand, and he would have taken care not to be diddled and enjoled out of his resolutions on the other. The friends of the administration thus failed in bringing their heavy ordnance into the field until the day was lost. The camp had been pillaged, and grace to commit herself entirely into the hands the administration in full retreat before a blow

DIED.

On the 26th ult., Miss MARY ANN DAVIDson, in the 70th year of her age. The deceased died in the faith of the gospel. She had been for many years a member of the Presbyterian Church in Bedford, and was an humble, confiding, prayerful christian. Her life was one of frequent bereavements and heavy trials, but under all her afflictions she retained to a remarkable degree her confidence in God, and a spirit of calm resignation to the fivine will tended greatly to lighten her burden and stay the billows of ber grief. Har last illness was of but a week's continuance .-To her pastor who saw her the evening before her death, having just returned after an absence of several days from home, she expressed her belief that her time was very short, adding that she had been enabled through of her Heavenly father, and that if it was his will that this sickness should be unto death she was glad to depart and be with Christ. She made bequest's to the American Bible Society, the Presbyterian Board of Domestic Missious, and to the church of which she was a member. This being done she waited the coming of her Lord. Calmly she approached the cold stream which divides the heavenly land from ours, ooking with the eye of faith to the Cannan of rest, regardless of the dark waters which rolled between her and the wished-for home. -Happy are they who lay up their treasures in heaven, for such when removed from earth are taken, not from but to their treasures. HAIR INVIGORATOR AND TONIC.

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friend in New Bedford thus:

To your inquiries, I would reply, that when I first commenced using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and hat been so for the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very Ioose, and puded out freely but I found that before I had used all the second bath. (which we shall wook the second bottle, (which was eight weeks) my halr was entirely changed to its original color, light brown, and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair out five or six times since the change, and have never seen any times since the change, and have never seen any thing like white hair starting from the roots; and It is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all. It has proved in my case all that I Yours, etc.

July 1, 1855. [From the Boston Herald] SOMETHING WORTH KNOWING - By using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, gray hair can be permanently restored to its original color. The ubjoined certificate from Johnson & Stone, Gar duer, Maine, is but one of the many instances that are daily coming to our knowledge, of its wonder-ful effects. It is no longer problematical, but a seif-evident truth, as bundreds in our community
