James B. Clay.

About the most humilitated and degraded man in the nation is the person whose name stand at the head of this paragraph. On the occasion of the screnade of the President, on Friday night, fly the Democracy of Washington, in honor of the passage of the Kansas bill, Mr. James B. Clay appears to have been present at the White House, in pleasant and confidential coufab with the reckless and unprincipled caumniator of his illustrious father. Being called on for a speech, as a matter of course, he commenced thus ated with this White House, where we now stand. Those times have gone. They are pas-sed, and there is nothing to be realized beyond what we have at present -a Clay an humble follower in the ranks of the Democracy!"

What a spectacle! A son of Henry Clay standing on the steps of the White House, and beasting of his being can humble follower in and St. Louis Railroad off the track at Lexthe ranks of a party that "persecuted his glorious old father through life, and hunted him with blood-hound malignity to his grave! standing there, too, the guest, the counsellor, and the supporter of the man who had done more than all others together, and that, too, by the basest slander and calumny, to defeat the honorable ambition of his father, and prevent his elevation to that very White House from the portico of which this recreant son has the shamelessness to himself "an humble follower in the ranks" of his father's bitterest and most implacable enemies. Keally, we have rarely heard of any spectacle in late days, so humilitating and so revolting. Can it be that James B. Clay is destitute of even the semblance of sensibility? It would seem so, and we believe it is co. He has neither reverence nor respect, and has regard for his father's name and memory only in so far as he may be able to prostitute both to his own persoral advantage. We both pity and despise a min so fallen, so degraded, so lost to filial reverence and to self respect.

We suggest to Mr. James B. Clay, that having changed his politics and leagued himself with his father's enemies, he would do a just and a creditable thing to change his name. The name he bears was tendered too glorious and too illustrious by the father to be tarnished and dishonored by the shameless renegadeism and recreancy of the son. Let him change it, or else, like the first of traitors, let him 'go out and hang himself .- Richmond Whig .

THE CREVASSE .- By telegraph we learn that all attempts to close up the crevasse opposite New Orleans had proved useless, and the work had been abandoned. The Picayune of the latest date received by mail says:

The river has now reached a height which is equal to, if it does not exceed, any recorded rise. Yesterday the waters still slowly rose, and there is a prospect that several days will pass before the highest point of the season shall have been attained. It is a little singular, adopting the theory that outlets are a protection to the lower Delta of the Mississippi, that notwithstanding the immense amount of water poured out of its bed by the numerous crevasses which are inundating the country in many places between this city and Memphis, that we still recrived a steady increase of height in the river at this point fully equal to the ratio that has usually been maintaned under other circumstances, between the rise here and at the former outlet should have diminished its height below that point; or, that we have seen within two days past the water running over the levee in front of this city and of Jefferson, at more than twenty different places.

Yesterday the appearance of the river along the city froat was not so threatening as it was the previous evening, though in reality the water was higher than any point it had before reached unaided by forces which retarded the regular current. The authorities, watchful as it became them to be when disaster might possibly occur from negligence, despatched a force under the Surveyor to examine the entire line of the levee between this city and Carrollton, prepared to work wherever aid was needed.

On the river front a steady current six inches higher than now exists can be discharged without damage by overflow; nor do we anticipate that any danger really exists, with the vigilance and promptness which mark the officers of the city. There was no discharge of water yesterday over the levee except near the Felicity Road.

A MYSTERY CLEARED UP .- The Chicago papers publish a full revelation of the mystery of the body found in a baarel at the Hudson River Railroad Depot in New York, in March

"It was the body of Sophie Werner, a German woman, who was murdered, or possibly committed suicide, in Chicago. Sophic was the wife of a barber, Frederick Werner. Her husband deserted her, running off with another woman, about a year ago. Shortly after she became acquainted with a journeyman barber, named Henry Jumpertz, who formerly worked in Spring Street, New York. They lived together as man and wife, and she loved him deserted by but he get tigal of her and trial. votedly; but he got tired of her, and tried to get away. They went to Milwaukie; he came back to Chicago, and she followed him. A few days after her arrival, as he asserts, he found her hanging by the neck in their room. He cut her flesh to see if she was dead, and upon ascertaining that she was so, he became much perplexed to dispose of the body. Some portions he cut away and buried on the prairie beyond the city, and, finally with a dull kuife and saw, hacked her to pieces, stowed her in a barrel, and got the barrel shipped to New York. This is a story of unmitigated deprav-ity, and more horrible in its details than that of the murder of Adams, to which the leading

A SENATOR ELECTED BY A LOVE LETTER. -In a certain town in this State, a letter arrived for a young lady from her lover on the day of the electron. The postmaster, as is not unfrequent in the rural districts, knowing the eagerness with which a message of that tender character would be expected, took upon him-self the pleasing duty of delivering it; but first, like a good Democrat, he must vote, and of like a good Democrat, he must vote, and of course in a separate self-sealing envelope.—
This was duly prepared with the Democratic tickets safely enclosed, and the gluten stuck together. Stopping at the town meeting, he deposited the letter in the ballot-box, and proceeded with the separate and self-sealed to the house of the biooning maiden; to whom he gallantly handed the entire Democratic ticket. "In the old time, my name was often associ- S'a'e and town. How the lady interpreted the missive we do not know, but the moderator and clerk ungailantly refused to count the love letter, and the Republican candidate was declared elected by one majority .--- Prov. VIOLENT TORNADOES AT THE WEST. Sr. Louis, May 15 .- A violent tornado blew the passenger train of the Chicago, Alton ington, Missouri, on Thursday night, and several persons were seriously injured. The towns of Peoria, at the junction of Towarda, also suffered severely, half the houses in them being prostrated. At Towanda three men were killed. Yesterday another storm of like character passed over the region between Bloomington and Springfield, doing much damage. A large number of houses in Elkhart and Williamsville were demblished, one of them falling in and crushing a family of five persons to death.

The House of Representatives passed finally on Tuesday the 11th inst , the bill which had previously passed the Senate, admitting Min-nesota into the Union as a State. Gen. Shields and Mr. Rice are the Senators. The act of aimission allows the State two Representa-tives—three were elected. Mr. Becker withdrew, leaving the honors to Messrs, Cavanaugh and Phelps, but they have been refused admit-press has just arrived from Camp Scott. It left the camp on the 10th of April. The Mormans were leaving Salt Lake City for the White River Mountains: Governor Comming had gone to the city by invitation.

NEW ORLEANS, May 15 .- Billy Bowlegs and his whole party, consisting of one hundred and sixty persons, arrived at the United States Barracks below this city, last evening on their way to the Indian Territory. So ends the Florida war.

SAD CATASTROPHE .- last Friday night, Jacob Gregory, of Union township, Luzerne county, Pa., while watching for some degs which had been worrying his sheep; fired at a moving object, which he mistook for a dog. It proved to be his brother, Peter Gregory, who had left the house for the same purpose; with-out the knowledge of Jacob. The unfortunate young man died in less than twenty-four hours.

There is no need to go to the Hottentots for degrading superstitions. At Glen Falls, N. Y., a man named Adams being sick with consumption, his friends have dug up the remains of his brother, which had been buried seven teen months, and taken out the heart, intending to burn the blood found in it, and thus save the sick man. But the heart was so far de-joy no premise of persuasion or conversion of as races: and that "Millethe river overruning its banks two bundred and nial glory does not anticipate their full regenfifty yards below the Bell crevasse, when that eration." This idea has in it the seed of a new ly cheap. argument in favor of slavery.

PRIZES OFFERED .- A London paper says: A gentleman offers two prizes; one of two hundred guineas and the other of fifty, for the best two essays on the causes which have led to the diminution in the numbers of the Society of Friends during the last half century.

A gentleman who has traversed a great part of Missouri recently, says he never knew the wheat crop look so promising as at present.

Sand of the principal regulators of the Natural Colof.

The liver is one of the principal regulators of the human body, and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper per-formance of its functions. When the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the Liver—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is a liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with Liver Complaint in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

GARDINER, Maine, June, 22, 1855. DEAR SIR: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it, I was a man of saventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world withont the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours, respectfully,

Prof. O. J. Wood.

DEAR SIR:—Having made a irial of your Haft Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation dandruff, and a constant itching tendency with which I have been troubled from childhood; and has also restored by hate.

WOOD'S HAIR DYE.- This admirable article is rapidly improving the hair. No article of a similar kind, now before the public, enjoys a ketter reputation as a restorative and ineigorating hair tonic. Its peculiar chemical qualities have a keneficial effect upon the growth and character of the hair, giving a silky and glossy texture to that which wa formerly of a coarse and dry nature.—It has, also, we understand, a tendency to preserve the youthful color and appearance of the hair, and destroying or counteracting the effects of age. With such recommendations in its favor, we hardly perceive how any lady or gentleman should be without so valuable an adjunct to their toilet.
