Senator Toombs, one of the pillars of Mr. Buchanan's administration, in a speech last winter, declared that the government of the United States is the most corrupt on the face of the earth! Whatever else may be said of Mr. Toombs and his class of politicians, cow-ardice is not one of their weaknesses. They are bold and out spoken. While they are willing to use such servile and corrupt men as lead the Democratic party in the North, their own self-respect compels contempt for the miserable tools who go mousing around for plunder. Hence it is they do not all guard themselves against speaking out an honest truth. Senator Toombs, when he made the above declaration, was no doubt disgusted with the mean servility and readiness for bribery with which he felt himself surround-

Under the Buchanan administration, the parties to corruption scarcely take the trouble to hide their base deeds from the public view. So brazen and impudent have the corruptors and the corrupted become, that their bargains are almost as public as if made on a public exchange. Government expends a hundred mil-lions of dollars a year (1 the public money, a large porton of which goes into hands dirty with corruption. Speculators in lands, in money, in principles and measures, congregate around the public treasury like carrion birds or beasts of prey; and, if they are willing to respond to the demands of the administration to do the dirty work required, they are sent on their way rejoicing with pockets plethoric with public money. The Democratic party can no longer make pretensions to be a party of principle; for its principles are bartered and sold THE CRY IS STILL THEY COME! for GOLD! It can no longer claim to represent the people : for it overrides the decisions of majorities, and derides the voice of the Without principle, then, and without the voice of the people on its side, the question may be asked, how does it maintain itself? The answer is found in the declarations of Senator Toombs, "the United States is the most corrupt government on the face of the carth." We shall hereafter go into details to show in what this corruption consists, and how the hundred millions of dollars yearly squandered by government, are appropriated.—Leba.

It is not often our candidates get praise from the Democracy; and we are pleased to see the manliness of that talented and efficient Democrat, Mr. Forney, of the Philadelphia Press, who, in a late number, speaks of Mr. McPherson, our candidate for Congress, as "a gentleman of great ability."

Mr. Mac is receiving very flattering notices from the Press generally. The last York Republican says:-"In this selection our friends in that District have been very fortunate -Mr. McPerson has earned for himself an enviable reputation as a man of fine abilities, deep research and excellent judgment. He is throughly conversant with the political history of the country, and is a firm friend of all the great interests of Pennsylvania. The interests the State, the honor and glory of the country at large, could not be entrusted to better hands than those of Mr. McP. Our neighboring District is grossly misrepresented in the present Congress by Wilson Reilly, the veriest specimen of lickspittle toadyism, who showed two faces on the Lecompton question at the last session of Congress. We trust that the people of that District are satisfied with the poltroonery of their present Representative, and will give Mr. McP. a rousing majority, as an evidence of their high appreeiation of his individual merits and worth as a Cheese, &c., &c.
All of which will be sold on the most reasonable man, and of the contempt they entertain fer his opporent."

RATHER CURIOUS POLITICAL ETHICS .-The Washington Union, Mr. Buchanau's cr-The Washington Union, Mr. Buchanan's ergan, has a strange idea about crime. It says:

"We maintain that a failure to abide by the above name, in the old and well known Globe

It seems, then, that the laws of the Democratic party, in the eyes of the Union, are much more sacred than the laws of the country. And the Union acts up to this doctrine, too. A Democratic Representative may shoot down a man in cold blood, or may assault and beat a Senator in his seat until his life is despaired of, and the Union will not condemn the act; but let that same Representative fail to come up to the requirements of the party, and the Union will anathamatize him terribly. Is it not shameful that any portion of the American people should be so enslaved by "party." It speaks badly for their independence and patriotism .- Lebanon Courier.

A DOUBLE BED INSISTED UPON .-- A letter from Hamburg, published in the Utica Observer, ed to eall on the subscriber without delay.

St. Clairsville, June 11, 1858.-tf.

From Paris we went to Aix-la Chapelle, and then to Cologne and Bonn. From Bonn, a balfhour's ride by railroad enabled us to visit Bruh!, a Prussian palace, the grounds about which are very handsome, although the pulace itself is, when compared with the English and French, terms. rather plain. The attendant who showed us the palace pointed out to us a large double bed, wide enough for three or four, which had been made for Victoria and Prince Albert, on the oceasion of the Queen's visit, some ten years ago, to Prussia. The Prussian style is single ds, two in the same room; but Victoria would not submit to be unconsorted, and demanded her accustomed accommodations. Another double bed is now shown at Sruhl, which the Prince of Prussia, who has just married Victoria's daughter, ordered for their accomodation at Cologne--which is an hour or two by rail-road from Bruhl--but which proved to be too short for his princely accommodation, so that an express train had to be dispatched to Bruhl, to bring them the Victoria couch.

Joshua R. Giddings, of Ohio, who has been longer in Congress than other member of the House, declines a re-election. John R. Hutchius has been nominated to take his place.

A grandson of Benedict Arnold, the American traitor; is now an Episcopal clergyman in England. He is the only male heir of the PURE CASTOR OIL at Dr. Harry's Drug and traitor that survives.
