

BEDFORD INQUIRER.

Thanksgiving in Pennsylvania.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

[L. S.] In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

WM. F. PACKER, Governor of the said Commonwealth.

A PROCLAMATION.

FELLOW-CITIZENS:—The goodness of God to a people calls for our public acknowledgment and our grateful praise. The past and the present are crowded with His blessings. Nothing has occurred to imperil the principles of civil and religious liberty upon which our Government is based, or to interfere with its harmonious operations in all departments. We are at peace with all foreign nations, and the noise of violence is unheard within our borders. While all enjoy perfect freedom of opinion, the genial influences of our free institutions, and the mild spirit of our holy religion, are more and more uniting us in our brotherhood. Our educational institutions are diffusing intelligence among the masses of our citizens, inducing a higher appreciation of their privileges, and a deeper sense of their obligations. Through in some localities the pestilence has prevailed, our country at large has enjoyed unusual health, and we are blessed with an abundance of all the necessaries and comforts of life. Our industrial pursuits are fast recovering from the torpor induced by the recent financial embarrassments; confidence is being restored, and business is resuming its wonted activity. Mercies crown all our relations in life, and the hopes of a glorious immortality wait to cheer and bless every heart.

Prompted by my own convictions of duty, and in conformity with the expressed wishes of many of my fellow-citizens, I, WM. F. PACKER, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby appoint Thursday, the Eighteenth day of November, inst., to be observed as a day of general Thanksgiving and Prayer, and recommending to all our people, that, setting aside on that day all worldly pursuits, they assemble in their respective places of worship, and unite in offering thanks to God for His goodness, imploring His gracious forgiveness, and the continuance of His mercies, and while our hearts thrill with gratitude to God for His unnumbered blessings, let a liberal charity be extended to all upon whom have been the burdens of misfortune and want. Given under my hand, and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-third.

WM. M. HESTER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

TO INVALIDS.

Dr. Hardman, Analytical Physician

Physician for diseases of the Lungs, Throat and Heart, formerly Physician to the CINCINNATI MARINE HOSPITAL, also to INVALIDS RETREAT.

Author of "Letters to Invalids," Editor of the "Medical Stethoscope," &c., &c.

NOVEMBER APPOINTMENT.

BEFORD, "WASHINGTON HOUSE," SATURDAY NOVEMBER 20TH 1858.

Hardman treats Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Laryngitis, and all diseases of the throat and lungs, by medical Inhalation, lately used in the Brompton Hospital, London. The great point in the treatment of all human maladies is to get at the disease in the direct manner. All medicines are estimated by their action upon the organ requiring relief. This is the important fact upon which Inhalation is based. If the stomach is diseased, and the medicine is taken into the stomach, if the lungs are diseased, breathe or inhale medicated vapors directly into the lungs. Medicines are the antidotes to disease and should be applied to the very seat of disease. Inhalation is the application of this principle to the treatment of the lungs, for it gives us direct access to those intricate air cells and tubes which lie out of reach of every other means of administering medicines.

The reason that consumption, and other diseases of the lungs, have heretofore resisted all treatment has been because the direct manner has not been approached in a direct manner by medicine. They were intended to act upon the lungs and yet were applied to the stomach. Their action was intended to be local, and yet they were so administered that they should act constitutionally, extending immediately and principally action upon the offending stomach, whilst the foul ulcers within the lungs were unmoistened. Inhalation brings the medicine in direct contact with the disease, without the disadvantage of any violent action. Its application is so simple that it can be employed by the youngest infant or feeblest invalid. It does not derange the stomach, or interfere in the least degree with the strength, digestion, or business of the patient.

OTHER DISEASES TREATED. In connection with the following diseases, either when complicated with lung affections or existing alone, I also invite consultation. I usually find them promptly curable. Profound and all other forms of female complaints, irregularities, and weakness. Palpitation and other forms of Heart Disease, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and all other diseases of stomach and bowels, &c.

All diseases of the eye and ear. Neuralgia, Epilepsy, and all forms of nervous disease. No charge for consultation.

Wood's Hair Restorative, that to day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold), while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three new customers and the approbation, and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convince us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

DANIEL LATROFF & Co. Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo. Nov. 19, '56.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little or no success, but to our surprise, and that of all our friends a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as natural a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

Before using it I was a man of seventy. My Hair has not attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.
